Index

Acceptable audit ratings 183–185 access protocol 157–158 accountability 63–65, 66–67, 69–72, 207–208 Action Learning 252–253
added value 45–58, 90–91, 133–148
  assignments 124–126
    delivery 171–172
    follow-up/follow on 210–211
  boundaries 52–57
  challenges/dilemmas 45–47
  communication and quality standards 175–203
  dissatisfiers 46–47
  performance measurements 218–219
  recommended practices 47–52
  resource allocation 107–120
    challenges/dilemmas 108–111
    common practices 108
    IIA standards 108
    recommended practices 111–119
  stakeholders 45–46, 47, 49–51, 52–57 ad hoc work 123, 129–130 advisors, guest 265–266 advisory assignments 108–110, 112–113
Amber audit ratings 183–184
Andon techniques 16
assignments 121–132
  added value 133–148
  challenges/dilemmas 122–123
  common practices 121–122
  communication and quality standards 175–203
  delivery 149–174
    challenges/dilemmas 150–155
    common practices 149–150
    IIA standards 149–150
    recommended practices 155–172
    slippage 189
  follow-up/follow on 205–212
    challenges/dilemmas 205–211
    common practice 205
    IIA standards 205
  IIA standards 121–122, 134, 149–150, 205
  performance measurements 216
  postponement 123
  recommended practices 123–130
  resource allocation 108–110, 112–113
  role clarity in assurance 72–73
  scheduling 121–132
  scoping 133–148
    challenges/dilemmas 134–136
    common practices 134
    IIA standards 134
    recommended actions 136–146
  slippage 123, 189

COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL
http://www.pbookshop.com

assignment scope 36, 74, 133–148, 158–159, 167, 282 assurance
  added value/resource allocation 108–110, 114, 116–117 core work 110, 116–117
  risk 95–106
    challenges/dilemmas 95–97
    common practices 95
    IIA standards 95
    recommended practices 98–104
  role clarity 59–76
    challenges/dilemmas 62–67
    IIA standards 60–62, 65
    recommended practices 67–73
  wider organization cultural change 235–237 assurance mapping 66, 95–106, 232, 235–237 AstraZeneca 3–4
  assignments 126
    delivery 164, 171
    follow-up/follow on 206, 207
    and planning 141–142
  benefits/development 19, 20
  communication and quality standards 183, 191
  performance measurements 218, 220, 221
  staff-related prioritizing 263 audit/auditing terminology 21–22 auditor bias 143, 265
auditor preference 152–153
auditor prejudice 142
autonomation 16

Baker, Chris 28, 37, 168–169, 261
  added value 137
  assignment follow-up/follow on 207, 208, 211
  leading the audit function 242
  performance measurements 218
  resource allocation 109, 112
  role clarity in assurance 69
  value approaches 78–79, 81, 83
banks 246–247
Bejjani, Rania 37–38, 260–261
  added value 143
  leading the audit function 251
  risk assurance 98–99
benefits 5–6, 19–22
best practice updates 247
"beyond reasonable doubt" 153
Blackburn, Sarah 35–36, 79, 85
"black swan" risks 86 boards of directors 37–38, 242, 249–251 bottlenecks 188–189
branding 198
bullet proof CAEs 264
Butler, Ivan 48, 101, 188
buy-ins 127–128

CAEs see Chief Audit Executives capability issues 117–118 case study approaches 264
CEOs see Chief Executive Officers
Chief Audit Executives (CAEs)
  added value 133–148
    clarity of components 49
    cost 53–54
    customers 56
    delighters 54–55
    problematic areas 51–52
    resource allocation 108–111, 115–116, 118–119
  assignments 121–132, 133–148
    delivery 152–153, 155, 163–165
    follow-up/follow on 206, 207–209
  benefits/development 19, 20
  communication and quality standards 177
    audit workpapers 186–187
    branding 198
    findings rating criteria 183

