

Detailed Contents

List of Contributors	xxix
List of Abbreviations	xxxii

1

Foundations of Capital Markets Legislation in Europe

§ 1	History	1
I.	Introduction	2
II.	Segré Report (1966)	2
III.	Phase 1: Coordination of Stock Exchange and Prospectus Laws (1979–1982)	3
IV.	White Paper on Completing the Internal Market (1985)	4
V.	Phase 2: Harmonisation of the Laws on Securities Markets (1988–1993)	4
VI.	Financial Services Action Plan (1999)	5
VII.	Lamfalussy Report (2000)	6
VIII.	Phase 3: Reorganisation of the Laws on Prospectuses and Securities (2003–2007)	7
IX.	Continuation of Phase 3: Harmonisation of the Right to Take Over (2004)	10
X.	White Paper on Financial Services Policy (2005)	11
XI.	The de Larosière Report (2009)	12
XII.	Phase 4: Towards a European Supervision (since 2009)	12
XIII.	Phase 5: Regulation of Credit Rating Agencies (2009–2012)	13
XIV.	Continuation of Phase 5: Revision of the Framework Directives (since 2009)	13
XV.	Continuation of Phase 5: Regulation on Short Sales (2012)	15
XVI.	Continuation of Phase 5: Regulation on OTC Derivatives (2012)	15
XVII.	Conclusion	16
§ 2	Concept and Aims of Capital Markets Regulation	17
I.	Concept	17
II.	Regulatory Aims	18
1.	Efficiency of Capital Markets	18
2.	Regulatory Approaches	19
§ 3	Legislative Powers for Regulating Capital Markets in Europe	20
I.	Legal Foundations of the European Union	20
II.	Rules on Competence	21

Contents

1.	Coordination of Provisions on the Protection of Shareholders and Creditors	21
2.	Coordination of Start-Up and Pursuit of Self-Employment	22
3.	Establishing an Internal Market	22
III.	Legislative Instruments	23
1.	Overview	23
2.	Regulation	23
3.	Directive	24
§ 4	Process and Strategies of Capital Markets Regulation in Europe	25
I.	Process of Capital Markets Regulation	27
1.	Definition	27
(a)	Market Regulation versus Market Supervision	27
(b)	Capital Markets versus Financial Markets Regulation	28
2.	European Legislation	28
(a)	Legislation in the Lamfalussy Process from 2002 to 2010	29
(aa)	Committees on Capital Markets Regulation	29
(1)	European Securities Committee	29
(2)	Committee of European Securities Regulators	29
(bb)	The Legislative Process	30
(1)	Level 1: Framework Directives	30
(2)	Level 2: Implementing Measures	30
(3)	Level 3: Guidelines and Recommendations	32
(4)	Level 4: Supervision of the Enforcement by Member States	32
(cc)	Evaluation	33
(b)	The Lamfalussy II Process	33
(aa)	The New Level 2	34
(bb)	Criticism	35
(cc)	Graph: Lamfalussy II Process	36
II.	Strategies of Capital Markets Regulation	36
1.	Minimum and Maximum Harmonisation	36
(a)	Definitions	37
(b)	Advantages and Disadvantages	38
(c)	Tendency towards Maximum Harmonisation	38
2.	Regulatory Concepts in the Member States	39
(a)	Transformation of European Law	39
(b)	Accompanying National Law	40
(c)	The Principles-based Approach to Regulation in the United Kingdom	40
(aa)	Foundations of Principles-based Regulation	40
(bb)	Effects of Principles-based Regulation on Enforcement	41
(cc)	Evaluation	41
(dd)	Outlook	42
(d)	Self-regulation	43

