

Index

Page references followed by fig indicate an illustrated figure.

A

Accountability

- as being about control, 83–86
 - as the catalyst for organizational change, 117–120
 - as a choice, 35–64
 - comparing the positive vs. negative perception of, 2–3
 - cross-functionally, 151–155, 158
 - defining the four categories of, 67–73
 - do not should your employees's, 142–144
 - as everyone's job, 46–49, 63
 - for how you are perceived by others, 137–139
 - live and lead with, 161
 - the magic and rewards of taking, 6–11
 - ownership matrix of, 79–80*fig*
 - perception shift required for achieving, 97–99
 - shared, 56–61, 64–65
 - as trumping responsibility, 109–111
 - understanding the high stakes of blaming vs., 5–6
 - working to heighten employees's, 1–5
 - See also* Key Learnings to Internalize; Take Accountability Now
- ### Accountability accelerator strategies
- changing how leadership approaches accountability, 4–5
 - communicating outcome priorities, 4, 12–15
 - engaging employees on the front end vs. after-the-fact, 3–4
 - helping employees understand outcome benefits to them, 4
 - improving clarity using the “rules of the game,” 21–28, 32, 33
 - See also* Take Accountability Now
- ### Accountability categories
- accept and embrace ownership for your circumstances, 72, 73*fig*, 78–81, 93–94

- determine solutions and devise a path forward, 73*fig*
 - recognize entirely your current realities, 70–72, 73*fig*, 74–76, 91–92, 93
 - take action and relentlessly follow through, 71, 72, 73*fig*, 90–91
- ### Accountability plan
- begin to develop a, 33–34
 - to focus on the “maybes” employees, 64–65
 - to implement your solution, 91
 - on overcoming barriers that impede your desired outcomes, 65
 - shifting employee mindset toward shared accountability, 65
 - write down three accountable behaviors to begin modeling, 65
- ### Accountability scenarios
- Café Delight, 103–106
 - Cambria Ventures, 78–81, 89
 - Cameron Medical, 15–18
 - Clearwater Technologies, 46–49
 - CVP International, 21–27, 102
 - the Deadhorse project, 129–133
 - DigiTech, 106–109
 - Gencova, 120–122
 - Graff Engineering, 123–127
 - Haliboo Dynamics, 140–141, 159
 - Harton Industries, 43–46
 - Harvest Financial, 98–99
 - Hearst Newspaper Group, 128–129
 - by Jack in the Box E. coli in food-poisoning crisis, 5–6
 - Johnson & Johnson Tylenol crisis, 6
 - Lakeshore Bionics, 19–21
 - Mountainview Enterprises, 67–73*fig*, 91
 - Peachtree Corporation, 142–144
 - Sea Tech, 137–139
 - Squire Medical, 1–5
 - Sun Belt Technology, 149
 - Superior Electronics, 111–113
 - Synergetic Technologies, 151–155
 - Trinity Corporation, 144–145, 160
 - Tundra Oil, 56–61