http://www.pbookshop.com

"in flight" quality control 187–188
management engagement 189–190
report evolution 199–201
"to and fro" of audits 195–196 wording/word count 193–195
co-sourcing 261–262, 267–268
grading 263–265
hallmarks 24, 27–29
internal audits
audit function 41
board primacy 37–38
committee primacy 37–38
external customers 40
priority customers 34–37
senior management primacy 37–38
stakeholders 38–39
leading the audit function 241–255
outsourcing 261–262, 267–268
parking lot metaphors 260–261 people's strengths 259–260
performance measurements 218, 221–223 promoting internal audits 270, 271 right auditor mindsets 271–274
risk assurance
explicit addressing of 101–103 known or suspected issues 96, 98–101
motivations 97
role clarity in assurance 58–60, 65–69, 70–72
selection 263–265
skill development 271–274
staff-related prioritizing 263
staff selection 259
strategic recruits 263–265
technical skills development 259
value approaches 77–93
common practices 78
cost 81
IIA standards 78
planning processes 90–91
problems 79–80
risk 80–81
wider organization cultural change 230–231, 233–234
CFOs see Chief Financial Officers Chambers, Richard 39, 152
added value 46–47, 49, 51
assignment delivery 169–170
communication and quality standards 179–180
leading the audit function 244 change and diversity 227–239, 268–270
Chief Executive Officers (CEOs) 54, 251
Chief Financial Officers (CFOs) 251
Chief Information Officers (CIOs) 193 clarity
assignments
delivery 159–160
follow-up/follow on 205
communication and quality standards 190–191
risk assurance 98–101
closing of meetings 180, 191–193
coach/coaching 21, 59–60, 165, 190, 219–220, 249, 252–254 Coleman, Greg
added value 136, 140, 145–146
communication and quality standards 194
leading the audit function 246, 249–250
performance measurements 222–223
value approaches 84–85, 86 collaborative ways of working 237–238 Colt Technology Group see Bejjani, Rania

http://www.pbookshop.com

"Combined Assurance" 101
Committee on Internal Audit Guidance for Financial Services 89–90
committee primacy 37–38
communication 175–203
  added value 198–199
  audit workpapers 186–187
  branding 198
  challenges/dilemmas 176–180
  clarity of reports 190–191
  closing of meetings 191–193
  common practices 175–176
  compensating controls 181–182
  control remediation 181–182
  findings rating criteria 182–185
  "in flight" quality control 187–189
  IIA standards 175–176
  management comments 195–196
  management engagement 189–190
  recommended practices 180–201
  report evolution 199–201
  software 186
  timelines for remediation 197
  "to and fro" of audits 195–196
  waste 198–199
  wording/word counts 193–195
compensating controls 176, 181–182 compliance 62–63, 110, 232–233 contingency in assignments 128–130 continuous assurance 236 continuous improvement 247–248 continuous professional education (CPE) 258 control processes, added value 140–141 control remediation 181–182 controls monitoring functions 62–63 controls streamlining 233–235
co-sourcing 261–262, 265, 267–268
cost 53–54, 81
coverage, effective audit 114–115, 116
CPE see continuous professional education culture
  problematic aspects 262
  right team culture 274–276
  see also wider organization cultural change current performance evaluations 87–88
customers
  added value 55–57
  external customers 39–41, 88–89
  internal audits 33–43
    challenges/dilemmas 34–39
    common practices 33–34
    IIA standards 33–34
    recommended practices 39–42
  internal clients 39
  performance measurements 219–220
  points of view 7
  priority customers 34–37
  tools and techniques 11–13

dashboard, risk assurance 236 data advances 150–151
data analytics 166–167
data flow 156–157
delighter factors 12, 54–55 deployment flowcharts 14 design level observations 138 detective mode/gene 243, 259, 262 development 19–22, 257–277
  challenges/dilemmas 258–262
  common practices 257–258
  IIA standards 257–258
  recommended actions 263–276
Dignan, Karen
  added value 136
  assignments 125, 155, 210–211
  communication and quality standards 193
  leading the audit function 245, 246
  performance measurements 222

http://www.pbookshop.com

direct access approach 156–157 direct risk assurance 103–104
dissatisfiers 11, 46–47, 50
diversity 268–270
document advances 150–151 document flow 156–157

