

INDEX

Page references followed by fig indicate an illustrated figure; followed by t indicates a table.

A

- Absolutes: examples of using, 133*t*;
feedback using exploratory language
versus, 132
- Accountability: how to remove fear of failure
but maintain, 115; Stacy's difficulty with her team's, 87–88
- Act as if, 97–98
- Actions: courage to take a stand, 45–60
109; “false memories” experiments on, 51; Father Bob as example of,
14–15, 16*t*, 17, 18; Gerald's reaction versus Bob's actions, 14–16*t*, 17;
getting out of stuckness by taking,
29–32; going deeper in, 34–35;
making the choice between reaction and, 192; Middles learning to choose how to respond to their conditions, 151–152; as possible response to feedback, 129; three lessons on getting unstuck, 33–34. See also Behaviors; Reactions
- Activating our values: author's story on her father's perfectionism, 58–59; Citrix's taking a stand example of, 56–58;
Paul Ryan's taking a stand example of, 58
- Actual values, 48–49
- Addictions, 173
- AIG (American International Group)
scandal, 50
- Alcohol abuse, 173
- Ali, Muhammad, 181
- Altruism: benefits of practicing, 99–100;
Joel's self-sabotage in spite of his,
100–101
- Ambition and self-seeking, 72–74
- Amygdala: description and function of the,
8; reacting to threats to ensure our safety, 8–9, 10–11
- Andy's story, 113
- Anna's story, 1–2
- Appreciation: building confidence by showing yourself, 95–96; honor the give with feedback, 140–141
- The Arbinger Institute, 57
- Aristotle, 45
- Arrogance: as birthplace of the Humbling Experience, 68–71, 192; Carrie and Jackson's story on self-seeking and, 72–74; Chanda's story on recognizing your own, 65–67*fig*;

as a choice, 71; description of, 64;
“double-talk” symptom of, 63, 67;
example of workplace, 65; Jason and Erica’s story on, 63–65, 67, 68; line between confidence and, 64–65; self-seeking behavior and relationship to,
72–74

Arrogance self-reflection: Chanda’s story on, 65–67; when others’ needs and contributions are important list, 66, 67*fig*; when our needs and contributions are more importance list, 66*fig*

Aspirational values, 48–49

Authority: delegation defined as sharing, 107; overcoming the obstacles to delegating, 110–120

Avoid-create-avoid pain cycle, 17*fig*

Avoid-suppress-avoid pain cycle, 17*fig*

B

The Balance Myth (Taylor), 177

“Be brave. And holler if you need me” advice, 174

Behaviors: ambition and self-seeking,
72–74; arrogance, 63–74; “false
memories” experiments on, 51;
Givers, Takers, and Matchers, 99;
humble, 72–79, 109; Kim’s story on enabling bad, 160–161; “mirror
neurons” phenomenon of, 50–51;
Pari’s story on getting unstuck on competition driving her, 35–38,
139; Senator McCain’s address on values and, 53–54; stories demonstrating how values drive our,
46–48. See also Actions

Belitz, Charlene, 29

Bersin & Associates, 148

Big Dreams: building your own board of directors to support your, 189–191;
courage required for Big Moves and, 182–183, 185; Jack’s story on achieving his, 183–184; Kellie’s story on courage required for, 83–84, 182–183; Maria’s story on achieving her, 183; sacrifice of comfort required to achieve, 182–183;
setting big goals to achieve, 182;
understanding that you have to make them happen, 193; when to recalibrate your, 191–192; Yuly’s story on achieving her Yuly360 blog,
190–191. See also Dreams

Big Moves: building your own board of directors to support your, 189–191;
characteristics of a, 185; courage
required for making the, 182–183,
185; devising a plan to make the,
184–185; expecting success when making the, 185–187; the 40 percent rule for making your, 184–185;
having gratitude for learning from worst-case scenarios, 189; having the perspective of a courageous leader and making your, 192–193; planning for the worst-case scenarios, 187–189

The Big Temptation: to avoid giving courageous feedback, 125–127;
Marcus’s example of avoiding the,
18–19, 21, 94; two types of pain
cycles and, 17*fig*–18

Bigger-purpose seeking: how altruism promotes culture of, 99–100; Jim Collins on, 78–79; Stephen’s story on shifting from self-seeking to, 75–77;
taking the leadership path of, 74–77

Block, Peter, 140

Board of directors: lessons on the value of an excellent, 189–190;