- Accountability scenarios (continued)
 Wells Fargo, 52–54
See also Experiences; Organizations; Stories
- Accountable behaviors being aware that all behaviors send a message, 49–52, 63–64, 119, 120
 Clearwater Technologies on identifying, 46–49 collaborating, rewarding, and learning from mistakes, 49 creating change by igniting desired, 122–127
 focusing on solutions instead of blame as, 49
 Graff Engineering on transformation toward, 123–127
 modeling, 48–52, 63–64, 65, 119, 120–122
 the power of genuine appreciation of, 125–126, 127–129 precise, open, and consistent communication as, 49
 spotlighting identifiable, 48–49
 write down three that you can model, 65
See also Actions; Behaviors
- Accountable culture
 the accountable organization as pinnacle of changing to an, 150–155 assessing if it is nurturing accountability or not, 133–135 creating lasting change by shaping an, 120–122
 CVP International leader's creating a, 21–28 do not shoulder your employees' accountabilities within an, 142–144 helping employees to “see how things are done around here” in, 129–131 how the power of genuine appreciation supports an, 125–126, 127–129 how the relationship triad (experiences, beliefs, and actions) in, 135–136
 it is everyone's job to build a, 46–49, 63
 keep moving forward and do not dwell on mistakes made, 144–145 leadership alignment with the, 122, 139–141, 156 overcoming fear and denial in times of change in an, 146–150, 157, 160 tactics for instilling shared accountability into, 60–61, 64 Take Accountability Now to create a, 158–160 tune-ups required for sustaining an, 139–141 understanding that little things matter in an, 131–133
See also Organizational culture
- Accountable organizations accountability as the catalyst for transformational change to, 117–120
 ignite desired accountable behaviors to create, 122–127
 Key Learnings to Internalize for transforming to an, 155–158
 as pinnacle of change, 150–155
 the relationship triad (experiences, beliefs, and actions) in, 135–136 Take Accountability Now for change toward an, 158–160
- Achievement
 accountability trumps responsibility for, 109–111
 cement the focus for, 100–103
 Key Learnings to Internalize for mindset shift for, 113–114
 LAG versus LEAD measures of, 111–113, 114, 115
 lessons from the Marauders on, 106–109
 the magical mindset shift required for, 103–106
 the shift in perception required for, 97–99
 Take Accountability Now for mindset shift to, 114–115
- Actions
 being aware of the messages sent by our, 49–52, 63–64, 119, 120 to change your current reality, 71, 72, 73*fig*, 90–91
 how emotions drive our, 41–42
 identifying accountable behaviors and, 46–49
 understanding that they matter, 52–54
See also Accountable behaviors; Take Accountability Now
- Adrzejewsky, Adam, 136
 “Agree to disagree,” 74, 75
Albany Times Union (newspaper), 128–129
 Alex's story, 120–122, 156, 158
Alone (History Channel TV show), 30–31
 Appreciation and recognition
 Bob Danzig's story as a testimonial to power of, 128–129
 as key attribute of leaders, 81, 94
 the power of genuine, 125–126, 127–129

- Arctic flight's line-forming phenomenon, 129–131
- Audrey and Russell's story, 103–106
- B
- Babcock, W. B., 76
- Badge story, 134, 135
- Baldwin, Doug, 59–60
- Behaviors
- being aware of the messages sent by our, 49–52, 63–64, 119, 120
 - understanding that they matter, 52–54
 - See also* Accountable behaviors
- Beliefs
- badge story example of, 134, 135
 - how emotions fuel our, 41–42
 - as part of the accountable relationship triad, 135–136
 - pizza story as example of, 132–133, 135
 - See also* Perspectives of others
- "Below the Water" behavior
- craft five to seven open-ended questions on, 64
 - description of the, 39–42
 - as the epitome of the blame-game, 39–42, 62
 - open-ended questions used to move people from, 42, 62
 - reflect on how much time is spent on, 64
 - self-awareness of when you engaging in, 41, 51
 - Vinnie's story on, 42
- Beltway Rail, 86
- Blame-game
- accountability versus playing the, 2–4
 - "Below the Water" behavior as the epitome of the, 39–42, 62, 132–133, 134–136
 - by Jack in the Box E. coli in food-poisoning case, 5–6
 - keep moving forward and do not dwell on mistakes playing the, 144–145
 - key learning on how lack of clarity feeds the, 32
 - open-ended questions to move past the, 145, 156–157, 159–160
 - reasons vs. excuses mindsets of the, 54–56
 - recognizing your own tendency to play the, 29
 - reflect on how much time is spent on, 64
 - understanding the high stakes of accountability vs., 5–6
 - understand that people are naturally drawn to the, 28
 - as waste of valuable time, 28–30
- Bloomberg Businessweek*, 43
- Brainstorming, 89
- Brianna's story, 134
- Bruce's story (on Rudy Ruettiger), 86–89
- C
- Cabrera, Miguel, 43
- Café Delight, 103–106
- Cambria Ventures, 78–81, 89
- Cameron Medical, 15–18
- Celebrate wins, 81, 93
- Challenging the status quo, 89, 95
- Change. See Transformational change
- Child helping his father exercise, 76–78
- Choices
- "Below the Water" behavior that avoids making, 39–42
 - destiny is determined by your decisions and, 35–39
 - Key Learnings to Internalize on accountability as a, 61–64
 - leading accountability as everyone's job and a, 46–49, 63
 - open-ended questions to move people to the accountability, 42, 62
 - parable of the two shoe salesman on, 39
 - to take personal accountability to help your team, 121
 - Tito's story on making a, 35–38
 - Tom Peter's "Tower Death" phrase on lack of, 38–39
 - understanding that accountability is a, 35
 - See also* Decision making
- Chris's story, 10–11
- Clarity
- Cameron Medical on refocusing communication for, 15–18
 - in communicating outcome priorities, 4, 12–15, 31–33, 121
 - consequences and sampling of root causes of lack of, 25/fig
 - CVP International on creating, 21–27
 - impact on employee engagement, 21–28, 32
 - Key Learnings to Internalize on importance of, 31–32
 - Take Accountability Now with desired results, 32–33
- Clearwater Technologies, 46–49
- Collaboration
- invite everyone to identify a solution, 89, 94
 - to learn from mistakes, 49

