

Contents

Preface	v
List of Contributors	vii
Table of Statutes	xix
Table of Statutory Instruments	xxix
Table of European Legislation	xxxii
Table of Cases	xxxv
Chapter 1 Regulatory framework
Introduction	1.1
Application of the Code	1.5
Overview of the Code	1.19
The Takeover Panel	1.29
Appeal procedures	1.36
Consequences of non-compliance with the Code	1.40
Co-operation between the Panel and other regulators	1.51
Relationship between the Panel and the courts	1.56
Chapter 2 Structuring takeovers and mergers
Introduction	2.1
Friendly or hostile approach	2.8
Virtual bids	2.10
Consequences of various levels of control	2.12
Partial offers and tender offers	2.25
Contractual offer or scheme of arrangement	2.32
Compulsory acquisition of outstanding minorities	2.64
Dual holding company structures	2.68
Cross-border mergers within the EEA	2.71

Chapter 3 Pre-announcement steps, approach and announcements
Bid planning	3.1
Establishment of offeror and target teams	3.5
Independence of advisers and conflicts of interest	3.8
Due diligence	3.11
Irrevocable undertakings and letters of intent	3.21
Other forms of deal protection sometimes sought by offerors	3.29
The approach to the target – Rule 1 of the Code	3.30
Secrecy before announcement – Rule 2.1 of the Code	3.31
Rumour and speculation and other circumstances in which a preliminary announcement is required – Rule 2.2 of the Code	3.34
Other provisions which may require announcements	3.40
Responsibility for announcement – Rule 2.3 of the Code	3.43
Announcement of a possible offer – Rule 2.4 of the Code	3.45
Consequences of the initial announcement	3.51
‘Put up or shut up’	3.54
Strategic review announcements and formal sale processes	3.60
Announcement of a firm intention to make an offer – Rule 2.7 of the Code	3.62
Pre-conditional firm offer and possible offer announcements	3.66
Chapter 4 The offer timetable
Introduction	4.1
Prior to any public announcements	4.3
Announcement of a firm intention to make an offer	4.5
Publishing the offer document	4.7
Publishing the defence document – Day 14	4.8
First closing date – Day 21	4.9
Target announcements of material new information – on or by Day 39	4.12
Suspension of Day 39	4.13
Withdrawal of acceptances – Day 42	4.14
Last date for revised offers – Day 46	4.17
No increase statements	4.22
No extension statements	4.29

Bidding contests on Day 46	4.30
Final date for satisfying the acceptance condition – Day 60	4.31
Satisfaction of all other conditions within 21 days of satisfying acceptance condition	4.34
Offer to remain open for 14 days after unconditional as to acceptances	4.36
Settlement of consideration – no later than 14 days after offer is wholly unconditional	4.38
Time to reach compulsory acquisition threshold	4.39
Effect of a competing offer or possible competing offer	4.40
Chapter 5 Conditions
Introduction	5.1
The acceptance condition – Rule 10 of the Code	5.2
Mechanics of acceptance, purchases and payment	5.9
The level of certainty created by a firm offer announcement	5.17
Restrictions on subjective conditions and pre-conditions – Rule 13 of the Code	5.19
Restrictions on financing conditions and pre-conditions	5.22
Acceptability of pre-conditions	5.23
Offeror to use all reasonable efforts to satisfy conditions or preconditions	5.28
No entitlement to invoke conditions or pre-conditions for immaterial events	5.29
No entitlement to invoke conditions or pre-conditions for events known prior to announcement	5.34
Entitlement of the target to invoke conditions relating to the offeror’s business	5.36
Invoking an offeror shareholder approval condition as a tactic to lapse an offer	5.38
Invoking the acceptance condition as a tactic to lapse an offer	5.41
Invoking a UK or EC anti-trust pre-condition, condition or term	5.42
The consequences of an offer lapsing other than pursuant to a UK or EC anti-trust term or condition	5.51
Chapter 6 Mandatory offers
Introduction	6.1
Triggering the mandatory bid obligation	6.7
Dispensations from the mandatory bid obligation	6.22