§ 5	Sources of Law and Principles of Interpretation	44
I.	Sources of Law	44
1.	European Law	44
(a)	Framework Directives	44
(b)	Takeover Directive	46
(c)	Regulation on Credit Rating Agencies	46
(d)	Regulation on Short Sellings	46
(e)	Regulations on the European Supervisory Authorities	47
(f)	Further Directives	47
2.	National Laws of the Member States	48
(a)	Austria	48
(b)	France	48
(c)	Germany	49
(d)	Italy	50
(e)	Spain	51
(f)	Sweden	51
(g)	United Kingdom	52
II.	Interpretation	53
1.	Importance of Interpretation	53
2.	Principles of Statutory Interpretation	54
(a)	Textual Interpretation	55
(b)	Contextual Interpretation	55
(c)	Historical Interpretation	56
(d)	Teleological Interpretation	57
§ 6	Challenges for Academic Research and Teaching	59
I.	Capital Markets Law as a Topic of Legal Research	60
1.	Intradisciplinarity	61
(a)	Legal Nature	61
(b)	Interpretation	62
(c)	Coordination with other Areas of Company and Business Law	63
(aa)	Accounting Law	64
(bb)	Company Law	64
2.	Homo oeconomicus or Behavioural Finance?	66
(a)	Basic Assumption: Rationality	66
(b)	Behavioural Anomalies	66
(aa)	Bounded Rationality	66
(bb)	Overconfidence	66
(cc)	Fairness	67
(dd)	Prospect Theory/Framing/Risk Aversity	67
(ee)	Hindsight Bias	67
(ff)	Representativeness/Availability/Saliency	68
(c)	Relevance of the Results of Behavioural Economics for Capital Markets Law	68
II.	The Relevance of Capital Markets Law for University Teaching in Europe	69
III.	Outlook	71

Basics of Capital Markets Law

§ 7	Capital Markets	73
I.	Overview	73
	1. Trading Venue	73
	2. Primary and Secondary Markets	75
	3. Stock Exchanges	76
II.	Regulated Capital Markets	77
	1. Scope of Application of the Legislative Acts on Capital Markets Law	77
	2. Definition	79
	3. Market Segments	80
§ 8	Financial Instruments	82
I.	Introduction	82
II.	Securities	83
	1. Definitions in the Directives	83
	2. Shares	83
	3. Bonds	85
	4. Derivatives	85
§ 9	Market Participants	87
I.	Introduction	87
II.	Issuers	88
III.	Investors	89
IV.	Other Persons as Norm. Addressees	91
§ 10	Access to the Markets and Market Exit	93
I.	Issuance of Shares	93
II.	Admission to Trading of Shares	94
III.	Market Exit	94
§ 11	Capital Markets Supervision in Europe	96
I.	Introduction	98
II.	European Requirements	98
	1. Institutional Organisation	98
	2. Powers	99
	(a) Minimum Powers	99
	(b) Additional General Clauses	100
	(c) Proposals for Reforms	100
III.	National Organisation of Capital Markets Supervision	100
	1. Institutional Concepts	101
	(a) Model of Integrated Supervision	101
	(b) Model of Sectoral Supervision	102
	(c) Hybrid Models	103
	(d) Distinction between Prudential Supervision and Conduct of Business Supervision	103

(e) Generally Preferable Supervisory Model?	103
2. Internal Organisation	104
3. Administrative Powers	104
(a) Administrative Fines	104
(b) Other Administrative Measures	105
(c) Criminal Powers of Supervisory Authorities	106
4. Liability of Supervisory Authorities	106
5. Use of Resources and Sanctioning Activity	107
IV. Cooperation between the National Supervisory Institutions	107
1. Cooperation within the European Union	107
2. Cooperation with Third Countries	109
V. Competition between the National Supervisory Institutions	109
VI. The European Financial Supervisory Scheme	110
1. The European Financial Markets Supervisory System	110
(a) Macro-prudential Level	111
(b) Micro-prudential Level	111
2. The European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA)	112
(a) Internal Organisation	112
(b) Independence	113
(c) Powers of Intervention towards the National Supervisory Authorities	113
(aa) Breaches of EU Law by the National Supervisory Authorities	114
(bb) Decisions on Emergency Situations and Disagreements	114
(1) Emergency Situation	115
(2) Disagreements between Competent Authorities in Cross-Border Situations	115
(3) National Fiscal Responsibilities Limit ESMA Powers	115
(d) Direct Supervision of the Market Participants	116
(aa) Warnings and Prohibition of Financial Activities	116
(bb) Supervision of Credit Rating Agencies	116
(e) Rule-Making Powers	117
(aa) Guidelines and Recommendations	117
(bb) Regulatory and Implementing Technical Standards	118
(1) Regulatory Technical Standards	119
(2) Implementing Technical Standards	120
(3) Assessment	120
(f) Judicial Review	121
(g) Liability	121
3. Conclusion	121
§ 12 Sanctions	123
I. Introduction	124
II. Requirements in the European Directives on Capital Markets Law	125
1. Criminal and Administrative Sanctions	125
2. Civil Law Sanctions	126
III. National Sanctioning Systems	127

