

INDEX

A

Abdication of leadership, 35

Actions: accepting need for change, 26;
 applying essence of moral power, 125–126;
 applying positive organization principles, 75–77; countering slow death process, 45;
 deciding to take, 149–150; improving leadership with deep change, 168; keeping gratitude journals, 134–136; making radical break with past, 118; for moving toward fundamental state of leadership, 112; self-change, 68; using principle of positivity, 145

Adaptive confidence: defined, 11;
 incorporating new assumptions based on,
 14; traumas leading to, 73–75

Anderson, Doug, 156–159

Assumptions: about deep change, 48; challenging normal, 5–6; confronting our limiting, 15–17; death of personal, 69–71; found in success scripts, 77–80; leading to failures, 59–61; of normal vs. positive organizing, 75–77; preventing changes in our, 13–15

Avolio, Bruce, 74

Avon, 49

B

Behavior: engineering others, 6; leverage and,
 14; need to change personal, 48, 49. See also
 Adaptive confidence; Normal state

Bibliography, 174–175

Blake, William, 120–121

Building the Bridge As You Walk On It (Quinn), 114–116, 149–151

C

Cameron, Kim S., 36

CEOs: adapting success scripts for, 82–85;
 inability to lead deep change, 6; reinventing themselves, 50. See also Leaders

Challenging normal assumptions, 5–6

Change: checklist mentality toward, 3–4; deep vs. incremental, 8–9, 39; denying need for, 27–28; developing dynamic relationships for, 12–13; examining motives for, 57–59;
 expressing need for in journal, 24–25;

Change (Continued)

failures in engineering behavioral, 6;
 focusing goals for, 169–172; leaderships reluctance to make deep, 30–31; life-changing moments leading to, 114–116;
 logic of task pursuit vs. deep, 17–20;
 planning without knowing effect on culture,
 1–2; recognizing opportunities for, 38–39;
 reluctance to make personal, 40–41;
 role of positive emotions in leading,
 131–133; Scharmers levels of, 51–55;
 shifting to chaos, 32–33, 36, 46; turning points leading to, 71–72. See also Deep change; Self-change

Change agents, 57–59

Chaos: finding core values in, 70; preceding slow death, 32–33, 36, 46

Checklist mentality toward change, 3–4

“Civil Disobedience” (Thoreau), 117

Collective fulfillment success script, 79, 83–85

Collective learning, 7–8, 9

Comfort-centered routines, 99–101

Conflict: avoiding with denial, 31–32, 35; basing change on, 59–61; surfacing and transcending, 113–114; transforming into collaboration, 32

Creativity, 135

Csikszentmihalyi, Mihaly, 82

Culture: collective learning within, 7–8, 9;
 finding effective methods for modifying, 11–13; leading changes in corporate, 4;
 planning without knowing effect on,
 1–2; signs of slow death process in,
 28–30

D

Dead Poets Society, 160–166

Deep change: beginning with leaders change,
 154–156; believing in capacity to lead,
 73–75; characteristics of, 9; defined, 9; feeling lost during, 95–96; focusing goals for, 169–172; incremental vs., 8–9, 39; logic of task pursuit vs., 17–20; reluctance to make, 30–31; resistance to, 5–6; soul searching connected with, 96–99; teaching, 157–159; turning slow death into, 38–39

Denial: avoiding conflict with, 31–32, 35;
 hierarchical pressures supporting, 27–28;
 leading to slow death, 28–30, 35

Developmental readiness, 74

Devil Wears Prada, The, 86–92, 102, 155

Diagnosing and Changing Organizational Culture
 (Cameron and Quinn), 36

Disagreement within organizations, 32

E

Ego-death, 70–71

Employees: actualizing potential of, 37–39;
 changing productivity and attitude of,
 37–38; signs of quiet desperation in, 29

Entropy: overcoming organizational, 114;
 second law of thermodynamics and, 36

Excuses, 36

Externally directed values, 101–102

Externally open: becoming, 104; defined, 103;
 example of becoming, 118–120

F

Failures: evaluating organizational, 47–48;
 examining assumptions leading to, 59–61;