- Yuly's story on support of her own informal, 190–191
- Bob, Father: the Big Temptation spoken of by, 125; description of, 14; Gerald's reactions versus actions by, 14–16*t*, 17; a message from, 16
- Bob's story (owner of Paul's Burgers and Shakes), 47–48
- Boehner, John, 58
- The Book of Awakening* (Nepo), 83
- Bottoms: coaching Tops to talk directly with, 154*fig*–155; “Lines of Communication” simulating conditions of Tops, Middles, and, 150–151; when Middles should be a, 152*fig*–158
- Boundaries: establishing your, 98; Jessica's work to establish appropriate, 161–162; stop asking for permission and know your, 99
- Boyatzis, Richard, 143
- The brain: amygdala, 8–9, 10–11; expectations and placebo effect on, 186–187; “mirror neurons” phenomenon of, 50–51; neocortex, 8, 9, 11
- Brett and Roxanne's story, 160–161
- Bridges, William, 39, 40
- Brooke's story, 110
- Brown, Brené, 107, 173–174
- Buddhism, 41
- Burnout: indications that we need recovery from, 172–173; recovery strategies, 173–179
- Business success: the ability to increase revenue and to drive down costs factors of, 2–3; Anna's story on how leadership impacts, 1–2; find your own pattern of, 177; why courageous leaders are required for, 3. See also Expecting success; Failure
- C
- Calibration, 191
- Cameron, Kirk, 85
- Carmen's story, 138, 143
- Carrie and Jackson's story, 72–74
- “CEO disease,” 143, 152
- Chanda's story, 65–67*fig*
- Change: asking the right question for, 33–34; coaching Tops to talk with Bottoms directly to facilitate, 154*fig*–155; four Laws of Organizational Development on, 39–40; letting go of control over what we can't, 173; Middles being a Bottom to deal with “stinky stuff” attempts at, 152*fig*–153; pain during transition out of “stuckness,” 38–40, 109; seek clarity, not absolute certainty during, 34; trust the process for, 34. See also Recovery
- Cheerleading story, 96–97
- Chen, Angus, 137
- Chili cook-off story, 90–92
- Choosing: between actions and reactions, 192; Gerald's reaction versus Bob's actions example of, 14–16*t*, 17; to get unstuck, 29–40, 109, 192; Middles learning how to respond to their conditions by, 151–152; to take a stand, 45–60, 109
- Chris's story: on his 360-degree feedback starting his recovery journey, 171–172; strategies used for his recovery, 173–177, 179
- Citrix, 57–58
- Clarity: seeking during change, 34; on values, 51–56*t*
- Cleveland Clinic Foundation, 187
- Clients. See Customer relationships
- Coaching: examples of 360-degree feedback as part of, 75–77, 171–172; Personify

- Leadership program for, 22–23, 90, 107–108*fig*, 116–120, 150–151, 174, 197–198. See also specific story
- Colleen's story, 165
- Collins, Jim, 78–79, 166
- Columbia University, 148, 150
- Communication: compassionate persistence approach to, 133*t*–136*t*; having tough conversations, 5–6. See also Feedback
- Compassionate persistence: example one of message derailed and deflected versus, 133*t*–134*t*; example two of message derailed and deflected versus, 135*t*–136*t*; feedback that demonstrates, 133, 134–135
- Confidence: Alan's story on ending without a validating experience, 93–94; chili cook-off story on voting for yourself, 90–92, 192; for delegation, 109; description of, 64; how self-trust brings, 87–90; Kellie's challenging employee and being, 83–84, 182–183; line between arrogance and, 64–65; Lucas's story on having workplace, 92–93; making the effort to build self-trust and, 101; Raul's team struggle and his diminishing, 88–89*fig*; self-fulfilling prophecy and reinforced perceptions of, 89–90*fig*; strategies and tools for building, 94–101; Those People Complex barrier to being, 84–86, 101
- Confidence-building strategies: act as if, 97–98; altruistic without self-sabotage, 99–101; appreciate yourself more, 95–96; do what you fear the most, 94–95; establish boundaries, 98; stop asking for permission, 99; visualize success, 96–97
- Conflict: being caught between two bosses, 162–164; choosing to take action or to react to, 11–14; stop playing the mediator to work out others', 161–162
- Conley, Chip, 40–41
- Connections: definition of, 173–174; recovery through guidance and support of our, 173, 174. See also Support networks
- Contributions lists: when others' needs and contributions are important, 66, 67*fig*; when our needs and contributions are more importance, 66*fig*
- Control (letting go of), 173
- Courage: as accessible to everyone, 7; “Be brave. And holler if you need me” advice on recovery, 174; to be in the middle space, 165–166; Big Dreams and Big Moves require, 182–184, 185; description of, 4; embracing pain as part of, 7; feedback trifecta for giving feedback and role of, 127, 128–129; feedback trifecta for receiving feedback well and role of, 138–139; to get unstuck, 27–43, 109; growth as requiring, 43; making a commitment to, 19–20*fig*; mind-set of having, 20; to overcome pain associated with delegation, 108–109; recovery as being a part of, 193; to take a stand, 45–60, 109; in tough times, 4, 14–16*t*
- Courageous leaders: Anna's story for making the business case for, 1–3; assessing the risks of being a, 21–23; being courageous even without validation, 93–94; as evolving from the Middle, 166; Father Bob's actions