- Commitment to the agreed upon solution, 145
 articulation of your, 141 positive principles manner for holding people to their, 160
- Communication
 being aware of the messages sent by our behaviors, 49–52, 63–64, 119, 120
 Cameron Medical on refocusing, 15–18 clearly state outcome priorities, 4, 12–15, 31–33, 121
 key leader attribute of practicing excellent, 121–122
 Lakeshore Bionics on leadership, desired outcomes, and, 19–21 leadership alignment through consistent, 141 of leadership's commitment to accountability, 4–5 precise, open, and consistent as accountable behavior, 49
- Communication plan, 33
- Control
 key lessons on accountability and, 92
 lessons from Hyrum on taking accountability, 83–86, 94
 Take Accountability Now by taking, 93
Conversations with Bobby (Danzig), 129
 Covey, Stephen R., 75
 Craig's story, 98–99
 Creativity and innovation, 81, 94
 Crosby, Sidney, 139
 Cross-functionally accountability, 151–155, 158
- Culture. See Accountable culture; Organizational culture
- Current realities
 accepting ownership for your circumstances and, 72, 73*fig*, 78–81, 93–94
 child helping his father exercise on, 76–78 determining solutions and devise a path forward, 71, 72, 73*fig*, 86–90, 92, 94–95 lessons from Hyrum on taking control to change, 83–86, 92, 94 recognizing your, 70–72, 73*fig*, 74–76, 91–92, 93 scheduling time to develop and execute plan to change, 95 seek the perspectives of others on, 71, 76–78, 93 take action and follow through to change your, 71, 72, 73*fig*, 90–91
 Yoda as accountability coach on changing your, 81–83
 CVP International, 21–27, 102
- D
- Dan's story, 43–46
 Danzig, Bob, 128–129
 Deadhorse project
 the flight's line-forming phenomenon, 129–131
 the "little things" forging an accountable culture during, 131–133
 the pizza story, 133, 135
- Decision making
 destiny is determined by your, 35–39
 perseverance and determination elements of, 41
See also Choices
- DeGal, Willie, 75
 Deming, Edwards, 152
 Denial
 Eddie and Tom's story on getting past, 146–147
 as first reaction to change by employees, 146
 Key Learnings to Internalize about, 157
 overcoming in times of change, 146–150, 157, 160
- Department of Justice, 53
 Desired results (outcomes) accelerate accountability by stating priorities for, 4
 as "The Big Opportunities," 14
 Cameron Medical on resetting metric for, 15–18 emotions as fueling beliefs, actions, and, 41–42 ensure that employees internalize the desired, 12–15, 33
 how shared accountability can help create the, 58–60 importance of clear communication on, 4, 12–15, 31–33, 121
 Lakeshore Bionics on leadership, communication, and, 19–21 leadership alignment around, 122, 139–141, 156 overcoming barriers that impede your, 65
 perception shift required for achieving, 97–99
 Vision of Achievement on your, 154–155, 160
See also Work performance

Devine, Dan, 88
 “Digging deeper,” 30–31
 DigiTech, 106–109
 Do not assume, 89, 94
 Dufresne, Andy (Schausbank Redemption character), 38

E

Eddie and Tom’s story, 146–157
 Einstein, Albert, 154
 Ellen’s story, 142–144
 Emotions
 decision making and role of, 41 fear and denial responses to change, 146–150, 157, 160
 as fueling beliefs, actions, and results, 41–42
 Employee engagement
 Alex’s story on accountable leadership for, 120–122 on the front end vs. after-the-fact accountability, 3–4 how clarity and knowing “rules of the game” impacts, 21–28, 32, 33 Employee mindset shifts
 to accountability trumps responsibility, 109–111
 to LEAD measures from LAG measures, 111–113
 the magical mindset shift required for achievement, 103–106
 reasons vs. excuses, 54–56
 to shared accountability, 65
 Employees
 avoid playing the blame-game with your, 2–6 being aware of both others’s and their own behaviors, 49–52, 63–64, 119, 120 clearly communicating outcome priorities to, 4, 12–15 do not shoulder the accountabilities of your, 142–144 ensure they internalize the desired results, 12–15, 33 helping them “see how things are done around here,” 129–131
 “maybes,” 44, 45–46, 62–63, 65, 149–150
 “naysayers,” 44–45, 150
 the “nevers” and three types of to fire immediately, 43–46, 64–65, 149 shifting their mindset to shared accountability, 65