- to institute transformations, 129–131;
leading to adaptive confidence, 73–75; relationships as key in,
56–57; serving reevaluative process,
69–70
- Films: Dead Poets Society, 160–166; Devil Wears Prada, The, 86–92, 155; Gandhi, 139–143; King's Speech, The, 63–67; Moneyball, 41–43, 101; Norma Rae, 20–24, 101; Remember the Titans, 107–110; Stand and Deliver, 121–124
- Ford, 3–4
- Fredrickson, Barbara, 132
- Fritz, Robert, 103
- Fuller, Buckminster, 69, 76, 85
- Fundamental state of leadership: aligning with dynamic universe, 106; attracting others to, 147–148, 159–160; attracting virtue in others in, 116–118; considering characteristics of, 105; defined, 96; externally open values, 103, 104, 118–120; film considering, 106–110; illustrated, 103; inspiring others to, 152–153; internally directed values in, 103, 104; life-changing moments leading to, 114–116; other-focused values in, 103, 104; personal change as core of, 154–156; purpose-centered focus of, 103; returning to, 148–149, 151
- G
- Gandhi*, 139–143
- General Motors, 36–37, 38, 39, 56, 57, 59, 61, 101
- Glocer, Tom, 149–151
- Goals: focusing for deep change, 169–172;
goal inversion by leaders, 30–31, 35;
learning way to, 7–8
- Gratitude journals, 134–136
- H
- Hannah, Sean, 74
- Hierarchical concepts: moving away from, 9;
presuming other as problem, 6; supporting denial, 27–28
- High-performance cultures, 84
- I
- Incremental change, 8–9, 39
- Independent task pursuit success scripts, 78, 80–82
- Innovation, 51, 53
- Intense achievement success script:
characteristics of, 78–79; growing beyond, 82; reaching limits of, 83
- Internally closed, 102, 104
- Internally directed values, 103, 104
- J
- Journal entries: considering fundamental state of leadership, 111–112; examining success scripts, 92–93; expressing need to change, 24–25; facing slow death, 44–45; focusing on positivity, 143–144; inviting others to deep change, 166–167; keeping gratitude journals, 134–136; reflecting on self-change, 67–68; regarding moral power, 124–125; writing about personal traumas, 72–73
- Jung, Andrea, 40–41, 49–50, 51, 62

K

Kazin, Alfred, 121

King's Speech, The, 63–67L

Leaders: administrators becoming, 98–99;
 aligning with dynamic universe, 106;
 breaking logic of task pursuit, 17–20;
 characteristic of deep change, 9; choosing to return to fundamental state, 148–149;
 condoning unethical behavior, 27–28;
 confronting limiting assumptions, 15–17;
 developing adaptive confidence, 11;
 disorientation during deep change, 95–96;
 excuses for not making change, 36; facing slow death at personal level, 40–41;
 focusing goals for change, 169–172;
 goal inversion by, 30–31, 35; internally directed values of, 103, 104; leadership vs.
 management by, 33; need for personal change, 47–48; posturing by, 35–36; purpose-centered focus fundamental state, 103; recognizing when transformation can occur, 129–131; reinventing themselves, 50; reluctance to make deep change, 30–31; success scripts of,
 77, 78–79; transformational, 10–11

Leadership: abdication of, 35; bringing self-mastery and love into, 61–62; describe how slow death unfolds, 31–35;
 fundamental state of, 96; as influence, 137, 147–148; overcoming slow death with,
 36–38; personal change crucial to,

49–50; role of personal integrity in,
 127–129

Lean manufacturing, 2–3

Learning collectively, 7–8, 9

Leverage, 14

Liker, Jeff, 2–3, 7

Logic of task pursuit, 17–20

Long Walk to Freedom (Mandela), 129M

Man Who Listens to Horses, The
 (Roberts), 10

Managers: administrators becoming leaders, 98–99; leadership vs. management, 33;
 transforming scripts to become, 80–82

Mandela, Nelson, 129

Memo: conveying fundamental state of leadership, 111–112; conveying process of slow death, 45; defining essence of moral power, 125–126; describing need for self-change, 68; explaining effect of positivity, 144; expressing need to change, 25; inviting others to deep change, 168; on positive organizing, 92–93

Moneyball, 41–43, 101

Moral power: attracting virtue in others with,
 116–118; journal entries regarding,
 124–125; reciprocity in relationships
 reflecting, 120–121

