

Contents

Preface	v
Acknowledgements	vii
Table of Cases	xiii
Table of Statutes	xv
Table of Other Guidance	xvii
About the Author	xix
Chapter 1 Transfer pricing: what is it?	1
What is transfer pricing?	1
Where did transfer pricing come from? The growth of world trade	1
Where did transfer pricing come from? The growth of transfer-pricing rules	3
Defining the issue	4
The arm's-length standard – what and why?	5
A spreading fire – transfer-pricing legislation around the world	6
Modern business models	8
Chapter 2 OECD	11
Background to Article 9 and the Transfer-pricing Guidelines	11
Which version of the Guidelines?	12
The arm's-length principle	14
Setting prices versus testing prices	17
The heart of transfer pricing: comparability	18
Other practical issues	22
Use of transfer-pricing methods	27
Transfer-pricing methods	27
Recent OECD developments	37
The rest of the book	38
Chapter 3 Types of transaction: Tangible goods	39
Introduction	39
Manufacturing	41
Distribution	44
Wholesalers and marketers	46
Chapter 4 Types of transaction: Intra-group services	49
Is there a benefit?	50
How should a charge be made?	53

Contents

At cost or at a profit?	57
Low value-added services	58
Chapter 5 Financing	61
Introduction	61
What are typical inter-company financing transactions?	62
Loan financing: thin capitalisation	64
Interest-free loans: Is a transfer-pricing adjustment always needed?	66
Loan financing: interest rates	69
Loan financing: pricing of short-term funding and cash pooling	70
Loan financing: practical pricing issues	72
Loan financing: guarantee fees	74
Other types of financing transaction	80
Debt factoring	81
Chapter 6 Intangible property	85
Introduction	85
Identifying intangibles	90
Contractual arrangements – legal ownership	100
Identification and analysis of parties performing the functions, using the assets and assuming the risks	106
Consistency of contractual arrangements and activities performed	111
Delineation of the controlled transaction to determine the DEMPE functions	112
Determination of the arm's-length price	113
Hard to value intangibles	125
Timing	127
OECD examples	129
Chapter 7 Profit split	131
Introduction	131
Overview of profit split	132
Application of profit split	135
Strengths and weaknesses of profit split	144
Factors in Georgia-Pacific	145
Chapter 8 Business restructuring	147
Introduction	147
Chapter IX of the OECD Transfer Pricing Guidelines	150
Chapter 9 Transfer-pricing documentation	169
Introduction	169
The purpose of transfer-pricing documentation	171
The current standard – a local approach	171
The move to a new global standard	172
The future standard – the BEPS approach	173

Contents

Practical considerations	179
Conclusion	182
Chapter 10 Operational transfer pricing	183
Introduction	183
What is operational transfer pricing?	184
A holistic approach	184
Where does it go wrong?	190
Summary	195
Chapter 11 Tax audits and eliminating double taxation	197
Introduction	197
OECD framework for bilateral treaties	202
MAP in practice	203
The EU Arbitration Convention	206
Advance pricing agreement definition	209
Secondary adjustments	214
Chapter 12 UK transfer-pricing legislation	217
Introduction	217
TIOPA 2010, Part 4	218
How wide is the scope of UK transfer-pricing legislation?	220
What are the basic rules and the pre-conditions for the rules to apply?	221
If required, how big should the adjustment be under the rule?	227
Does UK law allow re-characterisation of a transaction?	229
What about compensating adjustments and balancing payments?	230
Small and medium-sized enterprises	233
Appendix A United Kingdom Transfer Pricing Summary	237
Appendix B International Quick Reference Guide 2016	247
Index	259