- as a, 14–16*t*, 17, 18; honoring your internal, 19–21; how they avoid the Big Temptation, 17*fig*–19, 21, 94, 125–127; making your Big Move with the perspective of a, 192–193; Marcus's example as a, 18–19, 21, 94; the uncommon choices that create, 1415. See also Leadership
- Covey, Stephen M. R., 90
- Creative tension: Pari's need to prove herself creating, 37, 139; Senge's description of, 37
- Culture: bigger-purpose seeking, 74–79; how altruism promotes bigger-purpose seeker, 99–100; intelligent failure, 115–117, 120; self-seeking, 72–77. See also Environment; Organizations; Workplace
- Customer relationships: accommodating bad clients over good clients, 127–128; Oshry's theory on Middles, Bottoms, Tops, and, 149*fig*–152; Rachel's story on including clients in delegation of the, 117–118; Samuel's story on removing himself from front-end, 118
- D
- Dallas Theological Seminary, 50
- Daniel's story, 45–46, 53
- Dante, 27
- David's story, 155–156
- Decision making: David's story on trying to integrate Middles, 155–156; to make a commitment to courage, 19–20*fig*; Middles becoming a Bottom when Tops have poor, 152–158; to take a stand, 42, 45–60, 53–54, 109; for taking actions instead of reacting, 14–16*t*, 17, 18
- Delegation: the Delegation Doom Loop barrier to, 107–108*fig*, 109, 120, 164, 192; having the courage for, 108–109; Mateo's story on his struggle with, 105–107, 109, 113; Personify Leadership on the new paradigm of, 118–120; Personify Leadership program's definition of, 107; traditional top-down model of, 118, 119; vulnerability required for effective, 107. See also Team members
- Delegation Doom Loop, 107–108*fig*, 109, 120, 164, 192
- Delegation obstacles: delegation takes too much time, 110–111; I am afraid my people won't do it as well as I would, 115–117; I don't have people to delegate to, 118–120; I feel guilty giving my teamwork work, 111–113; I love doing it all (or at least being the superstar), 113–114; my customer wants only me, 117–118
- Depressants use, 173
- Despair = Pain - Meaning equation, 41
- Despair = Suffering - meaning equation, 41
- Discomfort: being courageous in tough times of, 4; Big Dreams require making Big Moves and facing some, 182–183; how we process it intellectually, 9; of The Humbling Experience, 68–71; three scenarios on pain and, 3–4; as tough times reaction, 8–9; during transition out of stuckness, 38–40, 109; as warning sign of being stuck, 38
- Disney, Walt, 78
- Disney World story, 77–79
- “Double-talk,” 63, 67

Dreams: author on experience of chasing her, 181–182; most people abandon their, 182. See also Big Dreams
Duke University, 115

E

The Ears of a Leader competency, 198
Edmondson, Amy, 115
Elijah's story, 147–148, 149, 150
Emotional Equations (Conley), 41
Emotions: allowing yourself appropriate expression of, 177–178; choosing to blame in or blame out unpleasant, 10; choosing to react or choose action depending on our, 11–14; how feedback creates either encouraging or discouraging, 129–131; how the amygdala protects us through triggered, 8–9; intellectually scrutinizing situation and choosing an, 10–11; research on Middles and depression, 148, 150; three scenarios on discomfort and pain, 3–4. See also Fear
Empathy, 132*t*
Enron scandal, 50
Environment: “CEO disease” shutting down feedback, 143, 152; feedback trifecta for giving feedback, 127, 136–138; feedback trifecta for receiving feedback well, 143. See also Culture; Organizations; Workplace
Establish boundaries, 98
Ethical responses: being courageous even without validation, 93–94; Father Bob's example of, 14–16*t*, 17, 18; Marcus's example of, 18–19, 21, 94
Expecting success: author's story of disappointing her first-grade teacher, 185–186; Cleveland Clinic Foundation's mental exercise study on, 187; Plan B and planning for the worst, 187–189; poison ivy study on placebo effects of, 186–187. See also Business success; Failure