Earley, John 17, 39–40, 221, 244, 274–275 effective audit coverage 114 efficiency 221–223
emerging risk 82, 90, 104, 182–185, 210 engagement 189–190, 249–251
EQAs see External Quality Assessments exciter factors, Kano model 12 external best practice updates 247–248
external customers 39–41, 88 external intelligence 87–88 External Quality Assessments (EQAs) 56–57, 78–79, 83
  assignment delivery 154
  communication and quality standards 189
  leading the audit function 242
  performance measurements 218, 223–224
  problematic aspects 262

fads 229–230
financial services 89–90 findings
  assignment delivery 155
  communication and quality standards 175, 182–185
  rating criteria 182–185
first line of defence 60–62, 63–65, 229
  see also risk
"flagship" appointments 269
Flanigan, Leigh 101, 168 flexibility of audits 70–72, 122
Ford, Henry 155–156
Foster, Stephen 117, 198, 220, 250, 270, 273 fraud 98–101, 167
fully assured risk 114

Ganason, Shagen 171, 200
Gemba 13–14, 135
Gerrard, Phil 85, 259, 271, 274
  added value 143, 146
  assignments 129, 163, 172
  communication and quality standards 193, 198–199
  leading the audit function 248, 251
  performance measurements 217–218, 222
  resource allocation 115, 118
  role clarity in assurance 67–68
  wider organization cultural change 227, 230–231, 234, 235–236
"getting it right first time" 187
Godyn, Marcyn 244–245
Goldratt, E M 189
Good audit ratings 183–185
good practice 220–221
grading 263–265
Green audit ratings 183–185
gross risk 80–81, 85–86
Groundhog Day 231
guest auditors and advisors 265–266

Haig, Nancy 87, 102, 104, 112, 119, 268
hallmarks 23–25
Health and Safety 34, 180, 232, 234–235, 236 health, safety or environment (HSE) risk 36
Heijunka techniques 16
Hertfordshire SIAS, see also Maneuf, Helen high level reviews 126

http://www.pbookshop.com

history 5–10
benefits 5–7
key principles 7–9
origins 5–7
tools and techniques 7–9
Hock Kee, Wee 85
hot spot updates 247
"how big and how bad" frameworks 191
HSE see health, safety or environment risk

"if time permits" 158–159
IIA see Institute of Internal Auditors
"in control" audit ratings 183–185 independent risk assurance 103–104
"in-flight" quality control 187–188 influence 248–249
initial hypotheses 141–144
"innocent until proven guilty?" 153 Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) 24–25
added value 45–47, 48, 49, 51
assignments and planning 134
resource allocation 108
assignments 121–122, 134
delivery 149–150
follow-up/follow on 205
communication 175–176
development 257–258
driving improvements 215–216 internal audits, customers 33–34, 35–36, 39
leading the audit function 241–242
performance measurements 215–216
quality standards 175–176
risk assurance 95
role clarity in assurance 60–62, 65
selection 257–258
training 257–258
value approaches 78
ways of working 215–216, 257–258
wider organization cultural change 228 internal auditing terminology 21–22
internal clients 39
interview techniques 163–165

Jidoka techniques 16
junior level staff rotation 268
"just in time" approach 16, 129

"Kaizen" notion 8
Kano model 11–13
key controls 140–141
key risks 140–141
Kidd, Jonathan 271
added value 138
assignments 124–125, 129, 167, 208–209
communication and quality standards 177, 187–188, 200
value approaches 84
"killer facts" 169–170
known or suspected issues 95–96, 98–101, 181

large assignments 122
leadership 251–253
leading the audit function 241–255
challenges/dilemmas 242–244
common practices 241–242
IIA standards 241–242
recommended actions 244–253
lean auditing terminology 21–22
Lean Six Sigma 8
"Lean Thinking" (book) 6
"lessons learned" reviews 219 liaison roles 157–158
"lines of defence" models 60–62, 67–68, 229, 231–232
"lowest common denominator" role 229

http://www.pbookshop.com

"The machine that changed the world" (book) 6 McKinsey RACI accountability frameworks 66–67, 69–70
management comments 195–196
management engagement 189–190
Maneuf, Helen 37, 179, 193, 271
Marks, Norman 17–18, 37
  assignments 125, 166, 171
  communication and quality standards 188, 199
  resource allocation 118
  value approaches 83–84, 86–87
Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) 6 meeting disciplines 163–165 meetings, closing 180, 191–193 mentor/mentoring 251–253
methodology 181–182, 189–190, 216–217, 219–221 metrics 217–218, 221–223 milestones 129, 145–146 mindsets 163–165
mobile phones 12
"money in the bank" 109, 246–247 Muda (waste) 15–17, 124, 155–156, 180 multi-layered, multi-speed staff rotation 268–269

