

- Absolute purchasing power parity, 169
- Activist monetary policy, 9–10
- Adaptive expectations, 86
- Advanced economies
  - fiscal debt burden in, 267–269
  - inflation targeting in, 11
  - normalization of monetary policy in, 269
  - speculative attacks on currencies in, 25–29
- Adverse selection, 203, 205–206
- AIG, 261, 262
- Akerloff, George, 194
- Allen, F., 199, 201
- Analytical capacity, 280
- Asian financial crisis (1990s), 176–177
- Asset-price bubbles, 107–108, 194, 210–211, 214–215
- Asset price effect of monetary policy, 149, 160–161

- Balance of payments crisis, 21–22
- Balance sheet channel, 154–155
- Banker to banks, central banks as, 5–6, 46
- Banker to government, 5
- Bank for International Settlements (BIS), 281
- Banking system, as network, 200–201
- Bank of Amsterdam, 4–5
- Bank of England
  - delegation of bank supervisory function by, 13
  - Great Depression and, 19
  - historical background of, 5, 6
  - influence of, 18
  - monetary stability and, 64
  - money supply growth targeting and, 100–101
  - supervisory role and, 8, 54, 279
- Bank of France, 5
- Bank of Japan
  - delegation of bank supervisory function by, 13
  - inflation targeting and, 11
  - monetary policy and, 67
  - supervisory role and, 8
- Bank of Spain, 5
- Bank of Stockholm, 4–5
- Bank of the United States, 7
- Bank run, 193–194, 198–200
- Banks. See also Central banks; Commercial banks
  - diversity of, 202
  - historical background of, 4–6
  - licensing of new, 49–50
  - market-based activities by, 262–263
  - special resolutions for troubled, 245–247
- Bank subsidiaries, 264–265
- Bank supervisory role
  - central banks and, 7–8, 13, 49–53
  - issues related to, 53–54
  - new strategies for, 277–278
  - in United Kingdom, 8
- Basel Accord (Basel I), 239–240, 270
- Basel Accord (Basel II), 240–241, 270
- Basel Accord (Basel III), 41–243, 270
- Basel Committee for Banking Supervision (BCBS), 218–219, 239
- Base money, 40
- Basket of currencies, 95, 96
- Bear Stearns, 30, 32, 264
- Beggar-thy-neighbor policy, 19
- Bernanke, Ben, 106, 190, 199, 234, 283
- Big Mac index, 170
- Bond prices, interest rates and, 148
- Borio, Claudio, 190

- Breakeven inflation, 145
- Breakeven yield, 146
- Bretton Woods system
- balance of payment crisis and, 21–22
  - demise of, 23
  - explanation of, 9–10, 20
  - International Monetary Fund and, 20–21
  - pressures on, 21
  - Triffin dilemma and, 22–23
  - U.S. macroeconomic policy package and, 22
- CAMELS, 51, 216, 235
- Capital, 237
- Capital adequacy ratio, 240
- Capital flows
- effects of, 96–97
  - exchange rate targeting and, 98
  - globalization and international, 257
  - regulation of, 181–182
- Capital ratio, 237–238
- Capital requirements
- assets, liabilities and, 236–238
  - Basel Committee on Banking Supervision and, 239–243
  - explanation of, 51–52
  - financial stability and, 239
  - macroprudential measures and, 236, 238
  - time-varying, 236, 238
- Ceilings, on credit growth, 233
- Central banking mandates
- balance among, 69–73
  - evolving nature of, 59–61
  - financial stability and, 65–68, 73
  - full employment, 14, 62–63, 68–69, 73
  - intertwining nature of, 61–62
  - monetary stability and, 63–65, 73
  - outlook for, 74
- Central banking strategies
- effective execution of, 278–283
  - evolution of, 284–286
  - function of, 275–276
  - search for new, 277–278
- Central banks
- as banker to banks, 5–6
  - as bank supervisors, 49–534
  - commonalities in modern, 12–13
  - diversity in modern, 13–14
  - electronic payments and, 265–267