Contents

1.	France	127
2.	Germany	128
3.	Italy	129
4.	Spain	129
5.	Sweden	130
6.	United Kingdom	131
IV.	Conclusion	132

3

Market Integrity

§ 13	Insider Dealing	133
I.	Introduction	134
II.	Regulatory Concepts	136
1.	Requirements under European Law	136
(a)	Prohibitions Laid Down by the Market Abuse Directive	136
(b)	Accompanying Rules	138
(c)	Reform	138
2.	Implementation in the Member States	139
(a)	Austria	139
(b)	France	140
(c)	Germany	140
(d)	Italy	141
(e)	Spain	142
(f)	Sweden	142
(g)	United Kingdom	143
III.	Concept of Inside Information	144
1.	Overview	144
2.	Definition of Inside Information under European Law	145
(a)	Information of a Precise Nature	145
(b)	Potential Influence on the Price of Financial Instruments	148
(c)	Reference to an Issuer of Financial Instruments	149
(d)	Special Rules for Derivatives on Commodities and Front Running	150
3.	Transposition in the Member States	151
(a)	Overview	151
(b)	Germany	151
(c)	United Kingdom	154
IV.	Prohibitions	156
1.	Overview	156
2.	Prohibition of the Acquisition or Disposal of Financial Instruments	156
(a)	European Requirements	156
(b)	Legal Practice in the Member States	157
(c)	The ECJ's Interpretation and Conclusions for the Legal Practice in the Member States	158
3.	Disclosure to another Person	159
(a)	European Requirements	159

(b) Legal Practice in the Member States	161
4. Recommending or Inducing	162
(a) European Requirements	162
(b) Legal Practice in the Member States	162
5. Exemptions	163
V. Supervision	164
1. European Requirements	164
(a) Functions and Powers of the Authorities	164
(b) Insider Lists	164
(c) Notification Obligation	165
2. Legal Practice in the Member States	166
VI. Sanctions	167
1. Penalties and Fines	167
(a) Regulatory Techniques	168
(b) Legal Frameworks for Penalties and Fines	169
(c) Reform	170
2. Naming and Shaming	171
3. Investor Protection by Civil Liability	172
VII. Conclusion	172
§ 14 Market Manipulation	174
I. Introduction	174
II. Regulatory Concepts	176
1. Requirements under European Law	176
2. Implementation in the Member States	177
III. Scope of Application	177
1. Personal Scope	177
2. Material Scope	178
IV. Prohibitions	179
1. Regulatory System	179
2. Core Definitions of Market Manipulation	179
(a) Information Based Manipulation	179
(aa) The Core Definition	179
(bb) Digression: Behavioural Finance	181
(b) Transaction-Based Manipulation	182
(aa) Core Definition and Signals	182
(bb) Exceptions	183
(1) Legitimate Reasons	184
(2) Accepted Market Practices	184
(c) Other Forms of Market Manipulation	185
3. Examples of Market Manipulation	185
(a) Dominant Market Position	185
(b) Transactions at the Close of the Market	186
(c) Abusing the Access to the Media	187
V. Safe-Harbour Rules	188
1. Introduction	188
2. Buy-Back Programmes	189

Contents

(a)	Aim of the Programme	189
(b)	Disclosure Obligations	190
(c)	Trading Conditions	190
(d)	Restrictions	190
3.	Price Stabilisation	191
(a)	Scope of Application	192
(b)	Period of Stabilisation	192
(c)	Disclosure and Organisational Obligations	193
(d)	Ancillary Stabilisation	193
VI.	Supervision	194
1.	Supervisory Mechanisms	194
2.	Investigatory Powers	194
VII.	Sanctions	195
1.	Requirements under European Law	195
2.	Transposition in the Member States	196
(a)	Criminal Sanctions	196
(b)	Administrative Sanctions	197
(c)	Investor Protection through Civil Liability	199
VIII.	Conclusion	200
§ 15	Short Selling	201
I.	Introduction	201
II.	Potential Risks and Benefits of Short Sales	202
1.	Short Sales as a Means for Market Manipulation	203
2.	Short Sales as a Means for Destabilising the Financial System	203
III.	National Regulatory Concepts	203
IV.	The EU Short Selling Regulation	204
1.	Rules on Short Sales	204
(a)	Prohibited Transactions	204
(b)	Transparency Obligations	205
2.	Rules on Credit Default Swap Agreements	205
3.	Additional Powers of the National Authorities and the ESMA	206
4.	Sanctions	207
V.	Conclusion	207