the shift in perception required for accountability of, 97–99
See also Jobs; Teams; Work performance
 Envision success, 89, 95
 Excuses vs. reasons mindsets, 54–56
 Experiences
 to assess if your culture is nurturing accountability, 133–135
 how exemplary leaders take control and influence, 135
 as part of the accountable relationship triad, 135–136
See also Accountability scenarios; Stories

F

Fear
 as first reaction to change by employees, 146
 Key Learnings to internalize about, 157
 overcoming in times of change, 146–150, 157, 160
Forbes (magazine), 136
The 4 Disciplines of Execution (McChesney), 14
 Franklin International Institute (now FranklinCovey), 83

G

Gail’s story, 75
 Gencova, 120–122
 Genuine appreciation
 Bob Danzig’s story as a testimonial to power of, 128–129
 Lauren’s story on the power of, 125–126 shaping an accountable culture, 127–128
 Georgia Tech, 88
 Graff Engineering, 123–127

H

Haliboo Dynamics, 140–141, 159
 Harley’s story, 54–55, 129
 Harrington, Elizabeth, 135–136
 Hartman, Captain, 39–42, 51, 54, 62
 Harton Industries, 43–46
 Harvest Financial, 98–99
 Head and heart leadership, 122
 Hearst Newspaper Group, 128–129
 “The Helmick Sculpture,” 136
 Holy Cross College, 87
 “Human Body Metaphor” (Edwards Deming), 152–153
 Hyrum’s lessons, 83–86

I

- Innovation and creativity, 81, 94
- Insanity definition argument, 119
- In Search of Excellence* (Peters), 19
- Invite everyone, 89, 94

J

- Jack in the Box E. coli food-poisoning case, 5–6
- Janet's story, 1–3
- Janitor at NASA story, 99
- Jobs
 - accountability trumps responsibilities, 109–111
 - cementing the focus of work and, 100–103
 - employee engagement in their, 3–4, 21–28, 32–33
 - lessons learned from the Marauders on performance, 106–109
 - the magical mindset shift for desired results of, 103–106
 - powerful shift in perception for desired result of, 97–99
 - shared accountability versus “my responsibilities” of, 57–58
 - See also* Employees
- Johnson & Johnson Tylenol case, 6

K

- Kate's story, 78–81
- Kelly's story, 144–145, 160
- Kennedy, John, 99
- Kevin's story, 111–113
- Key Learnings to Internalize
 - accountability is a journey, 93
 - for change toward an accountable organization, 155–158
 - “digging deeper” for what you want to achieve, 30–31
 - on four categories of accountability, 91
 - how clarity motivates and engages employees, 32
 - making the choice for accountability, 61–64
 - mindset shifts to accountability for achievement, 113–114
 - people are naturally drawn to the blame-game, 28
 - playing the blame-game wastes valuable time, 28–30
 - providing employees with clear outcome priorities is crucial, 31–32

- on recognizing realities and taking ownership, 91–92

See also Accountability

- King Ray Studio, 136
- “The Know-It-Alls” employees, 43
- Kotter, John, 14, 44
- Kouzes, Jim, 48

L

- LAG measures, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115
- Lakeshore Bionics, 19–21
- Lauren's story, 124–127
- Leader key attributes
 - be a role model, 48, 49, 122, 155–156
 - demonstrate leadership alignment, 122, 139–141, 156
 - focus on the few, 122
 - head and heart approach to leadership, 122
 - include and involve, 122
 - nurture silo-free mindset, 122, 160
 - practice excellent communication, 127–128
 - provide clarity, 121
- Leaders
 - changing how they approach
 - accountability, 4–5
 - do not shoulder accountabilities of your employees, 142–144
 - employee awareness of both their own and the behaviors of, 49–52, 63–64, 119, 120
 - Lakeshore Bionics on accountability role of, 19–21
 - leading accountability as a choice by, 46–49
 - lie and lead accountably, 161
 - modeling accountable behaviors, 48, 49, 122, 155–156
 - taking control and influencing experiences
 - approach by exemplary, 135
 - transformation change role of, 119–120
- Leadership
 - Alex's story on her accountable approach to, 120–122
 - alignment by, 122, 139–141, 156
 - transformation change role of, 119–120
- Leadership alignment
 - development and implementation of, 156
 - five-step process for achieving, 141, 159
 - as key attribute of an ideal leader, 122
 - periodic check-ins to support, 141
 - Troy's story on implementing, 139–141
- The Leadership Challenge* (Kouzes and Posner), 48