  - financial stability and, 12, 13, 38, 190, 192–193
  - financial system and, 6–7
  - full employment and, 14
  - future challenges for, 256, 272–273
  - global financial crisis of 2007–2010 and, 8, 14, 67–68, 71–73, 267–272, 277
  - globalization and, 255–259
  - gold standard and, 9
  - historical background of, 3–6
  - influence in money market, 122–123
  - as lender of last resort, 7, 48–49
  - market-based financial activities and, 252–265
  - monetary policy and, 8–11, 13, 38, 44–46, 70, 175–176
  - monetary stability and, 12, 13, 38
  - money creation and, 38–44
  - operational independence of, 89
  - payment system oversight and, 46–47
  - as protector of financial system, 6–7
  - regulatory and supervisory functions of, 7–8, 13
  - relationship between government and, 5–6
  - roles and functions of, 38, 39, 54
  - standing facilities of, 127
  - yield curve and, 132–133
- China, globalization and, 258
- Coins, 4
- Coin sorting, 13
- Commercial banks
- compliance of, 52–53
  - examination and monitoring of, 50–51
  - regulatory requirements for, 51–52
  - resolution for troubled, 53
  - risks associated with, 7–8
- Commercial Paper Funding Facility (Federal Reserve), 49
- Commercial paper issuers, 250

- Common currency, 164
- Conservatorship, 246
- Contingent claims analysis, 224–225
- Contingent liabilities, 213
- Coordination failure, 204–205
- Corporate debt, 212
- Crawling peg, 95, 166
- Credit cards, 265, 266
- Credit channel, 153, 154
- Credit default swaps (CDS), 213, 261–262, 270
- Credit easing, 110–111
- Credit market, 119
- Credit risk, 190, 214
- Cross-border flows of goods and services, 257–258
- Currency
  - demand for domestic, 96
  - explanation of, 40
  - free-float, 164
- Currency board, 164–165
- Currency mismatch, 214, 249
- Debit cards, 266
- Debt
  - in corporate sector, 212
  - in external sector, 213–214
  - global financial crisis and, 267–269
  - in government sector, 213–214
  - in household sector, 211–212
- Debt-to-income (DTI) ratios, 233
- Deflation, 31, 44
- Deleveraging, 112
- Deposit facility, 122, 127–129
- Diamond, Douglas, 194, 198–200
- Diamond-Dybvig model, 199–200
- Direct lending, to government, 12
- Discount window, 245
- Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, 247, 263
- Domestic systemically important banks (D-SIBs), 218, 219, 270
- Dot-com bubble, 30–31
- Drehmann, Mathias, 190
- Dybvig, Philip, 193, 194, 199–201
- Dynamic loan loss provisioning, 236, 243–244
- Dynamic stochastic general equilibrium (DSGE), 87, 88, 157
- East Asian currency crisis in 1997–1998, 26–27
- Economic activity, money creation process and, 39, 43–44
- Electronic payments
  - retail, 266–267
  - rise of, 265–266
- Emerging-market economies
  - inflation targeting in, 11
  - international capital inflow into, 34
  - speculative attacks on currencies of, 24
- E-money, 265–267
- Equation of exchange, 79
- Equilibrium, in money market, 121–122
- Equilibrium exchange rate, 177–179
- Euro, 11, 29–30
- European Central Bank (ECB)
  - bank supervisory function and, 13
  - function of, 11, 29, 30, 164, 272
  - monetary policy and, 13
  - sovereign debt crisis and, 111–112
- European Commission, 272
- European Economic Community (EEC), 29
- European Monetary System (EMS),
  - speculative attacks on currencies in countries within, 25–26
- European sovereign debt crisis, 33, 111–112
- European Union (EU), 11, 29
- Ex ante*, 67, 229, 250
- Exchange rate
  - Asian financial crisis and, 176–177
  - Bretton Woods system and, 20, 22
  - effects of, 162–163
  - equilibrium, 177–179