Exploratory language: examples of, 133*t*;
feedback using absolutes versus, 132
The Eyes of a Leader competency, 198

F

Failure: author's experience with disappointment first-grade teacher, 185–186; intelligent failure culture to manage fear of, 115–117, 120; maintaining accountability in spite of fear of, 115; planning and being grateful for worst-case scenarios and, 188–189. See also Business success; Expecting success
“False memories” experiments, 51
Fear: building confidence by doing what you, 94–95; Carmen's story on receiving feedback, 138, 143; of discomfort and pain, 3–6; of failure, 115–117; how we feel or experience, 8–9; how we process it intellectually, 9; self-seeking behavior rooted in, 72–74. See also Emotions
Feedback: The Big Temptation to avoid giving useful, 125–127; the “CEO disease” of void of, 143, 152; Chris's story on recovery beginning with 360-degree, 171–172; courage required to give and receive useful, 124–125; as either encouraging or discouraging others, 129–131; examples of with and without empathy, 132*t*; feedback trifecta on giving, 127–138; feedback trifecta

- on receiving feedback well, 138–143; Lucas's story on validation of his team's, 93; on Mateo's choice to not delegate, 106–107; possible reaction vs. action responses to, 129; remember that it is always personal, 130–131; Shane and Beth's story on inadequate, 123–124, 125; Stephen's story on responding to his 360-degree, 75–77; to stop being a superstar and start delegating, 114; understanding that is it personal and changes everything, 193; as way to scrutinize our reality, 140. See also Communication; Performance
- Feedback giving skills: demonstrate compassionate persistence, 133*t*–136*t*; importance of having, 127, 129–131; minimizing the threat we represent, 131*t*; show empathy, 132*t*; use exploratory language versus absolutes, 132–133*t*
- Feedback receiving skills: honor the giver by appreciating the feedback, 140–141; let yourself mourn, 142; set the right mental framework, 140; stay in the role of receiver rather than victim, 141–142
- Feedback trifecta (giving feedback): courage required for, 127, 128–129; environment required for, 127, 136–138; having the skill for, 127, 129–136*t*; Natalia's story on, 127–128
- Feedback trifecta (receiving feedback well): Carmen's story on, 138, 143; courage required for, 138–139; environment required for, 143; skill required for, 139–142
- The Feet of Leader competency, 198
The Fifth Discipline (Senge), 37, 139–140
- Financial meltdown (2009), 50
- First Law of Organizational Development, 40
- Flourish* (Seligman), 188
- Flow of life, 27
- Forbes* magazine, 107
- 40 Percent Rule (Navy SEALs), 112–113, 184–185
- Fourth Law of Organizational Development, 40
- Frankl, Viktor, 41
- ## G
- Gerald's story: description of his reactive leadership, 12–13; Father Bob's action versus reactions by, 14–16*t*, 17, 18
- Getting unstuck: author's story on, 29–30; choosing to go deeper or move on and, 192; four Laws of Organizational Development for, 39–40; Lester's story on, 30–31; pain during transition of, 38–40, 109; Pari's story on, 35–38, 139; Sandra's story on, 31–32; Sergio's story on, 34–35
- Getting unstuck lessons: 1: ask the right question, 33–34; 2: trust the process, 34; 3: seek clarity, not absolute certainty, 34
- Give and Take: A Revolutionary Approach to Success* (Grant), 99
- Giver behaviors, 99
- Giving yourself a break, 174–175
- Glaser, Daniel, 51
- Global Workforce Index (KGWI) survey, 182
- Goggins, David, 112
- Going easy on yourself, 174–175
- Goleman, Daniel, 143
- Good to Great* (Collins), 78
- Grant, Adam, 99

Great Recession (2009), 50
 Growth: courage required for, 43; Despair = Pain - Meaning equation, 41; Despair = Suffering - Meaning equation, 41; John McCain's experience with pain and personal, 42, 53–54; Pain + Meaning = Growth equation, 42, 127, 165
 Growth, recovery, to growth cycle: as part of nature, 170; recovery in the workplace as part of the, 171–179
 Guantanamo Bay torture tactics, 53–54
 Guidance and support, 173–174

