

Index

A

- Abuse:
 - case story, 7
 - physical, 15
 - substance, 102
- Acceptance, as stage of grief, 123
- Accountability, 159–160
- Administrative employees, client communication handled by, 143–144
- Advocacy Unlimited, 132
- Affairs, 37–38, 75
- Agreements, plea, 153
- Alimony, 141
- Anger:
 - and allowing clients to vent, 174
 - case story, 6–9, 72, 131
 - and client communications, 172
 - dealing with, 60–64
 - distracting clients from, 178–180
 - with family disputes, 35
 - in fraud suspects, 127–128
 - and personal friendships, 38
 - as stage of grief, 123, 125
- Anxiety:
 - client communication reducing, 143
 - and settlements, 42
- Apologies:
 - case stories, 154–155
 - for emotional outbursts, 176
 - victim desire for, 153–154
- Arrogance, 73
- Attachment, 160

- Attorney–client privilege, 22–23
- Auditor, general feelings toward, 78

B

- Bank databases, 30
- Bankruptcy, 98
- Bargaining:
 - by fraud suspects, 128
 - as stage of grief, 123
- Barnard, Jayne W., 132
- Betrayal:
 - disbelief and, 71–76
 - and personal friendships, 38
- Biases, 164
- Bodily reactions, from nervousness, 52
- Body movements, excessive, 52
- Bookkeepers, 114
- Boundaries. See also Setting expectations
 - around voicemail, 170
 - clients crossing, 160–161
 - setting, 160–161
 - setting time expectations to set, 169
- Boy Scouts, 110, 111
- Breathing, 176–180
- Building rapport, and providing tissues, 56

C

- Calls:
 - with clients, see Client communication
 - initial, 17–18
 - management of, 169–170
- Cancer, 40
- Caring for suicidal individuals, 112, 121

- Case stories:
- about safety considerations, 147–149
 - of anger and hostility, 62–63, 65–69, 127–128
 - of appreciation, 99–101
 - of client communication, 140–142
 - of crying, 58–59
 - of depression, 92, 95–96
 - with disappointing outcomes, 24–26
 - of disbelief and betrayal, 72–75
 - of distracting clients, 178–179
 - of excitement, 78–86
 - including apologies, 154
 - of indifference, 88–90
 - involving biases, 164
 - involving personal friendships, 37–39
 - involving suicidal individuals, 113–119
 - involving work relationships, 39–40
 - missing money, 31–33
 - mother's estate, 5–9
 - of nervousness, 52–54
 - regarding safety, 35–36
 - of resentment, 77
 - of rollercoaster emotions, 173
 - school finance manager, 11–14
 - and settlements, 43–46
 - of stages of grief, 129–131
 - of substance use, 103–105
 - of trusting clients, 106
 - of unexpected emotions, 166
 - when declining cases, 19–21
- Caution. See also Safety
- with excited clients, 83
 - with indifference, 90–91
- Cell phone, setting boundaries surrounding your, 150–152
- Certified public accountants (CPAs), 7
- Children, 15, 34
- Church, 52–53
- Civil actions, 153
- Clergy, 64–65
- Client, defined, 1
- Client communication:
- developing your own approach to, 143–144
 - expectations for, 139–140
 - ground rules for, 145–146
 - providing updates to clients, 149
 - setting expectations for, 22, 144–145
 - and setting personal cell phone boundaries, 150–152
 - taking phone calls, 169–171
 - through emails, 171–172
- Client complaints, 144
- Client emotions:
- addressing, 22–27
 - and client story, 5–15
 - examiner response to, see Examiner recommendations
 - expecting, 17–22
 - importance of understanding, 2
 - preparing for, see Preparation
 - rollercoaster of, 15–16
- Client notes, 181
- Client relationships, as complicating factor, 34–35
- Client restitution, 42–47
- Client story, 5–15, 86
- an choosing who to talk to, 86
 - creating opportunity to share, 59–60
 - in fraud case story, 5–9
 - importance of listening to, 10–11
 - personal interest in, 164
- Client updates, 149, 158
- Client well-being, 99
- Coffee drinkers, 158
- Communication, client, see Client communication
- Compassion:
- and desperation, 98
 - importance of, 160
 - treating individuals with, 94
- Complaints, 144
- Complicating factors, 29–47