  - explanation of, 161
  - fixed, 166, 176
  - floating, 23
  - interest rate, inflation and, 175
  - macro concepts and, 174–179

- Exchange rate (continued)
 official foreign reserves and,
 182–183
 at operational level, 179–182
 purchasing power parity and,
 178–179
 Singapore and, 167–168
- Exchange rate effect of monetary policy
 transmission, 149
- Exchange rate market microstructure theory, 173
- Exchange rate policy, political capacity
 and, 282–283
- Exchange rate regimes
 explanation of, 163
 spectrum of, 163–167
- Exchange rate risk, Asian financial crisis
 and, 176–177
- Exchange rate targeting capital flows and, 98
 explanation of, 94–95
 monetary policy independence and,
 97–98
 stylized model of, 95–97
- Exchange rate theory
 exchange rate policy and, 173–174
 overview of, 162, 168
 purchasing power parity and,
 168–170, 174
 uncovered interest parity and,
 170–173
- Expectations effect of monetary policy
 transmission, 152–153
- Ex post*, 67, 229, 250
- External coordination, 281
- Externalities, 205
- Factor inputs, 257–258
- Fallacy of composition problem, 217
- Federal funds rate, 122
- Federal Reserve
 AIG and, 262
 Commercial Paper Funding
 Facility, 49
 federal funds rate and, 122
 full employment and, 13–14, 68–69
 global financial crisis of 2007-2010
 and, 31, 32, 269, 281
 government security purchases
 and, 269
 inflation targeting and, 11, 106
 money supply growth targeting and,
 100–101, 103
 Primary Dealer Credit Facility, 49
 repos and reverse-repos and, 126
 risk management approach and,
 102–103
- Federal Reserve Act (1977), 68
- Federal Reserve Open Market Reserve (FOMC), 62
- Federal Reserve System, historical background of, 7
- Feedback loops, 156, 219
- Financial assets, nonmoney, 198
- Financial Conduct Authority, 272
- Financial institutions
 balance sheet channel and,
 154–155
 credit channel and, 154
 financial stability and, 191–192, 198–201, 235–247
 monetary policy and, 153–154
 monitoring and identifying risks to, 215–219
 special resolutions for troubled,
 245–247
- Financial markets
 central bank operations in,
 118–129
 explanation of, 118–120, 192
 failure in, 201–202
 financial stability and, 201–206, 199–202, 247–250
 global financial crisis of 2007-2010
 and, 202
 list of key, 119
 money market and, 119–123
 net open positions and, 223 operations of, 45–46
 prices and yields and, 220–221
 risk accumulation and, 220 spreads and, 221–222
- Financial network
 explanation of, 194–195, 201
 risk distribution within,
 217–218

- Financial stability
- analytical framework for, 191–192
  - central banks and, 12, 13, 38, 60, 61, 71, 192–193
  - definitions of, 189–190
  - exchange rate and, 162
  - ex post* and ex ante, 67
  - financial institutions and, 191–192, 199–202, 235–247
  - financial markets and, 202–207, 220–225, 247–250
  - function of, 65–66
  - implications of market failures for, 206–207
  - importance of, 67–68
  - liquidity shortages and, 66
  - macroeconomy and, 191–198, 215, 229–235
  - macroprudential tools and, 72
  - macro stress tests and, 219
  - monetary policy and, 72, 229–231
  - overindebtedness of economic agents and, 66
  - paradox of, 222
  - requirements for, 209
  - risks in macroeconomy and, 210–215
  - risks to financial institutions and, 215–219
  - theoretical foundations of, 193–206
- Financial Stability Oversight Council, 272, 277–278, 281
- Financial supervisory authority (FSA), 53, 54
- Financial system
- bank supervisory role and, 8
  - central banks as protector of, 6–7
- Firm behavior
- asset price effect and, 150–151