4

Disclosure System

§ 16	Foundations	209
I.	Introduction	210
II.	Transparency and Capital Market Efficiency	211
1.	Allocational Efficiency	211
2.	Institutional Efficiency	213
3.	Operational Efficiency	213
III.	Disclosure Provisions as Part of the Regulation of Capital Markets	214
1.	The Importance of Legal Disclosure Provisions from an Economic Point of View	214

2.	Disclosure Provisions as Part of Investor Protection	217
IV.	Development of a Disclosure System in European Capital Markets Law	218
§ 17	Prospectus Disclosure	220
I.	Introduction	221
II.	Regulatory Concepts	222
1.	Requirements under European Law	222
(a)	Requirements under the Prospectus Directive and Prospectus Regulation	223
(b)	Supporting Rules	225
2.	Implementation in the Member States	225
III.	Drawing up a Prospectus	226
1.	Scope of Application	226
2.	Exemptions from the Obligation to Publish a Prospectus	227
(a)	Exceptions for Certain Addressees, Offers or Securities	228
(b)	Exemptions for Certain Issuances in Cases of Public Offers	228
(c)	Exemptions for Certain Issuances for the Admission to the Regulated Market	229
(d)	Supplements	229
3.	Content, Format and Structure of a Prospectus	230
(a)	General Rules	230
(b)	Format of the Prospectus	230
(aa)	Single or Separate Documents and Base Prospectus	230
(bb)	Summary	231
(cc)	Incorporation by Reference	233
(c)	Distinction between Different Security Constructions	233
(d)	Language of the Prospectus	234
(e)	Annual Document	234
IV.	Sanctions	235
1.	Requirements under European Law	235
2.	Supervisory Measures	236
(a)	Suspension or Prohibition of an Offer	236
(b)	Fines	236
3.	Sanctions under Criminal Law	237
4.	Sanctions under Civil Law	237
(a)	Deficiencies of the Prospectus	237
(b)	Claimant and Opposing Party	239
(c)	Causation	240
(d)	Responsibility	241
(e)	Legal Consequences	242
V.	Conclusion	243
§ 18	Periodic Disclosure	244
I.	Introduction	245
1.	Development of a System of Periodic Disclosure	245
2.	Financial Accounting Information as the Basis of Financial Reporting	247

Contents

II.	Regulatory Concepts	248
1.	Requirements under European Law	248
(a)	Transparency Directive	248
(b)	Correlation with European Accounting Law as a Reflection of the Dualistic Regulatory Concept	249
(c)	Addressee of the Disclosure Obligation	250
2.	Implementation in the Member States	250
(a)	France	250
(b)	Germany	251
(c)	Italy	251
(d)	Spain	251
(e)	Sweden	252
(f)	United Kingdom	252
III.	Annual Financial Report	252
1.	Overview	252
2.	Financial Accounting Information	254
(a)	Consolidated and Individual Accounts	254
(b)	Management Report	256
IV.	Half-yearly Financial Reports	256
1.	Overview	256
2.	Financial Accounting Information	257
(a)	Consolidated and Individual Accounts	257
(b)	Interim Management Report	258
(c)	Auditing of the Half-yearly Financial Report	258
V.	Quarterly Financial Report and Interim Management Statement	259
1.	Overview	259
2.	Content of Interim Management Statements	260
3.	Quarterly Financial Report	261
VI.	Disclosure Procedures	262
VII.	Sanctions	264
1.	Liability for Incorrect Financial Reporting	264
(a)	Specific Liability for Incorrect Financial Reporting	264
(b)	Liability under the General Civil Law Rules	265
2.	Sanctions under Criminal and Administrative Law	267
VIII.	Conclusion	268
§ 19	Disclosure of Inside Information	270
I.	Introduction	272
1.	Dual Function of Ad Hoc Disclosure Obligations	272
2.	Practical Relevance	273
II.	Regulatory Concepts	274
1.	Requirements under European Law	274
2.	Implementation in the Member States	276
(a)	Germany	276
(b)	Austria	277
(c)	Sweden	277
(d)	France and Spain	278