National Health Service (NHS) 62–63, 102–103
"near misses" 87–88
net risk 80–81
new generation auditing 20
NHS see National Health Service
Nilsson, Hans 270
"no audit function is perfect" maxims 223 non-standard assignments 182 organizational culture 23–30, 227–239

outsourcing 261–262, 265, 267–268

parking lot metaphors 260–261
Parkinson's law 164 performance factors, Kano model 12
performance measurements 215–225
  challenges/dilemmas 216–219
  common practices 215–216
  current evaluations 87–88
  IIA standards 215–216
  recommended practices 219–224 pet topic management 161–163 pharmaceutical companies 264 pit stops 188, 283
planning processes 133–148
  added value 133–148
    fieldwork 136
    initial and working hypotheses 141–143
    project planning 145–146
    risk and control 140–141
    sponsors 139–140
    time 136–137
  strategic developments 243
  value approaches 84–85, 90–91
Plymouth Hospitals NHS Trust 103 policy compliance landscape 232–233 political savvy 248–249, 251, 287 politics, leading the audit function 248–249 Poor audit ratings 183–185 poor returns on large assignments 122 poor staff capability 261 post-assignment learning 219–220 postponement of assignments 123 Powell, David 141–142
pre-close meetings 217
priority customers 34–37
process documentation 159–160

http://www.pbookshop.com

process mapping 15, 151, 159–160 process streamlining 233–235 professional reporting 249–251 progressive auditing 22, 25–26, 48, 57, 116, 136, 281–284
project planning 145–146
"proof beyond reasonable doubt" 153

QC see quality control quality assessments see External Quality Assessments quality control (QC) 187–189 quality process 177, 187–189
quality standards 175–203
  added value 198–199
  audit workpapers 186–187
  branding 198
  challenges/dilemmas 176–180
  clarity of reports 190–191
  closing of meetings 191–193
  common practices 175–176
  compensating controls 181–182
  control remediation 181–182
  findings rating criteria 182–185
  "in flight" quality control 187–189
  IIA standards 175–176
  management comments 195–196
  management engagement 189–190
  recommended practices 180–201
  report evolution 199–201
  software 186
  timelines for remediation 197
  "to and fro" of audits 195–196
  waste 198–199
  wording/word counts 193–195
quick wins 207, 282, 283

"rabbit holes" 167–168
RACI accountability frameworks 66–67, 69–70
RandD see Research and Development ratings 182–185
RCA see Root Cause Analysis recruiting 263–265
Red audit ratings 183–185 remediation 65, 176, 181–182, 197, 205–212 assignment follow-up/follow on 206, 207–208
  communication and quality standards 176, 181–182, 197
  role clarity in assurance 65
reports
  assignment delivery 171–172
  communication and quality standards 190–191, 193–195, 198, 199–201 findings and wording 178–180
  leading the audit function 249–251
  risk assurance 101–103
Research and Development (RandD) 264 resources 107–120
  added value 144–145
  assignments 122, 124–126, 144–145
  challenges/dilemmas 108–111
  common practices 108
  IIA standards 108
resourcing assignments 121–132, 134–135 retrofitting of audits 110
right auditor mindsets 271–274
right team culture 274–276
Rimmer, Nicola 48, 72, 109, 144
risk 60–62, 63–65, 229
  added value
    assignments and planning 140–141
    resource allocation 110, 113–115
  assurance 95–106
    challenges/dilemmas 95–97
    common practices 95

http://www.pbookshop.com

IIA standards 95
recommended practices 98–104
and control culture observations 138 control matrices 161–163 framework reviews 126
HSE 36
role clarity in assurance 60–62, 63–65
value approaches 80–81, 85–86
risk appetite 90–91, 138, 155, 161, 182–185, 197 risk control matrices 140, 161–163, 173 risk culture 26, 231
road map, development 252
role clarity 59–76
assignment follow-up/follow on 206
challenges/dilemmas 62–67
IIA standards 60–62, 65
recommended practices 67–73 role models 237–238, 249–251 roll-on/roll-off processes 128–129
"roll out a policy" 65, 231
Rolls-Royce see Gerrard, Phil
Root Cause Analysis (RCA) 16–17, 171–172