  - exchange rate effect and, 151
  - expectations effect and, 152–153
  - funding costs effect and, 150
  - monetary policy and, 149–150
  - second-round effect and, 153
- Fiscal policy, advent of activist, 9
- Fisher, Irving, 79, 145, 194
- Fisher equation, 145
- Fixed exchange rate, 166, 176
- Flexible inflation targeting, 106–108
- Floating exchange rates, 23
- Foreign direct investment, 176
- Foreign exchange intervention, 180–181
- Foreign exchange investment, 176, 180–181
- Foreign exchange market, 119
- Foreign loans, 176
- Free-float regime, 163, 165–166
- Friedman, Milton, 198
- Full employment mandate
- background of, 68–69
  - communication of, 72–73
  - explanation of, 68–69
  - Federal Reserve and, 13–14, 60–61
  - importance of, 69
  - issues related to, 62–63
  - monetary stability and, 60
- Fundamental equilibrium exchange rate, 177, 178
- Funding costs effect of monetary policy transmission, 149, 160
- FX swaps, 126–127
- G20, 271
- Gale, D., 201
- Gap measure, 210, 212, 213
- Germany
- bank supervision in, 7–8
  - hyperinflation in, 79–80
  - money supply growth targeting and, 101
  - purchasing power parity and, 169, 170
- Gertler, Mark, 190, 198, 202
- Global financial crisis of 2007–2010
- central banks and, 8, 14, 67–68, 71–73, 277
  - coordination failure and, 204–205
  - effects of, 24, 34, 267–272, 284
  - employment mandate and, 69
  - explanation of, 30
  - Federal Reserve and, 31, 32, 269, 281
  - financial markets and, 202, 247
  - inflation targeting and, 11

- Global financial crisis (continued) information asymmetry and, 205–206 principal-agent problem and, 202–204 regulatory reforms and, 269–270 self-reexamination after, 14
 subprime crisis and, 30–33
- Globalization
 domestic inflation and, 258
 goods and services cross-border flows and, 257–258 intensification of, 255–256 international capital flows and, 257 international intermediaries and, 258–259
- Global systemically important banks (G-SIBs), 218, 219, 270
- Gold exchange standard, 9, 18–19
- Gold standard
 background of, 8
 explanation of, 18
 Great Depression and, 19
 monetary policy and, 9, 10, 19
- Goodhart, Charles, 102, 190, 239, 278
- Goodhart's law, 86, 87, 102
- Government bond yield curve
 as benchmark for setting other interest rates, 131–132
 explanation of, 130
- Government securities market, 119
- Government securities yield curve, 130, 131
- Government yield curve, 109
- Great Depression of 1930s financial system collapse and, 198
 gold standard and, 9, 19
- Great Inflation of 1970s, 24–25
- Greece, debt crisis in, 33
- Greenspan, Alan, 102, 103
- Haldane, Andrew, 201
- Hedge finance, 196
- Hedge funds, 261
- Historical volatility, 221
- Home countries, 259
- Hong Kong Monetary Authority, 13
- Host countries, 259
- Household behavior
 exchange rate effect and, 149
 expectations effect and, 152–153
 income effect and, 147–148
 intertemporal substitution effect and, 146–147
 monetary policy and, 146, 149
 second-round effect and, 153
 wealth effect and, 148–149
- Household debt, 211–212
- Housing bubble, 31–32, 110–111
- Hubbard, R. Glen, 270
- Hyperinflation. See also Inflation
 explanation of, 44
 in Germany, 79–80
- Implied volatility, 221
- Impossible trinity, 177
- Income effect of monetary policy transmission, 147–148
- Inflation. See also Hyperinflation breakeven, 145
 exchange rate, interest rate and, 175
 explanation of, 44
 globalization and domestic, 258
 money supply and, 10–11
 in 1970s, 23–25
 Phillips curve and, 80, 81
- Inflation expectations, 145
- Inflation-protected security, 145