N

Negative events, 72–73

Niederhoffer, Kate, 72–73

Norma Rae, 20–24, 101

- Normal organizing assumptions, 75–77
- Normal state: about, 96; Blakes view of, 120; comfort-centered routines and, 99–101; elevating self to fundamental state of leadership from, 147–148; externally directed in, 101–102; illustrated, 101; internally closed from change, 102; living in, 98; noticing participation in, 120; self-centered focus of, 102
- NUMMI (New United Motors Manufacturing Incorporated), 37
- O
- Organizations: confusing busy-ness with success, 33–34; denial leading to slow death of, 28–30; healthy disagreement within, 32; hierarchical pressures within, 27–28; leaders reluctance to make change, 30–31; self-change needed to unleash potential of, 62
- Ostracism, 127–128
- Other-focused values, 103, 104
- P
- Pennebaker, James, 72–73
- Personal change. See Self-change
- Peters, Larry, 154–156
- Pirsig, Robert, 11–12
- Positive organizing, 75–77, 85, 92–93
- Positivity: assumptions of positive organizing, 75–77; gratitude journals supporting, 134–136; power of, 136–138; questions supporting personal, 133–134, 137; role of positive emotion in change, 131–133
- Positivity ratio, 132–134, 137
- Posturing, 35–36
- Purpose-centered focus fundamental state, 103
- Q
- Q1 program, 3–4
- Quinn, Robert E., 36, 77, 114–116, 149–151, 173, 177
- R
- Reacting to change, 51–52
- Readings and resources, 174
- Redesigning, 51, 52
- Reframing, 51, 52
- Regenerating, 51, 53
- Relationships: attracting virtue in others in, 116–118; change and dynamic, 12–13; developing culture that values, 83; reciprocity in, 120–121; regenerating key, 55–57
- Remember the Titans*, 107–110
- Resistance to deep change, 5–6
- Responsive service success script, 77–78
- Restructuring, 51, 52
- Reuters, 141, 149, 150
- Roberts, Monty, 10–12, 13–14, 39
- S
- Sacred space, 156
- Scharmer, Otto, 51, 53
- Self-change: becoming externally open, 103, 118–120; changing success scripts for, 80–85; confidence growing out of failures,

Self-change (Continued)

73–75; confronting limiting assumptions, 15–17; at core of fundamental state, 154–156; crucial to leadership, 49–50; key to deep change, 39; life-changing moments leading to, 114–116; need for commitment to, 47–48; positive organizing and, 85; process of ego-death, 70–71; Scharmer levels of, 51–55; soul searching connected with, 96–99; turning points leading to, 71–73; understanding assumptions in positive organizing, 75–77

Self-help: examining motives for change, 57–59; regenerating key relationships, 55–57

Self-interest: personal integrity transcending, 127–129; self-centered focus, 102

Selflessness: applying to deep change, 62; introducing into leadership, 61–62; personal integrity transcending self-interest, 127–129

Slow death: abdication of leadership and, 35; avoiding, 113; chaos preceding, 32–33, 36, 46; characteristics of, 35–36; conveying process of, 45; denial leading to, 28–30, 35; facing at personal level, 40–41; goal inversion by leaders, 30–31, 35; how it unfolds, 31–35; internal conflict as route to, 31–32, 35; journal entries about, 44–45; leaderships reluctance for change and, 30–31; normal states contribution to, 100–101; overcoming with leadership, 36–38; recognizing changes for overcoming, 38–39; second law of thermodynamics, 36; turning into deep change, 38–39

Spreitzer, Gretchen, 77

Stand and Deliver, 121–124

Success: confusing busy-ness with, 33–34; noticing dwindling return on efforts, 15–17

Success scripts, 77–80; collective fulfillment, 79; independent task pursuit, 78, 80–82; intense achievement, 78–79, 82, 83; responsive service, 77–78; transforming personal, 80–85

T

Teaching deep change, 157–159

Tesla Motors, 38

Theory U (Scharmer), 51

Thoreau, Henry David, 175

Toronto, Ellen, 40

Toyota, 2–3, 37–39, 60

Transformational leaders: about, 10–11; lessons for developing, 152–153

Transformations: recognizing moments of possible, 129–131; required for leadership, 154–159; role of positive emotion in, 131–133; turning conflict into collaboration, 32; turning points leading to change, 71–72

Trust: authentic conversation building, 156; building corporate, 37–39, 59–60

Turning points: becoming life-changing moments, 114–116; characteristics of, 71–72; shocks leading to, 96–98; traumas leading to self-change, 72–73

U

Uncertainty: leaders accepting, 149–151;
reluctance to live in, 148–149
United Auto Workers (UAW), 36, 37

W

Warner, Terry, 56
Wethington, Elaine, 71–72

Y

Yamamoto, Robert, 96–99,
106
Youngblood, Mark, 69–70

Z

Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance
(Pirsig), 11–12

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>