

Contents

Preface	v
List of Contributors	xi
Table of Cases	xiii
Table of Legislation	xxiii
Table of International Treaties and Conventions	xxxiii
I Keynote Address
1 Reforming Housing Law: A Progress Report Martin Partington	3
II Law and Equity
2 Equitable Co-ownership: Proprietary Rights in Name Only? Martin Dixon	23
3 Why is the Law of Undue Influence so Hard to Understand and Apply? Graham Ferris	49
4 The Lie of the Land: Mortgage Law as Legal Fiction Gary Watt	73
5 Curbing the Enthusiasm of Finders Robin Hickey	97
6 Leases: Rethinking Possession against Vulnerable Groups Warren Barr	119
7 Reconciling Property Law and Social Security Law: Same Concepts, Different Meanings? Nicholas Hopkins and Emma Laurie	143
III Possession of Land
8 The Acquisition of Rights in Property by the Effluxion of Time Amy Goymour	169
9 An Adjudication Rule for Encroachment Disputes: Adverse Possession or a Building Encroachment Statute? Pamela O'Connor	197
10 de Soto Discovers the Prairies: Of Squatters and the Canadian West Bruce Ziff and Sean Ward	219

IV Property, Empire and Indigenous Title

11	Land Law and the Making of the British Empire Patrick McAuslan	239
12	Translating Native Title to Individual 'Title' in Australia: Are Real Property Forms and Indigenous Interests Reconcilable? Lee Godden and Maureen Tehan	263
13	Individual Title versus Collective Title in Australia: Reflections on the North American and New Zealand Experiences of Indigenous Title to Land M A Stephenson	295
	Index	329

<http://www.pbookshop.com>