- Inflation targeting application of, 106
 central banks and, 11, 13
 explanation of, 103–104
 flexible, 106–108
 stylized model of, 104–106
- Information asymmetry, 205–206
- Institutional investors, 260
- Insurance companies, 261–262
- Interest rate
 exchange rate, inflation and, 175 long-term, 130 policy, 45–46, 122, 123, 130–139
 subprime crisis and, 30–31
- Interest rate corridor, 122, 128–129
- Internal coordination, 281
- International capital, 257

- International Economic Conference (1922), 18–19
- International intermediaries, 258–259
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 20–21, 281
- International Monetary Market (IMM) data, 223
- International monetary system
after Bretton Woods, 23–33
Bretton Woods system and, 20–23
before end of World War II, 18–19 forces in future, 34
- Intertemporal substitution effect, 146–147
- Inverted yield curve, 139
- Japan
financial crisis in, 67, 284
inflation in, 231
- JPMorgan Chase, 32, 264
- Keynes, John Maynard, 9
- Lehman Brothers, 33, 258, 260, 281
- Lender of last resort, 7, 48–49
- Lending facility, 127–129
- Lending standards, global financial crisis of 2007–2010 and, 31
- Leveraging, 261
- Libor-OIS spread, 222–223
- Liquidation, 53, 246
- Liquidity coverage ratio (LCR), 236, 244
- Liquidity preference theory, 135
- Liquidity problem, 7, 49
- Liquidity-related macroprudential measures, 244
- Liquidity risk, 216
- Liquidity shortages, financial stability and, 66
- Living wills, 246–247
- Loan-to-value (LTV) ratios, 232–233
- Long-run Phillips curve
explanation of, 80, 81
nonaccelerating inflation rate of unemployment and vertical, 82, 83
- Long Term Capital Management (LTCM), 261
- Lucas critique, 86–87
- Macroeconometric model, 157
- Macroeconomic policy package of 1965–1968, 22
- Macroeconomy
financial and economic cycles and, 194–198
financial stability and, 191–193, 215, 229–235
monitoring and identifying risk in, 210–215
- Macroprudential measures capital related, 236
explanation of, 231
liquidity-related, 244
use of, 232, 234–235
- Macroprudential supervision, 236
- Macroprudential tools, 71, 72
- Macro stress tests, 219
- Managed float, 167
- Mandates. See Central banking mandates
- Market-based financial activities banks and, 262–263
bank subsidiaries and, 264–265
explanation of, 259–260
- Market-based subsidiaries, 262
- Market-making, 263–264
- Market risk, 216
- Market segmentation theory, 135–137
- Maturity mismatch, 214, 249
- Maximum employment, 681
- McQuire, Claire, 245–246
- Medium of exchange, precious metals as, 3–4
- Mexican currency crisis in 1994, 26
- Microprudential supervision, 235–236
- Microprudential tools, 72
- Miller, Merton, 197
- Minsky, Hyman P., 194–196, 198, 204
- Mobile payments, 265, 266
- Modigliani, Franco, 197
- Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS), 13, 167–168

- Monetary policy
- in advanced economies, 269
  - advent of activist, 9–10
  - Bretton Woods and, 9–10
  - central banks and, 8–11, 13, 38, 44–46
  - easing of, 234
  - exchange rate and, 180
  - financial stability and, 72, 229–231
  - gold standard and passive, 9
  - inflation targeting and, 11
  - natural rate of unemployment and, 78, 81–85, 91
  - new strategies for, 277
  - Phillips curve and, 78, 80–81, 90
  - quantity theory of money and, 77–80, 90
  - rational expectations and, 78, 86–88, 91
  - risk buildups in financial markets and, 248
  - Taylor rule and, 70
  - theoretical foundations of, 77–78, 90–91
  - time inconsistency problem and, 78, 88–89, 91
  - unconventional, 108–113
  - yield curve and, 137–140