H

The Hands of a Leader competency, 198
Harvard Business Review, 115, 137
 Healing. See Recovery
 The Heart of a Leader competency, 197
 Heen, Sheila, 138–139
 Human rights, 54
 Humble behaviors: having the courage to practice, 109; loving something more than yourself as, 77–79; seeking a bigger purpose as, 74–77
 The Humbling Experience: arrogance as the birthplace of fire, 68–71, 192; author on her own, 69–70, 178; Jason's story ending with his, 68; Myra's story on her, 68, 70, 71
 Humility: the benefits of having, 71; The Humbling Experience that brings, 68–71, 178; Level 5 leader characteristics of, 78, 79, 166
 Humor, 176–177

I

Inc. magazine, 183
 Institute for Health and Human Performance, 8

Intelligent failure, 115–117, 120
Invisibilia: How Learning to Be Vulnerable Can Make Life Safer (Chen), 137
It Worked for Me: In Life and Leadership (Powell), 116
 Itzler, Jesse, 112–113

J

Jack's story, 183–184
 Jason and Erica's story, 63–65, 67, 68
 Jessica, Albert, and Lynnette's mediator story, 161–162
 Joel's story, 100–101
 John Wiley & Sons, 185
 Jung, Carl G., 125

K

Kellie's story, 83–84, 182–183
 Kelly Services 2013 Global Workforce Index (KGWI) survey, 182
 Kika Enterprises, 183
 Kika, Ricardo, 183
 Kimmel, Donna, 57–58
 Kim's story, 47, 160–161
 Kinsbourne, Marcel, 186

L

Leadership: Anna's story on providing well-liked but poor, 1–2; Collins's Level 5, 78, 79, 166; why values matter in, 49–51. See also Courageous leaders
 Leadership core competencies: The Ears of a Leader, 198; The Eyes of a Leader, 198; The Feet of a Leader, 198; The Hands of a Leader, 198; The Heart of a Leader, 197; The Mind of a Leader, 197; The Spine of a Leader, 197; The Voice of a Leader, 197–198

- Leadership paths: ambition and self-seeking behaviors, 72–74; great leaders evolve from the Middle, 166; loving something more than yourself, 77–79; seeking a bigger purpose, 74–77
- Lester's story, 30–31
- Level 5 leaders, 78, 79, 166
- Life line: description of a, 36; of Pari's story on getting unstuck, 36–38, 139
- Life story evaluation, 54
- Life-work balance: recovery strategies for restoring, 173–179; simplify things to maintain a, 178; Xian's story on establishing boundaries for, 98
- Linda's story, 174, 179
- "Lines of Communication" activity, 150–151
- Living with a SEAL* (Itzler), 112–113
- Lucas's story, 92–93
- Lundstrom, Meg, 29
- M
- Macaque monkey study (1992), 50–51
- Maleka's story, 95–96
- Malphurs, Aubrey, 50
- Man's Search for Meaning*, (Frankl), 41
- Marcus's story, 18–19, 21, 94
- Maria's story, 183
- Matcher behaviors, 99
- Mateo's story, 105–107, 109, 113
- McCain, John, 42, 53–54
- McKee, Annie, 143
- Meaning: Despair = Pain - Meaning equation, 41; Despair = Suffering - Meaning equation, 41; John McCain's experience with pain and, 42, 53–54; Pain + Meaning = Growth equation, 42, 127, 165. See also Purpose; Values
- Mediator story, 161–162
- Mental framework for feedback, 140
- Michigan State University, 65
- Middle between two ends relationships: being caught between two bosses, 162–164; disabling others to solve their own problems, 160–161; Oshry on the "dance of blind reflex" of, 159*fig*; playing the mediator, 161–162; stepping out of the middle space, 164–165
- Middle Integration: David's story on failure of, 155–156; Oshry's research on, 155–158; vulnerability required for, 158
- Middle space: having the courage to be in the, 165–166, stepping out of the, 164–165; there is a time to be and a time to get out of the, 193
- Middle strategies: to be a Bottom when you should, 152–158; creating a "Middle Integration" support system, 155–158; learning to choose how to respond to their conditions, 151–152
- Middles: being between two ends, 159*fig*–165; Bersin & Associates research on challenges of, 148; Columbia University research on depression of, 148, 150; Elijah's story on being a, 147–148, 149, 150; great leaders evolve from the, 166; having courage in the middle space, 165–166; illustrated diagram of the experience of, 150*fig*; "Lines of Communication" simulating conditions of, 150–151; Middle sewer pipe, 152*fig*; Oshry on silos vs. dispersed operations of, 156*fig*; Oshry's theory about organizational and system dynamics and, 149*fig*–152; there is a time to be and a time to get out of being a, 193; Tops, Bottoms, customers, and, 149*fig*–151