Sarbanes–Oxley legislation 233–235
Sarens, Gerrit 101
Satisfactory audit ratings 183–185 satisfiers 50
savings 246–247
scheduling assignments 121–132 second line of defence 60–62, 63–65, 229
selection 255–257
challenges/dilemmas 258–262
common practices 257–258
IIA standards 257–258
recommended actions 263–276
selective audit follow-ups 208–209 senior "flagship" appointments 269 senior management 37–38, 242, 249–251
"Seven elements of an effective compliance programme" 69, 232–233 Shared Internal Audit Service (SIAS) 37
see also Maneuf, Helen "sharpen your saw" 253
Shingo, Shigeo 13
"side tracking" by managers 154
SIPOC value stream mapping 14 sixth sense see detective mode/gene skills development 259, 271–274
"skin in the game" 99
slippage of assignment delivery 123, 189
software
audit management 177–178 opportunities 186
performance measurements 216–217
SOX compliance 268
sponsors 139–140
staff
assignment delivery 151–152
attracting problems 258 capability 81–82, 261
prioritizing 263
rotation 268–269
selection 259
stakeholders 38–39
added value 45–46, 47, 49–51, 52–57, 116–117
assignments 128–130
communication and quality standards 194
leading the audit function 246–247
resource allocation 117
role clarity in assurance 65–66, 67–68, 72–73
value gaps 45–46
wider organization cultural change 228–229

http://www.pbookshop.com

standard assignments 122, 182 step-by-step testing approaches 167–169 streamlining
  assignment delivery 171–172
  value approaches 84–85
  wider organization cultural change 233–235
suspected issues see known or suspected issues Swim Lane Diagrams 14
systems documentation 159–161 systems mapping 159–160 systems streamlining 233–235

"Taking it on trust report" 102–103 technical skills development 259
"The machine that changed the world" (book) 6 Theory of Constraints 189
"three lines of defence" models 60–62, 67–68, 229
time resources 135
  added value 113–115, 136–137
  assignments 124–126, 157–158, 207–209
  communication and quality standards 197
timescales 197, 207–208
Timewell, Roger 179, 269
"to and fro" of audits 180, 195–196
tools and techniques 7–9, 11–18
  caution 17–18
  five key principles of lean 7–9
  Gemba 13–14
  Kano model 11–13
  Muda 15–17
  value stream mapping 14–15 Toyota Production System (TPS) 5–6
training 257–277
  challenges/dilemmas 258–262
  common practices 257–258
  IIA standards 257–258
  recommended actions 263–276
transparency
  added value 113–115
  leading the audit function 249–251
trust building 246–247

uncertainty 96
United Kingdom financial services 89–90
Universities Internal Audit Consortium (UNIAC) 53–54
  see also Young, Richard upgraded audits 86–87

value approaches 77–93
  assignment delivery 159–160
  challenges/dilemmas 78–82
  Committee on Internal Audit Guidance for Financial Services 89–90
  common practices 78
  co-sourcing/outsourcing support 261–262 destruction of value 88, 89
  financial services 89–90
  gross risk 80–81, 85–86
  IIA standards 78
  net risk 80–81
  performance measurements 221–223
  recommended practices 82–91
  staff capability 81–82
  stream identification and mapping 7, 14–15 streamlined planning processes 84–85
  value gaps 45–46
  see also added value verification evidence 209–210 visualization techniques 16

http://www.pbookshop.com

"voice of the customer" see customers

waste 124, 180
  assignment delivery 155–156
  communication and quality standards 198–199
  Gemba 13–14, 135
  identifying of 15–17
  Muda 15–17, 124, 155–156, 180
"watching the clock" mindsets 260–261
ways of working 215–225, 257–277
  challenges/dilemmas 258–262
  common practices 257–258
  IIA standards 257–258
  recommended actions 263–276
  right team culture 274–276
Weintraub, Andy 52, 57
  added value 137
  assignment delivery 163, 168
  communication and quality standards 186, 190–191
whistleblowers 130
Whitehouse, David 140
wider organization cultural change 227–239
  challenges/dilemmas 228–232
  common practices 228
  IIA standards 228
  recommended practices 232–238
wording/word counts 193–195 working see ways of working working hypotheses 141–144 working papers 186–187

Young, Richard 53–54
  assignments 125, 127, 156
  leading the audit function 246
  wider organization cultural change 237–238

http://www.pbookshop.com

http://www.pbookshop.com