

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements xi

About the author xiii

Introduction 1

PART ONE Fundamentals 7

01 What is employment law? 9

Introduction 9

Employment law 9

Domestic law 10

European law 12

In context – social justice and fairness 12

The law and models of justice 14

Case study: Cooking Up Trouble 15

In context – the effect of regulation 16

Case study: Purpose of employment law: balancing employer flexibility and employee protection 17

The role of the court system 18

Civil and criminal law 18

The role of courts in employment law 18

The role of tribunals in employment law 19

Case study: Early conciliation 21

Out-of-court settlements 23

Conclusion 24

Case study: Refunding justice 25

02 The importance of employment law 27

Introduction 27

Protecting employees 27

Work–life balance rights 28

Discrimination rights 29

Contractual rights 31

Case study: Implied rights (employer duties)	32
Dismissal rights	34
Protecting employers	37
The role of legislation in supporting employers	38
Case study: A viewpoint on diversity	40
Keeping up to date	42
How to keep up to date	43
Conclusion	44
Case study: Whistle-blowing	44

03 Employment law and strategy 47

Introduction	47
A legal and moral framework	47
The legal and moral framework for employers and stakeholders	48
The law, ethics and organizational values	49
Case study: Valuing risk-taking – a cautionary tale	50
The role of the HR professional	52
Business strategy and legal compliance	52
Lifecycle – small and medium-sized enterprises	52
Lifecycles – growth and maturity	54
Lifecycles – decline	55
Advice and guidance	55
Courage to challenge	56
The role of the HR professional in a global business	56
Multinational corporations	56
Conclusion	58
Case study: Shifting values	58

PART TWO In practice 61

04 How it works 63

Introduction	63
Managing the start of the employment relationship	63
Preventing discrimination in recruitment	64
Positive action	65
Case study: Parliamentary positive action	65
Occupational requirements	65
Immigration and employment	66

Employing temporary staff – the Agency Workers Regulations 2010	71
Establishing contracts	72
Managing change	74
Changing contracts	74
Case study: Managing a variation: choices	76
Business transfers and service provision changes – transfer of undertakings (TUPE)	77
Case study: Tendering in the charitable sector	81
Managing people	82
The GDPR 2018	82
Discrimination – Equality Act 2010	83
Case study: Supporting disabled colleagues	85
Vento Bands	87
Absence management	88
Health and safety	91
Case study: Birse Rail	93
Managing terms and rights	94
Equal pay	94
Family friendly rights	97
Other statutory rights	103
Managing the end of the employment relationship	105
Dismissal	106
Redundancy	106
Conclusion	109
Case study: Redundancies in a multinational corporation	110

05 How you do it 113

Introduction	113
Managing the start of the employment relationship	113
Key issues – status	114
Case study: The gig economy	115
Managing change	116
Changing contracts – gaining consent	116
Communicating business transfers to stakeholders	116
Settlement agreements	118
Managing people	119
Challenging discrimination	119

Case study: Diversity in the Victoria Police Force	121
Managing health and safety	122
Personal injury claims	124
Managing short-term absence	125
Managing long-term absence	130
Pay and benefit issues for long-term sickness	135
Case study: Matty at Matinal	136
Managing terms and rights	137
Family friendly rights – maternity	137
Equal pay – job evaluation schemes	137
Case study: Job evaluations	139
Managing the end of the employment relationship	142
A brief review of misconduct dismissal	142
Case study: Following a trial of misconduct	144
Managing individual redundancy consultations	145
Conclusion	148
Case study: Problems with Dave	148

06 Planning and action 151

Introduction	151
Managing the start of the employment relationship	152
Short-listing	152
Managing change	152
Changing contracts – planning communication	153
Managing people	154
The practicalities of family friendly rights	154
Establishing a diverse workforce	156
Planning to reduce absence	157
Case study: How employers can make a difference	159
Ensuring a healthy and safe workforce	160
Managing terms and rights	162
Managing an equal pay audit	162
Managing the end of the employment relationship	166
Planning for replacement and retirement of staff	166
Case study: Women in the boardroom	168
Planning a programme of redundancies	169
Preparing for an Employment Tribunal	169
Conclusion	172
Case study: Redundancies at Canton	173

07 Measurement 177

Introduction 177

The employment relationship 178

 Measuring turnover and headcount 178

 Grievance and discipline 179

Managing people 179

 Discrimination – equal opportunities monitoring and impact assessment 179

 Discrimination – Gender Pay Gap Reporting 182

 Absence management – monitoring absence 182

 Health and safety – monitoring accidents and incidents 184

 Case study: Cases of health and safety negligence 184

Measuring terms and rights 185

 Pay reviews 186

 Audits 186

 Case study: Keeping the rolls 187

 Public interest and a whistle-blowing policy 188

Conclusion 189

08 Conclusions and Government changes to employment law 191

References and further reading 195

Cases and legislation 207

Index 209