The Mind of a Leader competency, 197
 “Mirror neurons” phenomenon, 50–51
 Missy’s story, 46–47
 Motivation: for getting unstuck and taking action, 29–35; learning to focus on adding value for others as our, 38; Pari’s story on getting unstuck on competition as, 35–38, 139; values as driving our behavioral, 46
 Mourning received feedback, 142
 Myra’s story, 68, 70, 71

N

NASCAR prerace flyover, 59
 Natalia’s story, 127–128
 National Public Radio (NPR), 137, 138
 Navy SEALs’ 40 Percent Rule, 112–113, 184–185
 Needs: being altruistic without self-sabotage, 99–101; Givers, Takers, Matchers of, 99
 Neocortex: assessing options function of the, 8; processing pain through our, 9, 11
 Nepo, Mark, 83
 Networks. See Support networks
 New School for Social Research (New York), 186
 Nin, Anaïs, 1
NOVA scienceNOW (PBS television series), 51

O

Opportunities: how tough times can provide growth, 53–54; how value clarity provides us with, 51–52, 56–60; how vulnerability opens up, 107; John McCain on his pain being an, 42, 53; opened by getting unstuck, 40
 Organizational Development Laws, 40

Organizations: Elijah’s story on being in the middle of the, 147–148, 149, 150; how a leader’s behavior establish norms of, 50; how leadership values impact, 49–51; Oshry’s theory about system dynamics and, 149–152. See also Culture; Environment; Workplace
 Oshry, Barry: his research on “Middle Integration” strategy, 155–158; his theory about organizational and system dynamics, 147, 149*fig*–152

P

Page, ken, 41
 Pain: Big Decisions require making Big Moves and facing some, 182–183; the Big Temptation in the workplace response to, 17*fig*–19, 21, 94, 125–127; Cate’s fear of being cold and in, 39; common reactions to tough times and, 7–14; courage as being to embrace, 7; having the courage to overcome delegation, 108–109; how our neocortex processes, 9; how we feel or experience, 8–9; how we process it intellectually, 9; of The Humbling Experience, 68–71; John McCain’s experience with personal growth and, 42, 53–54; of learning to swim, 94–95; making sense of our, 40–43; Marcus’s example of avoiding the Big Temptation response to, 18–19, 21, 94; pain scale for measuring, 4*fig*; stop, recover, and heal or change due to, 169–170; three hypothetical scenarios on discomfort and, 3–6; during transition out of stuckness, 38–40, 109; two different cycles of, 17*fig*; as warning sign of being stuck, 38

- Pain cycles: avoid-create-avoid, 17*fig*; avoid-suppress-avoid, 17*fig*
- Pain equations: Despair = Pain - Meaning, 41; Despair = Suffering - Meaning, 41; Pain + Meaning = Growth, 42, 127, 165
- Pain scale, 4*fig*
- Pain thresholds: determining what behaviors reach tolerable, 21; our differing, 6–7
- Pari's story, 35–38, 139
- Pawliw-Fry, J. P., 186
- Performance: Lucas's story on confidence to address the team's, 92–93; making the business case for courageous leaders and, 1–3; making the case for courageous leaders that facilitate, 1–3; recovery strategies for returning to our optimal, 173–179. See also Feedback
- Performing Under Pressure: The Science of Doing Your Best When It Matters Most* (Weisinger and Pawliw-Fry), 186
- Personify Leadership core competencies: The Ears of a Leader, 198; The Eyes of a Leader, 198; The Feet of Leader, 198; The Hands of a Leader, 198; The Heart of a Leader, 197; The Mind of a Leader, 197; The Spine of a Leader, 197; The Voice of a Leader, 197–198
- Personify Leadership program: “Be brave. And holler if you need me” advice by colleague at, 174; delegation as defined by, 107; on the Delegation Doom Loop, 107–108*fig*, 192; eight core competencies of the, 197–198; “The Heart of a Leader” on how to build trust, 90; intelligent failure experience of, 116–117, 120; “Lines of Communication” activity used by, 150–151; on the new delegation paradigm, 118–120; origins of, 22–23; website of the, 198
- Placebo effect: description of the, 186; poison ivy study on the, 186–187
- Plan B, 187
- Powell, Colin, 116
- Power and systems, 149
- The Power of Flow: Practical Ways to Transform Your Life with Meaningful Coincidence* (Belitz and Lundstrom), 29
- Primal Leadership* (Goleman, Boyatzis, and McKee), 143
- Problems: disabling others to solve their own, 160–161; stop playing the mediator to work out others', 161–162
- Psychology Today*, 41
- Purpose: danger of self-seeking, 72–74; seeking a bigger, 74–79, 99–100. See also Meaning
- ## Q
- Qwest Telecommunications, 177
- ## R
- Radmacher, Mary Anne, 169
- Raul's story, 88–89*fig*
- Reactions: apathy and lost productivity and focus response to, 13–14; Father Bob's action versus Gerald's, 14–16*t*, 17, 18; Gerald as example of someone who has, 12–13; as indication that recovery is needed, 172; making the choice between actions and, 192; as possible response to feedback, 129. See also Actions
- Recalibrating Big Dreams, 191–192
- Recovery: as being a part of courage, 193; Chris's story on his, 171–172, 173–177,

