

Contents

Acknowledgements	v
Portraits of Women Lawyers	ix
Introduction The First Women Lawyers	I
Prologue: Contemporary Questions about Women as Lawyers	I
Rethinking the First Women Lawyers: Themes of Gender, Professionalism and Women's Lives	5
Toward a Comparative History: Introducing the First Women Lawyers	16
1 American Pioneers: The First Women Lawyers	23
A Century of Struggle	23
The Context for the First Women Lawyers: New Ideas about Women's Equality and Legal Professionalism	29
Constitutionalising (In)Equality for Women Lawyers	40
Women's Rights and Professional Identities	54
2 Women Lawyers in Canada: Becoming Lawyers 'On the Same Terms as Men'	67
Women as 'Fellow Lawyers'	67
The Context for the First Women Lawyers in Canada: Reformist Ideas about Professionalism and Women's Roles	73
'Persons,' Pronouns, and Policy Choices: Judicial Reasoning in French and Langstaff	89
Contested Ideas: New Women and Legal Professionalism	99
3 'Sound Women' and Legal Work: The First Women in Law in Britain	113
Women's Access to the Legal Professions in Britain	113
Eliza Orme: Challenging 'Woman's Sphere' and a 'Gentleman's Profession'	121
A Woman in Law in the Public Sphere	137
Eliza Orme and the Gender Issue	148

4	Colonies of the British Empire: The First Woman Lawyer in New Zealand	155
	Women Lawyers in the Colonies	155
	Ethel Benjamin	160
	A 'Rebel [Extending] the Boundary of the Right'?	187
5	The Empire and British India: The First Indian Woman 'In Law'	191
	A Woman Pleading in a British Court in India: 1896	191
	Becoming a Woman in Law in India	196
	Cornelia Sorabji: 'No Peer Among the Women of India'	232
6	European Connections: Women in Law and the Role of Louis Frank	239
	La Femme-Avocat and European Women Lawyers	239
	Lydia Poët, Marie Popelin and Jeanne Chauvin: Louis Frank's Support for Women in Law	246
	The Context of L'Affaire Chauvin	269
Conclusion	Reflecting on the First Women Lawyers	277
	Bibliography	291
	Index	319