LEAD measures, 111–113, 114, 115
 Live and lead accountably, 161
 Lucas's story, 137–139

M

Maddock, G. Michael, 43
 Magical mindset shift, 103–106
 Malone, Dudley Field, 74
 Manny's story, 149
 Mary's story, 109–110
 Max's Marauders story, 106–109
 The "maybes" employees
 description of the, 44
 getting a buy-in to change by, 149–150 increasing focus on the, 62–63, 65 understanding the potential of, 45–46
 McChesney, Chris, 14
 Mindset shifts
 to accountability trumps responsibility, 109–111
 for always getting better, 139
 first ask "What is your job?" to begin,
 97–98, 114
 Key Learnings to Internalize for accountability, 113–114
 to LEAD measures from LAG measures, 111–113, 114, 115
 the magical mindset shift required for achievement, 103–106
 nurture a silo-free, 122, 160
 reasons vs. excuses, 54–56
 to shared accountability, 65
 story about the janitor at NASA example of, 99
 Take Accountability Now for accountability, 114–115
 toward alignment, ownership, and personal accountability, 98–99
 See also Perspectives of others
 Miracles for Kids, 2
 Mistakes
 keep moving forward and do not dwell on, 144–145
 not blaming and learning from, 49
 rewarding effort instead of chiding, 49
 Modeling
 Alex's story on her approach to
 accountability, 120–122
 being aware that all behaviors send a message, 49–52, 63–64, 119, 120
 key leader attribute of accountability, 48, 49, 122, 155–156
 write down three accountable behaviors to begin, 65

Morse, Mae, 128, 129
 Motivation. See Employee engagement
 Mountainview Enterprises, 67–73/fig, 91

N

NASA janitor story, 99
 "Natural laws of successful time and life management" (Hyrum Smith), 129
 "Naysayers" employees
 description of the, 44–45
 resistance to change by, 150
 The "nevers" employees
 don't waste time on the, 64–65
 as "naysayers" who actively impede, 44–45
 resistance to change by, 149–150 as the 20 percent that will never contribute, 43–44
 what to do with the, 45–46
 "The Nonbelievers" employees, 43
 Notre Dame football team
 Rudy Ruziciger's story on the, 86–89
 "walk-ons" allowed by the, 87
 Open-ended questions encourage accountability by crafting five to seven, 64
 helping people to move past blame-game and solve problems using, 145, 156–157, 159–160
 to move people to the accountability choice, 42, 62
 Openness and transparency, 91, 94
 Open the Books, 136
 Organizational culture accountability is the catalyst for transformational change, 117–120
 a "want-to" culture trumps a "have-to," 118
 See also Accountable culture Organizations
 accountable, 117–161
 cross-functionally accountability by, 151–155, 158
 examples of failures of once successful, 139
 See also Accountability scenarios
 Outcomes. See Desired results (outcomes)
 Ownership matrix of accountability, 79–80/fig Ownership taking apathy of those who do not engage in, 9
 "Below the Water" behavior versus, 39–42
 Chris's story on the rewards of, 10–11 creating employee energy for, 4