- client restitution, 42–47
 - CSI effect, 29–34
 - family and “like family” relationships, 34–40
 - friends/other outside influences, 41–42
 - Connecticut, 110
 - “Coping with Victimization” (Tesler and Thompson), 132
 - CPAs (certified public accountants), 7
 - Credit cards, 11–14
 - Cressey, Donald R., 97, 133
 - Crime shows, 29–30
 - Criminal Minds* (TV show), 29
 - Criminology, 134
 - Crises, 170, 177
 - Crying:
 - and allowing clients to vent, 174
 - case story, 40
 - dealing with, 55–60
 - CSI: Crime Scene Investigation* (TV show), 29
 - CSI effect, 29–34, 82
 - “Customers Aren’t the Only Victims” (Lank), 131–132
 - Customer service:
 - importance of, x
 - recommendations for, 157–159
 - when addressing emotions, 23
- D
- Databases, 30
 - Databases, bank and investment, 30
 - Decision making, friends affecting, 41
 - Declining cases, 19
 - Deliverables, x
 - Denial:
 - case story, 130
 - in initial calls, 18
 - as stage of grief, 123
 - in victims, 124–125
 - Depression, 91–96
 - despair from, 97
 - with family disputes, 35
 - in fraud suspects, 128
 - in long fraud cases, 127
 - signs of, 91
 - as stage of grief, 123, 126
 - Despair, 97–101
 - Didion, Joan, 132
 - Disappointment, 23–26
 - Disbelief:
 - about, 71–76
 - case story, 96
 - Disingenuousness, 160
 - Distracting clients, 178–180
 - Divorce:
 - case story, 38, 140–142
 - and desperation, 97–98
 - and resentment, 76
 - Domestic violence, 7
 - Door scopes, 146
 - Dragnet* (TV series), 10
 - Drinking problem, 6. See also Substance abuse
 - Drugs, 102. See also Substance abuse
- E
- Eagle Scouts, 111
 - Elderly individuals:
 - case story, 95–96
 - and depression, 92
 - Emails, 152, 171–172. See also Client communication
 - Embarrassment, 60
 - Embezzlement:
 - case story, 103, 154
 - and client note taking, 181
 - and magical thinking, 132
 - Emergencies, 170–171
 - “The Emotional Stages of Divorce” (Tesler and Thompson), 132
 - Emotion equilibrium, of examiner, 174–176
 - Emotions, defined, 16
 - Empathy:
 - and depression, 94
 - and desperation, 98
 - showing, 57
 - sympathy vs., 167

- Employees, client communication handled by, 143–144
- Encyclopedia Britannica, 132
- Establishing rapport, 11
- Estate settlement:
 case story, 43–46
 and depression, 92–93
 and taking cases personally, 162–163
- Examiner recommendations, 157–167
 customer service, 157–159
 empathy vs. sympathy, 167 examiner feelings of guilt, 161–162 examiner's personal interest, 162–165 passion and genuineness, 159 setting boundaries, 160–161 setting client expectations, 159–160
 with unexpected emotions, 165–167
- Examiner responses, 180–181
- Excessive body movements, 52
- Excitement, 78–86
- Expectations, setting, see Setting expectations
- Experience, importance of, ix, 57, 102
- Explanation, see Rationalization
- F
- Faked illnesses, 40
- Family disputes:
 case story, 35–36, 72, 113–115
 as complicating factors, 34 and crying, 58–59
 and depression, 92–93
 disbelief and betrayal in, 71
 and suicide, 111–112
- Family relationships, as complicating factor, 34–40
- Feelings, defined, 15–16
- Fiduciary law, 75
- Files: and locking up records, 106
 as starting point of investigation, 33–34 unattended, 106
- Finance manager, 11–14
- Financial advisors, 124–125
- Financial crime:
 case story, 11–14
 and nervousness, 53–54
 professional services in field of, 1
 stages of grief in victims of, 124
- Financial need, perceived, 97
- Financial schemes, 95–96
- First responders, legal duty of, 110
- Forms, intake, 17
- Fraud:
 case stories, see Case stories professional services in field of, 1
 terminology of, 1–2
- Fraud examiner (term), 1
- Fraud investigation (term), 1
- Fraud triangle, 97, 133
- Friendships:
 anticipating emotions in, 37
 influence of, 41–42
- Frustration, and personal friendships, 38
- G
- Gambling, 132–133
- Genuineness, 10, 159
- Gratitude, 99
- Greed, 73
- Grief, 123–134
 and magical thinking, 132–133
 and rationalization, 133–134
 stages of, 19, 123–132
- Ground rules, establishing, 145–146
- Guilt, examiner feelings of, 161–162
- H
- Hartford Magazine*, 132
- Health care industry, 126
- Hollywood, 29
- Homicides, 121–122
- Hostility, 60–69
- I
- Illnesses, faked, 40
- Indifference, 87–91
- Initial calls, 17–18
- Intake forms, 17