(e) Italy	278
(f) United Kingdom	278
III. Obligation to Disclose Inside Information	279
1. Addressees	279
(a) Issuers of Financial Instruments	279
(b) Persons Acting on Behalf or on Account of the Issuer	279
(c) Companies Controlled by the Issuer	280
2. Relevant Information	280
(a) Foundations	280
(b) Information Directly Concerning the Issuer	282
(c) Future Circumstances	283
(d) Corporate Group Constellations	284
(e) Relationship to Other Disclosure Rules	285
3. No Offsetting of Information	287
4. Prohibition to Disclose Other Information	287
5. Publication Procedure	288
IV. Delay in Disclosure	288
1. Foundations	288
2. Legitimate Interests	290
(a) Requirements under European Law	290
(b) Legal Practice in the Member States	291
(aa) Attempts at a Dogmatic Approach	291
(bb) Further Constellations	293
(cc) Multi-Stage Decision-Making Processes	294
3. No Misleading the Public	295
4. Ensuring Confidentiality	296
5. Conscious Decision by the Issuer?	297
V. Sanctions	299
1. Importance of National Legal Traditions	299
2. Civil Liability	299
(a) Germany	299
(b) Other Member States	303
3. Administrative Sanctions	305
(a) Fines	305
(aa) Germany	305
(bb) France	306
(b) Naming and Shaming	307
(c) Further Administrative Sanctions	307
4. Criminal Law	308
VI. Supervision	308
VII. Conclusion	309
§ 20 Transparency of Major Shareholdings and Financial Instruments	310
I. Introduction	312
II. European Concepts of Regulation	314
1. Requirements under European Law	314
(a) Foundations	314

	(b) Scope of Application and Regulatory Powers	315
	(c) Disclosure Obligations	315
	(d) Further Disclosure Requirements	316
	(e) Reform	316
	2. Implementation in the Member States	317
III.	Notification Obligations on Changes in Voting Rights	318
	1. Prerequisites	318
	(a) Procedures Subject to Notification	318
	(b) Thresholds	319
	(c) Exemptions from the Notification Obligation	320
	2. Legal Consequences	321
	(a) Notification	321
	(b) Publication	321
	3. Attribution of Voting Rights	322
	(a) Regulatory Concepts	322
	(b) Cases of an Attribution of Voting Rights	323
	(aa) “Acting in Concert“	323
	(1) Legal Practice in France	324
	(2) Legal Practice in Germany	325
	(3) Legal Practice in Italy	327
	(4) Legal Practice in Spain	328
	(bb) Temporary Transfer of Voting Rights	328
	(cc) Notification Obligations of the Secured Party	329
	(dd) Life Interest	329
	(ee) Voting Rights Held or Exercised by a Controlled Undertaking	329
	(ff) Deposited Shares	331
	(gg) Shares Held on Behalf of Another Person	331
	(hh) Voting Rights Exercised by Proxy	333
	(c) Exceptions	333
	4. Supervision	333
	5. Sanctions	334
	(a) Administrative Fines	335
	(b) Loss of Rights	335
	(c) Investor Protection by Means of Civil Liability	336
IV.	Notification Requirements when Holding Financial Instruments	337
	1. Prerequisites	337
	2. Legal Consequences	338
	3. Sanctions	338
	4. Reform	339
	(a) United Kingdom	339
	(b) Germany	339
	(c) France	342
	(d) Europe	343
V.	Notification of Intent	344
	1. France	344
	2. Germany	345

3. Reforms at European level	346
VI. Conclusion	346
§ 21 Directors' Dealings	348
I. Introduction	348
II. Regulatory Concepts	350
1. Requirements under European Law	350
(a) Legal Foundation	350
(b) Additional Disclosure Rules	351
2. Implementation in the Member States	351
III. Notification Requirements	352
1. Prerequisites	352
(a) Persons Subject to the Notification Obligation	352
(b) Transactions Subject to the Notification Requirements	353
2. Legal Consequences	353
(a) European Requirements on Notification and Publication	353
(b) Legal Practice in the Member States	354
IV. Supervision and Sanctions	355
1. Requirements Laid Down by the Market Abuse Directive	355
2. Fines and Criminal Sanctions	355
3. Forfeiture of Profits	356
4. Civil Liability	357
V. Conclusion	357
§ 22 Access to Information	358
I. Requirements under European Law	358
II. Implementation in the Member States	359
1. Germany	359
2. United Kingdom	359
III. Reform	360
§ 23 Disclosure of Information Necessary for Shareholders to Exercise their Rights	361
I. Introduction	361
II. Regulatory Concepts	361
III. Disclosure of Changes in the Rights Attached to Shares	362
IV. Disclosure of Information Necessary for Exercising Rights	363
1. Information Necessary for Shareholders	363
2. Information Necessary for the Holders of Debt Securities	363
V. Conclusion	364
§ 24 Disclosure Obligations in Takeover Law	365
I. Introduction	366
II. Transparency Regarding Defensive Structures and Mechanisms	367
1. Regulatory Aims	367
2. Transparency Requirements	367
(a) Structure of the Capital	368
(b) Restrictions Regarding the Transfer of Shares	368