- Ownership taking (continued)
 CVP International leader's creating a culture of, 21–28 for getting things done, 30
 Johnson & Johnson's Tylenol crisis and, 6 making the choice for degree of, 28
 matrix of accountability and, 79–80 fig taking the opportunity for, 2 for your current realities, 72, 73 fig, 78–81, 93–94, 93–99
- Ownership taking tactics
 appreciation and recognition, 81, 94
 celebrate wins, 81, 93
 encourage creativity and innovation, 81, 94
 openness and transparency, 91, 94
 storytelling, 81, 94
 WIIFM (What is in it for me), 81, 94
- P
- Pac-North Building Supplies, 75
 Pain/fear/discomfort, 146–150, 157, 160
 Palo Alto Polytrauma and Blind Rehabilitation Center, 136
 Parable of the two shoe salesman, 39
 Parseghian, Ara, 87
 Patton, George S., 19
 Peachtree Corporation, 142–144
 Performance. See Work performance
 Perseverance, 41
 Perspectives of others
 “agree to disagree” attitude toward, 74, 75
 child helping his father exercise on, 76–78
 how they can help clarify your current realities, 71, 76–78, 93 leadership alignment by seeking the, 141
 the “young girl vs. old woman” example of, 75 your accountability for the way you are perceived by, 137–139
See also Beliefs; Mindset shifts
- Peter's story, 76–78
- Peters, Tom
 on being able to achieve what you want badly enough, 30 on how senior leaders can contribute value, 19
In Search of Excellence co-authored by, 19 on the “Tower Death” concept, 38–39
 on when to fire an employee immediately, 45
- Phyllis's story, 150–155
- Picture success, 89, 95
 Pizza story, 132–133, 135
 Posner, Barry, 48
 Problem solving
 destiny is determined by decision making and, 35–39 open-ended questions to help people with, 145, 156–157, 159–160
 perseverance and determination elements of decision making and, 41
See also Solutions
- R
- Randy's story, 56–61, 64
 Realities. See Current realities
 Reasons vs. excuses mindsets, 54–56
 Recognition. See Appreciation and recognition
 Redding, Ellis “Red” (Shawsbank Redemption character), 30 Relationship triad
 made up of experiences, beliefs, and action, 135–136
 VA scandal (2012–2015) example of failed, 135–136 Responsibilities
 how accountability trumps, 109–111
 shared accountability versus “my,” 57–58
 Results. See Desired results (outcomes)
 Reverse thinking, 89, 95
 Rio 2016 Summer Olympics, 55–56
 Robert's story, 22–24, 102
 Ruettiger, Rudy, 86–89
 “Rules of the game,” 21–28, 32, 33
 Russell and Audrey's story, 103–106
- S
- Sea Tech, 137–139
 Securities and Exchange Commission, 53
 Self-awareness
 craft five to seven open-ended questions to increase, 64
 of the messages our behaviors send, 49–51, 63–64
 for stopping “Below the Water” behavior, 41, 51
The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People (Covey), 75 Shared accountability
 a “my responsibilities” focus versus, 57–58 Randy's story on, 56–61, 64
 shifting employee mindset toward, 65 tactics for transforming culture into, 60–61, 64

- understanding the importance and benefits of, 58–60
 - Shawshank Redemption* (movie), 38
 - Shipp, Josh, 38
 - Silo-free mindset, 122, 160
 - Smith, Hyrum
 - his “natural laws of successful time and life management,” 129
 - life lessons learned from, 83–86, 129
 - “We become what we think about” law of, 129
 - Solution guidelines
 - 1: rapid-fire brainstorming without analysis, 89, 94
 - 2: invite everyone, 89, 94
 - 3: do not assume, 89, 94
 - 4: challenge the status quo, 89, 95
 - 5: picture success, 89, 95
 - 6: reverse thinking, 89, 95
 - Solutions
 - Cambria Ventures’s guidelines for creative, 89
 - developing plan to implement your, 91
 - Key Learnings to Internalize on, 92
 - learning to recognize and identify, 86–90
 - the magical mindset shift for desired, 103–106
 - making commitment to agreed upon, 145
 - as one of the categories of accountability, 71, 72, 73*fig*
 - open-ended questions to help people find, 145, 156–157, 159–160
 - Take Accountability Now by pursuing, 94–95
 - See also* Problem solving
 - Squire Medical
 - need to turn things around at, 1
 - working to heighten accountability at, 1–5
 - Status quo
 - challenging the, 89, 95
 - Manny’s story on rejecting the, 149
 - See also* Transformational change
 - Stories
 - Alex, 120–122, 155, 158
 - Audrey and Russell’s, 103–106
 - badge, 134, 135
 - Bob Danzig, 128–129
 - Brianna’s, 134
 - Bruce on Rudy Ruettiger, 86–89
 - Chris, 10–11
 - Craig, 98–99
 - Dan, 43–46
 - Ellen, 142–144
 - Gail, 75
 - Harley, 54–55, 129
 - Janet, 1–3
 - janitor at NASA, 99
 - Kate, 78–81
 - Kelly, 144–145, 160
 - Kevin, 111–113
 - Lauren, 124–127
 - Lucas, 137–139
 - Mary, 109–110
 - Max’s Marauders, 106–109
 - parable of the two shoe salesman, 39
 - Peter, 76–78
 - Phyllis, 150–155
 - pizza, 132–133, 135
 - Randy, 56–61, 64
 - Robert, 22–24, 102
 - Ted and Rhonda, 46–49
 - Tito, 35–38
 - Tom and Eddie, 146–147
 - “Tower Death,” 38–39
 - Troy, 140–141, 159
 - Vinnie, 62
 - See also* Accountability scenarios; Experiences
 - Storytelling for ownership tactic, 81, 94
 - Stumpf, John, 52–54
 - Sun Belt Technology, 149
 - Superior Electronics, 111–113
 - Synergetic Technologies, 151–155
- T
- Take Accountability Now
 - assess how your team is doing on accountability, 93
 - for change toward an accountable organization, 158–160
 - clearly identify your desired results, 32–33
 - develop a communication plan, 33
 - develop a plan for increasing accountability, 33–34
 - increasing ownership of your current realities, 93–94
 - mindset shifts to accountability for achievement, 113–114
 - reflect on time spend on “Below the Water” and blame-game, 64
 - seek the perspectives of other people, 93
 - take control and deploy tactics to meet desired results, 94–95
 - See also* Accountability; Accountability accelerator strategies; Actions
 - Teams
 - Alex’s story on leading accountable, 120–122