Terms of a mandatory offer	6.36
Responsibility for making the offer	6.44
Concert parties	6.45
Chapter 7 Restrictions on and disclosure of share dealing
Introduction	7.1
Market abuse and insider dealing regimes	7.2
Restrictions on dealings in the Takeover Code	7.79
Other considerations in relation to stakebuilding	7.93
Disclosure requirements in relation to stakebuilding	7.101
Summary	7.150
Chapter 8 Information requirements
Introduction	8.1
Responsibility and liability for information	8.2
Detailed rules of the Code as to conduct during the offer period and release of information	8.16
Offeror documents	8.38
Offeree board circulars	8.70
Use of websites and electronic communications	8.89
Material changes	8.95
Profit forecasts, quantified financial benefits statements and asset valuations	8.97
Chapter 9 Equality of treatment
Introduction	9.1
Comparable offers for all classes of equity share capital	9.3
Appropriate offers for convertible securities	9.12
Special deals with favourable conditions	9.26
Arrangements with the offeree's management	9.35
Equality of information	9.60
Chapter 10 Bid defence, deal protection and directors' duties
Introduction	10.1
Directors' duties	10.2
Background to bid defence and deal protection	10.73
Bid defence measures	10.93
Deal protection measures	10.138

Chapter 11 Types of consideration
Introduction	11.1
Cash	11.2
Loan notes	11.24
Shares	11.33
Combined consideration and alternative offers	11.41
Mix-and-match elections	11.44
Deferred or contingent consideration	11.46
Chapter 12 Takeovers by scheme of arrangement
Introduction	12.1
The scope of a scheme of arrangement	12.2
The use of schemes of arrangement for takeovers	12.21
The determination of classes for the purposes of CA 2006, Part 26	12.21
Documentation to shareholders and disclosure: company law requirements	12.45
Approval by shareholders and class meetings	12.51
Approval by the court and the court hearing	12.56
Application of the Code to takeover schemes	12.69
Contractual aspects of takeover schemes	12.76
Securities law aspects of schemes	12.80
Overview of scheme procedure and timetable	12.88
Overview of scheme documents	12.115
Penalties	12.129
Chapter 13 Alternative takeover and merger structures
Introduction	13.1
Dual holding companies structure	13.2
Reverse takeovers	13.23
Cross-border mergers	13.31
Other company law mechanisms capable of effecting takeovers and mergers	13.36
Chapter 14 Compulsory acquisition
Introduction	14.1
Squeeze-out right requirements	14.4

Procedure and mechanics of the exercise of the right of compulsory acquisition	14.14
Overseas shareholders and holders of convertibles and options	14.30
The right of non-assenting shareholders to sell out	14.39
Applications by non-assenting shareholders for court intervention	14.43
Alternative means of removing a minority	14.47
Chapter 15 Pensions
Introduction	15.1
Types of pension scheme	15.2
Due diligence in relation to the offeree's pension arrangements	15.9
Impact of pension scheme on pricing	15.10
Role of the pension scheme trustees	15.17
Trustee concerns	15.18
Trustees' leverage	15.21
Confidentiality and conflicts	15.28
Mitigation for the pension scheme	15.29
Code provisions in relation to agreements between offerors and trustees	15.31
Examples of agreements between offerors and trustees	15.32
Failing to negotiate an agreement with the trustees	15.33
Trustees and offeree	15.34
Powers of the Pensions Regulator	15.35
The Code	15.43
Post-takeover issues	15.49
Chapter 16 Employee issues
Introduction	16.1
Employment issues	16.2
Employee share schemes issues	16.18
Chapter 17 Merger control and the Code
Introduction	17.1
Merger control and timetable issues	17.4
Strategic documents and public statements	17.16
Buying shares in the market	17.17

Influencing the merger control process	17.19
Chapter 18 EU Merger Control Regime
Introduction	18.1
Jurisdiction	18.2
Exceptions to the general position on jurisdiction	18.15
The substantive test	18.24
Non-Horizontal Mergers Guidelines	18.35
Procedure	18.40
Chapter 19 UK Merger Control
Introduction	19.1
The institutions	19.5
CMA's duty to make references	19.11
Exceptions to the general regime	19.30
Interaction with the EU merger control regime	19.40
Water mergers	19.47
Procedures for obtaining clearance	19.49
Interim measures	19.74
Phase 2 inquiries	19.75
Appeals to the Competition Appeal Tribunal	19.82
Index	