- Monetary policy implementation
- central bank operations in financial market and, 118–129
  - overview of, 117–118
  - transmission of money market
    - interest rates to other interest rates and, 130–137
    - yield curve and, 130–140
- Monetary policy rules
- exchange rate targeting and, 94–98
  - inflation targeting and, 103–108
  - money supply growth targeting and, 98–102
  - overview of, 93–94
  - risk management approach and, 102–103
  - unconventional monetary policy and, 108–113
- Monetary policy transmission
- mechanism
    - expectations effect and, 152–153
    - financial institutions and, 153–155
    - firm behavior and, 149–151
    - Fisher equation and, 144–145
    - household behavior and, 146–149
    - inflation expectations and, 145
    - overview of, 143–144
    - second-round effects and, 153
    - time lags and uncertainty in, 155–157
- Monetary stability
- central banks and, 12, 13, 38, 61, 71
  - exchange rate and, 162
  - function of, 63
  - importance of, 64–65
  - monetary policy and, 60, 72
  - price stability vs., 63–64
- Money
- central banks and regulation of, 45, 46
  - cost of holding, 101
  - electronic form of, 39
  - issuance of, 38–39
  - nonmoney financial assets vs., 197–198
  - quantity theory of, 77–78, 90
- Money creation process
- description of, 40–43
  - influence of, 39, 43–44
- Money market
- central bank's influences in, 122–123
  - demand for funds in, 120–121
  - explanation of, 118–119
  - interest rate corridor and, 128–129
  - open market operations and, 123–127
  - reserve requirements and, 129
  - standing facilities and, 127
  - supply of funds in, 121
  - theoretical equilibrium in, 121–122
- Money market interest rates, 155
- Money market mutual funds, 250, 260–261
- Money multiplier, 43

- Money supply, 12, 43
- Money supply growth targeting
- experiences in, 99–100
  - explanation of, 98–99
  - in Germany, 101
  - inflation and, 10–11
  - stylized model of, 99
  - in United States and United Kingdom, 100–101
- Moral hazard, 48, 204, 206
- Mortgages
- securitized, 32
  - subprime crisis and, 30–31
- Nationalization, 246
- Natural rate of unemployment
- explanation of, 78, 81–82, 90, 91
  - Okun's law and, 85
  - shifts in, 83–84
  - vertical long-run Phillips curve and, 82
- Net borrowers, households as, 148
- Net lenders, households as, 148
- Net long position, 223
- Net open position, 223, 226
- Net short position, 223
- Net stable funding ratio (NSFR), 236, 244
- New Zealand, inflation targeting and, 11
- Nixon, Richard M., 23
- Nominal interest rate, monetary transmission mechanism and, 145
- Nonaccelerating inflation rate of unemployment (NAIRU)
- explanation of, 69, 81–82
  - shifts in, 83–84
  - vertical long-run Phillips curve and, 82
- Nonmoney financial assets, 194, 197–198
- Northern Rock, 32
- Obama, Barack, 264, 268
- Official foreign reserves (OFRs)
- center bank balance sheet and, 182–183
  - exchange rate policy and, 182
  - explanation of, 182
  - management of, 183–184
- Offsite monitoring, 50, 51, 235–236
- Oil prices, in 1970s, 24
- Okun's law, 85
- Online payments, 266
- Onsite examination, 50–51, 235
- Open market operations
- explanation of, 48, 122, 123
  - types of, 123–127
- Operational independence, of central banks, 10
- Operational risk, 216
- Organizational capacity, 281
- Organized exchanges, 270
- Output gap, 85
- Outright transactions, 123, 124
- Overnight-indexed-swap (OIS), 222, 223
- Over-the-counter derivatives, 271
- Paradox of financial stability, 222
- Passive monetary policy, gold standard and, 9