Internal Revenue Service (IRS), 126
 Intimidation, 60
 Intoxication, 102–105
 Investment databases, 30
 Invoices, 27
 IRS (Internal Revenue Service), 126

J

Justification, see Rationalization

K

Kübler-Ross, Elisabeth, 123–124

L

Lab technology, and CSI effect, 30
 Law, fiduciary, 75
Law & Order (TV show), 29
 Legal duties, 110
 “Like family” relationships, 34–40
 Limitations, and client expectations, 31–34
 Link, Ricky, 132
 Locking up records, 106
 Loneliness, 94–95

M

Magical thinking, 132–133
 Manchester Community College, 185
 Manipulation, 106
 Masot, Joanie, 132
 Mayo Clinic, 91
 Medical facilities, for suicidal individuals, 112
 Medicare, 126
 Meet-and-greet session, 145, 158
Merriam-Webster Dictionary, 133
 Modified Kübler-Ross Model, 124
 Mood changes, 15
 Morality, and dealing with suicidal clients, 110

N

NCIS (TV show), 29
 Needs, perceived financial, 97
 Nervousness, 52–54

Networking, x
 Note taking, 181

O

Objectivity, 10, 163–165
 Office space, safety considerations for, 146
On Death and Dying (Kübler-Ross), 123
 Opportunity, perceived, 97
Other People's Money (Cressey), 133
 Outside influences, 41–42

P

Parental validation, 34
 Passion, 159, 174
 importance of, ix–x
 Patience, 143
 Peepholes, 146
 Perceived financial need, 97
 Perceived opportunity, 97
 Personal cell phone, setting boundaries surrounding your, 150–152 Personal experience, external physical world linked to, 132
 Personal friendships, anticipating emotions in, 37
 Physical abuse, 15
 Plea agreements, 153
 Police explorer program, 109
 Predefined phone responses, 151
 Preparation, 139–156 and client catharsis, 152–156 and developing your approach, 143–144
 ensuring safety, 146–149
 establishing ground rules, 145–146
 importance of, 139–143
 to keep clients informed, 149 providing your cell phone number, 150–152
 setting client expectations, 144–145
 Probate court, 74–75
 Property managers, 103–105, 120
 Psychology, 134

R

Rage, 127. See also Anger
 Rapport, building, 11, 56
 Rationalization: defined, 133–134
 in fraud triangle, 97
 and magical thinking, 133–134
 Raypole, Crystal, 132–133
 Reacting to client emotions, 169–183
 and allowing clients to vent, 172–176
 client notes, 181
 examiner responses, 180–181
 focus clients, 181–182 reminding clients to breathe, 176–180
 reminding clients to live their lives, 182–183
 setting time for clients to listen, 180
 taking phone calls, 169–171
 through emails, 171–172
 Reasoning, see Rationalization
 Recommendations, examiner, see
 Examiner recommendations
 Redcollar crime, 121
 Referrals, ix, 19
 Relationships:
 after case closure, 131 building, x client, as complicating factor, 34–35 family, as complicating factor, 34–40
 friendships, 37, 41–42
 “like family,” 34–40
 repairing, 93
 setting boundaries in, see Boundaries
 Reputation, ix
 Rescheduling meetings, 180
 Resentment: about, 76–78
 case story, 72
 and family disputes, 35
 and personal friendships, 38
 Respect, 10, 94
 Responses, examiner, 180–181