- 179; growth, recovery, to growth cycle of, 170, 171–179; indications that we need, 172–173; Teresa's story on her, 177–179. See also Change
- Recovery strategies: build a network, 179; find your pattern of success, 177; get guidance and support from others, 173–174; go easy on yourself and take your time, 174–175; let go of control, 173; let yourself express emotions appropriately, 177–178; recovery is a team effort, 175–176; simplify things, 178; use humor, 176–177
- Relationships: creating a “Middle Integration” support, 155–158; disabling others to solve their own problems, 160–161; Middle between two ends, 159*fig*–165; Oshry's theory about organizational and system dynamics and, 149*fig*–152; stop playing the mediator to work out others', 161–162. See also Support networks; Teams
- Rock, Chris, 182
- Ryan, Paul, 58
- S
- Sandra's story, 31–32
- Sasha's story, 119–120
- “Scared algebra,” 41
- Schawbel, Dan, 107
- Second Law of Organizational Development, 40
- Selective attention, 52
- Self-appreciation, 95–96
- Self-sabotaging: being altruistic without, 99–100; Joel's lack of self-promotion as, 100–101
- Self-seeking: Carrie and Jackson's story on ambition and, 72–74; Stephen's story on shifting to bigger-purpose from, 75–77
- Self-trust: how confidence comes from, 87–90; making the effort to build confidence and, 101; Raul's team struggle and his diminishing, 88–89*fig*; Stacy's story on building confidence through, 8788
- Seligman, Martin, 188–189
- Senge, Peter, 37, 139–140
- Sergio's story, 34–35
- Shane and Beth's story, 123–124, 125
- Shell's Ursa offshore well story, 137
- Showing empathy, 132*t*
- Simplify things, 178
- Sitkin, Sim, 115
- Skills: feedback trifecta for receiving feedback well and required, 139–142; feedback trifecta of giving feedback and required, 127, 129–136*t*
- Sniper training, 188–189
- Speed of Trust, 90
- The Spine of a Leader competency, 197
- Stacy's story, 87–88
- Stephen's story, 75–77
- Stimulants use, 173
- Stone, Douglas, 138–139
- Stop asking for permission, 99
- “Strategies for Learning from Failure” (Edmondson), 115
- “Stuckness”: author's story on getting out of, 29–30; description of, 27–28; discomfort and pain as warning signs of, 38; four Laws of Organizational Development for transition out of, 39–40; learning to “move on” from, 28–29; Lester's story on getting out of, 30–31; moving on or going