- Pass-through effect, 162
- Payment systems oversight, 45–47
- Payment systems provision, 47
- Pegging
- Bretton Woods system and, 20, 22, 163
  - explanation of, 9–10, 18
- Pegs
- crawling, 95, 166
  - rigid, 163–165
- Peoples' Bank of China (PBOC), 13
- Phillips, A. W., 80
- Phillips curve
- economic fine-tuning and, 81
  - explanation of, 78, 80, 90
  - long-run, 80–83
- Policy ineffectiveness proposition, 86, 87
- Policy interest rate
- central banks and, 122
  - explanation of, 45, 123
  - long end of yield curve and, 137–139
  - regulation of monetary conditions and, 45–46

- Political capacity, 282–283
 Ponzi finance, 196–197
 Porter, Michael, 275
 Portfolio balance model of the exchange rate, 171, 172
 Portfolio investment, 176
 Portugal, debt crisis in, 33
 Precious metals, as medium of exchange, 3–4
 Preferred habitat theory, 135–137
 Price stability
   explanation of, 189–190
   as monetary policy goal, 24
   monetary stability vs., 63–64
 Primary Dealer Credit Facility (Federal Reserve), 49
 Primary dealers, 250
 Principal-agent problem, 202–205
 Probability of default, 190, 224
 Prop desks, 263
 Proprietary trading, 262–264
 Prudential Regulation Authority, 272, 277–278
 Public debt to GDP ratio, 213
 Public entity, 278, 279, 285
 Public policy analysis, 279–280
 Purchase and assumption (P&A), 246 Purchasing power parity (PPP)
   exchange rate and, 178–179
   explanation of, 168–170, 174
 Pure expectations theory, 133–135
- Quantitative easing credit easing plus, 110–111
   effects of, 34
   explanation of, 11, 108
   stylized model of, 108–110
   timing exit from, 112
 Quantity theory of money
   explanation of, 77–79, 90
   hyperinflation and, 79–80
 Quantum Fund, 28, 29
- Rational expectations hypothesis
   explanation of, 78, 86, 91
   irrationality and, 87–88
   Lucas critique and, 86–87 policy ineffectiveness proposition and, 87
 Real interest rate, monetary transmission mechanism and, 145
 Recession
   explanation of, 44
   in 1980s, 24
 Relative purchasing power parity, 169, 175
 Repo transactions, 124–126
 Repurchase agreement, 124. See also Repo transactions
 Reserve balance, 122
 Reserve Bank of Australia
   financial stability and, 231
   inflation targeting and, 107–108
   supervisory role and, 8, 13
 Reserve Bank of New Zealand (RBNZ), 11, 106
 Reserve ratio, 43
 Reserve requirements
   central banks and, 45, 51–52, 122
   explanation of, 43
   money market and, 129
 Reserves, 43
 Retail e-payments, 266
 Reverse-repo transactions, 124–126
 Reverse repurchase agreement, 126
 Rigid peg
   explanation of, 163, 164
   rationale for, 165
 Risk
   associated with commercial banks, 7–8
   exchange rate, 176–177
   to financial institutions, 215–219
   in macroeconomy, 210–215, 233–235 reduction of systemic, 270
   systemic, 218–219
 Risk accumulation, 220–222
 Risk concentration
   explanation of, 217
   systemically important financial institutions and, 218–219
 Risk distribution, within financial network, 217–218

- Risk management approach
  explanation of, 102
  Federal Reserve and, 103
  stylized model of, 102–103
- Risk premium, 172, 177
- Risk-weighted assets (RWAs), 237
- Rumelt, Richard, 276
- Schinasi, Gary, 190
- Schwarz, Anna, 198
- Second Bank of the United States, 7
- Second-round effects of monetary policy transmission, 153
- Securitization, 32, 262, 270
- Segoviano, Miguel, 190
- Shadow banking, 271
- Short selling, 261
- Singapore, exchange rate management in, 167–168
- Single supervisory mechanism, 272
- Solvency problem commercial banks and, 7
  explanation of, 48–49