- Teams (continued)
- choosing to take personal accountability to help your, 121
 - take an accountability assessment of your, 93
 - See also* Employees
- Ted and Rhonda's story, 46–49
- “Three Types of People to Fire Immediately” (Maddock and Viton), 43
- Tito's story, 35–38
- Tom and Eddie's story, 146–147
- Toomey, Patrick, 53
- “Tower Death” story, 38–39
- Transformational change
- accountability as the catalyst for lasting, 117–120
 - the accountable organization as pinnacle of, 150–155
 - assessing if culture is nurturing accountability or not and need for, 133–135
 - do not shoulder your employees's accountabilities for lasting, 142–144
 - helping employees “see how things are done around here” to support, 129–131
 - how the definition of insanity is a good argument for making, 119
 - how the power of genuine appreciation drives, 125–126, 127–129
 - how the relationship triad impacts lasting, 135–136
 - ignite desired accountable behaviors for, 122–127
 - keep moving forward and do not dwell on mistakes made, 144–145
 - leadership role in, 119–120
 - overcoming fear and denial in times of, 146–150, 157, 160
 - by shaping an accountable culture, 120–122
 - tune-ups required for sustaining an accountable culture, 139–141
 - understanding that little things matter when creating, 131–133
 - See also* Status quo
- Transparency and openness, 91, 94
- Trinity Corporation, 144–145, 160
- Troy's story, 140–141, 159
- Tundra Oil, 56–61
- Twain, Mark, 70, 74
- V
- Veterans Affairs Administration (VA) scandal (2012– 2015), 135–136
- “The Victims” employees, 43
- Vinnie's story, 42
- Vision
- accelerate accountability by stating priorities for achieving, 4
 - ensure that employees understand the desired results and, 12–15
 - Vision of Achievement to share your, 154–155, 160
- Vision of Achievement, 154–155, 160
- Viton, Raphael Louis, 43
- Vons Companies, Inc., 5
- W
- Warren, Elizabeth, 52–53
- Washington Free Beacon* (newspaper), 135
- “We become what we think about” law, 129
- Wells Fargo
- Senate panel (2016) questioning of, 52–54
 - Vision and values Statement conflict with cross-selling by, 52, 53
- “What is your job?” question, 97–98, 114
- WTFM (What is in it for me), 81, 94
- Work performance
- cementing the focus of, 100–103
 - how accountability trumps responsibility for, 109–111
 - Key Learnings to Internalize for mindset shift for, 113–114
 - LAG versus LEAD measures of, 111–113, 114, 115
 - lessons learned from the Marauders on, 106–109
 - the magical mindset shift for desired results of, 103–106
 - powerful shift in perception for desired result of, 97–99
 - shared accountability versus “my responsibilities” for, 57–58
 - Take Accountability Now for mindset shift to improve, 114–115
 - See also* Desired results (outcomes); Employees
- Y
- Yoda, the accountability coach, 81–83
- The “young girl vs. old woman” perspectives, 75