Restitution, 42–47
 Restraining orders, 7
 Roadblocks, 31
 Rollercoaster of emotions, 15–16, 172
 Rushed speech, 52

S

Safeguarding your case, 105–107
 Safety: and anger/hostility, 64
 assessing room for, 60–61
 case story, 21, 35–36
 and family disputes, 35
 and homicides, 122
 and surprise client visits, 146 when dealing with under the influence individuals, 102–103
 Sales 101, 23
 Schemes, financial, 95–96
 School finance manager, 11–14, 62–63
 Security, 146
 Self-evaluations, for examiners, 57
 Selfishness, 73
 Setting expectations:
 around time for communication, 169 being realistic when, 159–160 for communication, 144–145 and CSI effect, 30
 for disappointment, 23–26
 fraud case story, 31–33 in initial meetings, 22–23 to manage emotions, 159–160
 Settlements:
 case story, 43–46, 154–155
 estate, see Estate settlement and outside influences, 41–42
 Shock, as stage of grief, 124, 125
 Siblings, 34, 35–36. See also
 Family disputes
 Sociology, 134
 Speech, rushed, 52
 Sports program, 11–14
 Spouses, cases involving, 73–75. See also Divorce

- Stalled cases, 183
- State marshalls, 119
- Stockholders, 65–66
- Stress, 15
 - and allowing clients to vent, 174
 - and anger, 60
 - and safety, 122
 - and suicide, 109
 - taking deep breathes to
 - minimize, 176–177
- Substance abuse, 102–105
- Suicides, 109–121
 - and despair, 98
 - possibility of, 107
- Surprise client visits, 146
- Swearing, 64–69
- Sweating, 52
- Sympathy, 56
 - empathy vs., 167
- T
- “Ta-Da! Magical Thinking Explained”
(Raypole), 132
- Taking control, 61
- Taxes, and financial crimes, 126
- Tax returns, 55
- Technology, lab, 30
- Terminations:
 - and depression, 94
 - and suicide, 118
- Tesler, Pauline H., 132
- Testing, as stage of grief, 124
- Texting, 150–152. See also Client communication
- Theft, 32
- Thinking, magical, 132–133
- Thompson, Peggy, 132
- Tissues, 55
- Tracking cases, 158
- Triage cases, 17
- Trials, 41, 153
- Trust:
 - case story, 106
 - gaining client, 46–47
 - losing, 155
 - mixed emotions from violated, 71
 - and rationalization, 133
 - Trust (legal), mishandling of, 5–9
- U
- Unattended files, 106
- Unexpected emotions, 165–167
- University of Connecticut, 185
- “Unresolved Gambling Treatment Options” (series), 133
- V
- Validation, parental, 34
- Vengeance, 125
- Venn diagrams, 76
- Venting:
 - case story, 44, 62
 - creating space for, 42, 152, 172–176
 - and crying, 55
- Video footage, and CSI effect, 30
- Violence:
 - and anger, 61
 - case story, 7
 - domestic, 7
 - and family disputes, 34, 36
 - against fraud examiners, 122
 - fraud matters resulting from, 122
 - and homicide, 121
- Vocal tone:
 - to calm clients, 57
 - for control, 62
- Voicemails, 170–171
- Voice of reason, 41
- W
- Well-being, of clients, 99
- Work relationships:
 - anticipating emotions in, 37
 - managing emotions in, 38–40
- Y
- “The Year of Magical Thinking: Fraud, Loss, and Grief” (Barnard), 132

<http://www.pbookshop.com>