- deeper into, 32–34; pain during the transition out of, 38–40, 109; Pari's story on being stuck in a paradigm, 35–38, 139; Sandra's story on getting out of, 31–32; Sergio's story on getting out of, 34–35
- Stuckness equations: Despair = Pain - Meaning, 41; Despair = Suffering - Meaning, 41; Pain + Meaning = Growth, 42, 127
- Substance abuse, 173
- Suffering: Buddhism truth on ever presence of, 41; equations describing, 41; John McCain's experience with personal growth and, 42, 53–54
- Superstar syndrome: Andy's story on struggling with delegation and, 113; author's personal experience with the, 113–114; Samuel's story on the, 118
- Support networks: creating a “Middle Integration,” 155–158; making Big Moves to achieve Big Dreams with your own, 189–191; recovery by building a, 179; recovery through guidance and our, 173–174. See also Connections; Relationships
- Swimming lessons story, 94–95
- System dynamics: Oshry's theory on Tops, Middles, Bottoms, and customers, 149*fig*–152; typically underestimated in organizational life, 151
- T
- Taker behaviors, 99
- Taking a stand: activating our values for, 56–60; as choosing action that reflects values, 46–56*t*; Daniel's story on the challenge of, 45–46, 53; having the courage for, 109; John McCain's story on, 42, 53–54
- Taking your time, 174–175
- Team members: giving others the spotlight, 113–114; Kellie's story on leading a challenging, 87–88, 182–183; Lucas's story on addressing the performance of, 92–93; Stacy's difficulty with holding them accountable, 87–88. See also Delegation
- Teams: Oshry's research on “Middle Integration,” 155–158; Paul's confidence tied to struggle of his, 88–89*fig*; recovery role of your, 175–176. See also Relationships
- Temple, William, 65
- Teresa's story, 177–179
- Thanks for the Feedback: The Science and Art of Receiving Feedback Well* (Stone and Heen), 138–139
- Third Law of Organizational Development, 40
- Those-People-Complex thinking, 84–86, 101
- Threat minimization, 131*t*
- 360-degree feedback: Chris's story on recovery beginning with his, 171–172; Stephen's story on responding to his, 75–77
- Top-down model of delegation, 118, 119
- Tops: coaching them to talk directly to Bottoms, 154*fig*–155; “Lines of Communication” simulating conditions of, 150–151; Oshry's theory on Middles, Bottoms, customers and, 149–152; when Middles face a situation without integrity or insight by the, 153
- Tough conversations: challenges related to having, 5; common workplace examples of, 5–6
- Tough times: being courageous in, 4; the Big Temptation in the workplace, 17*fig*–19, 21, 94, 125–127; common reactions to, 7–14; courageous leader's uncommon choices during, 14–16*t*; description of, 4, 5; honoring the courageous leader in you during, 19–21; value clarity by evaluating your response in, 53–54

Tracey's story, 114

Trust: Chris's story on recovery and rebuilding team's, 171–172, 173–177; confidence coming from self-trust, 87–90; “The Heart of a Leader” module on building, 90; the process of taking action for change, 34; Stephen's story on building, 75–77

U

University College London, 51

University of Akron, 65

University of Houston Graduate College of Social Work, 107

University of Münster (Germany), 51

University of Parma study (1992), 50–51

Ursa deepwater platform (Shell Oil Company), 137

U.S. Army sniper training, 188–189

U.S. News & World Report, 42

V

Value clarity: Angela's 10 distilled value phrases, 56*t*; Angela's three core, 56*t*; Angela's top 30 value words, 55*t*; evaluate your response in tough times for, 53–54; evaluating your life story for, 54; evaluating your natural inclinations and talents for, 54–56; opportunities that come through, 51–52, 56–60; on our personal values, 52–53; selective attention for, 51–52

Values: activating our, 56–60; actual and aspirational, 48–49; Angela's 10 distilled value phrases, 56*t*; Angela's three core, 56*t*; Angela's top 30 value words, 55*t*; getting clarity on, 51–56*t*; stories demonstrating how behavior is driven by, 46–48; taking a stand as choosing action that reflects, 46–60, 109; why they matter in leadership, 49–51. See also Meaning

Values-Driven Leadership (Malphurs), 50

Van's RV-7 aircraft airshows, 58–59

Victims: receiving feedback by taking role of receiver and not, 141–142; unflattering synonyms of, 141

Visualizing success, 96–97

The Voice of a Leader competency, 197–198

Voting for yourself, 90–92, 192

Vulnerability: Middle Integration as requiring, 158; NPR on benefits of, 136–138; opportunities available through, 107; as requirement for effective delegation, 107

W

Washington, Booker T., 105

Weisinger, Hendrie, 186

Wells Fargo Bank scandal, 50

Wharton Business School, 99

William's swim lessons, 94–95

Work–life balance: recovery strategies for restoring, 173–179; simplify things to maintain a, 178; Xian's story on establishing boundaries for, 98

Workplace: the Big Temptation in the, 17*fig*–19, 21, 94, 125–127; example of arrogance in the, 65; feedback trifecta for giving feedback in the, 127–138; feedback trifecta

- for receiving feedback well in the, 138–142; Lucas's story on having confidence in the, 92–93; recovery in the, 171–179. See also Culture; Environment; Organizations
- Worst-case scenarios: having gratitude for learning from, 189; planning for, 188–189
- X
- Xian's story, 98
- Y
- Yaz and Carlos's story, 154*fig*–155
- Yuly360* blog, 190–191
- Yuly's story, 190–191

<http://www.pbookshop.com>