- Soros, George, 28
- South Korea, 265
- Sovereign debt ratings, 213
- Speculative attacks on currencies in advanced European economies, 25–29
  anatomy of, 28
  defense against, 28–29
  on emerging-market economies, 26–27
  underlying causes of, 27–28
- Speculative finance, 196
- Spreads, 213, 221–222
- Square device, 266
- Stabilizing an Unstable Economy*
  (Minsky), 195
- Stagflation, 24–25, 100
- Standing facilities, 122, 127
- Sterilized foreign exchange intervention, 181
- Stiglitz, Joseph, 194
- Stock prices, interest rates and, 148
- Store of value
  explanation of, 12
  precious metals and, 3–4
- Strategic alliances, 279, 282, 283
- Strategy, 275, 276
- Study group, 278
- Subprime borrowers, 31, 205
- Subprime crisis in 2007–2010
  effects of, 30, 262
  full employment mandate and,
  62–63
  lending standards deterioration
  and, 31
  low interest rates and, 30–31
  opacity surrounding new financial innovations and, 32
  outcome of, 32–33
- Supervisory role. See Bank supervisory role
- Supply shock
  inflation and, 106–107
  monetary policy and, 24–25
- Sveriges Riksbank (Sweden), 4–5
- Systemically important financial institutions (SIFIs), 218–219
- Systemic bank run, 194, 200–201, 215
- Systemic risk, 270
- Target band, 95
- Taylor, John B., 70
- Taylor rule
  explanation of, 70
  risk management approach and,
  102–103
- Time inconsistency problem central bank's operational independence and, 89
  explanation of, 78, 88–91
  monetary policy rules and, 89
- Time lags of monetary policy
  transmission, 155–157
- Time-varying capital requirement, 236, 238
- Tobin tax, 181
- Too-big-to-fail, 218
- Too-connected-to-fail, 218–219
- Traditional fixed exchange rate regime, 166
- Transitory unemployment, 68
- Treaty of Rome, 29
- Triffin, Robert, 23

- Triffin dilemma, 22–23
- Tsomocos, Demetrios, 190
- Uncertainty of monetary policy
transmission, 155–157
- Unconventional monetary policy. See also Monetary policy challenges to, 112–113
easing and, 234
explanation of, 108
quantitative easing and, 108–110
in United States, 110–111
yield curve and, 139–140
- Uncovered interest parity (UIP)
central banks and, 175
deviations from, 172–173
example of, 170
explanation of, 170
portfolio balance models and,
171, 172
usefulness of, 171
- Unemployment, natural rate of, 78, 81–85, 91
- Unhedged foreign currency lending, 233
- United Kingdom
bank supervisory function in, 8
global financial crisis and, 272 money supply growth targeting in,
100–101
- United States
financial intermediation in financial markets in, 247
fiscal debt burden in, 267–268
government security downgrades
and, 268
money supply growth targeting in, 100–101
unconventional monetary policy in,
110–111
- Units of account, 4
- Unremunerated reserve requirement
(URR), 181
- U.S. dollar
gold holdings and, 22–23
pegged to gold, 9–10, 20, 22–23
post-Bretton Woods, 23, 95
- Velocity of circulation, 79
- Volcker, Paul, 25, 100, 263, 264
- Volcker rule, 263–264, 270
- Wage-price spiral, 24
- Wealth effect of monetary policy
transmission, 148
- Weiss, Andrew, 194
- World War I, gold standard and, 9, 18
- Yield curve
central bank influence on, 132–133
explanation of, 130–131
government, 109
government bond, 130–132
as leading economic indicator, 139 liquidity preference theory and, 135 market segmentation and preferred habitat theories and, 135–137
monetary policy and, 137–140
pure expectations theory and,
133–135
shapes of, 131, 133–137
unconventional monetary policy and,
139–140
- Zicchino, Lea, 190

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>