Contents

	(c) Significant Shareholdings	368
	(d) Holders of Special Rights	369
	(e) System of Control for Employee Share Schemes	370
	(f) Restrictions on Voting Rights	370
	(g) Agreements between Shareholders	370
	(h) Provisions on the Appointment and Replacement of Board Members	371
	(i) Powers of Board Members to Issue and Buy Back Shares	371
	(j) Change of Control Clauses	372
	(k) Compensation Agreements	372
III.	Obligation to Disclose Bids	372
	1. Types of Bids	372
	2. Decision to Launch a Bid	373
	3. Offer Document	374
IV.	Mandatory Bid	375
	1. Legal Foundations and Aims	375
	2. Control	376
	3. Gaining Control by Acting in Concert	377
	(a) Legal Foundations	377
	(b) Legal Practice in the Member States	378
	(aa) Sacyr/Eiffage (France)	378
	(bb) WMF (Germany)	379
V.	Conclusion	381

5

Intermediaries

§ 25	Investment Firms	383
	I. Introduction	383
	II. Investment Advisory Services	384
	1. Definition	384
	2. Obligations of Investment Firms	385
	(a) Exploration and Assessment of the Suitability of an Investment	385
	(b) Information Obligations	386
	3. Supervision	386
	4. Sanctions	386
	III. Conclusion	387
§ 26	Financial Analysts	389
	I. Introduction	389
	II. Types of Financial Analysts	391
	III. Regulatory Concepts	392
	1. Requirements under European Law	392
	2. Implementation in the Member States	393
	IV. Specific Regulation of Financial Analysts	393
	1. Definition of Research Concerning Financial Instruments	393
	(a) Recommending an Investment Strategy	394

(b) Relevant Person	395
2. Fair Presentation of Investment Recommendations	396
(a) General Requirements	396
(b) Special Requirements for Certain Persons	397
3. Disclosure Obligations	397
(a) Identity of the Producer of Investment Recommendations	398
(b) Actual and Potential Conflicts of Interest	398
(aa) General Provisions	398
(bb) Special Requirements for Certain Persons	398
(1) Obligation to Disclose Certain Conflicts of Interest	398
(2) Further Disclosure Obligations	400
4. Dissemination of Investment Recommendations Produced by Third Parties	401
(a) General Requirements	401
(b) Additional Obligations for Certain Persons	402
5. Principle of Proportionality	402
6. Sanctions	404
(a) Requirements under European Law	404
(b) Germany	404
(c) United Kingdom	405
V. Relevance of the General Rules of Conduct for Financial Analysts	405
1. Market Manipulation	405
(a) Information-Based Manipulation	405
(b) Fictitious Devices or Any Other Form of Deception or Contrivance	406
(c) Scalping	407
(d) Effects of Implementing Directive 2003/125/EC on the Definition of Market Manipulation	408
2. Prohibition of Insider Dealings	408
3. Organisational Requirements	409
(a) General Organisational Requirements	409
(b) Special Organisational Requirements	411
VI. Conclusion	412
§ 27 Rating Agencies	413
I. Introduction	413
1. Aims of Rating	414
2. Effects of a Rating	415
3. Market Structure and Development of Regulation in Europe	415
II. Regulatory Concepts	416
III. Scope of Application	417
1. Subject Matter of Regulation	417
2. Scope	418
3. Definitions	418
IV. Regulatory Approach and Obligations	419
1. Avoidance of Conflicts of Interest	419
(a) Independence of Credit Rating Agencies	419

Contents

(b) Persons Involved in the Rating Procedure	421
2. Improvement of the Quality of Ratings	422
3. Transparency Obligations	423
(a) Disclosure and Presentation of Credit Ratings	423
(b) Transparency Report	424
4. Registration	424
5. The Commission Proposals of November 2011	425
V. Supervision	426
1. Foundations	426
2. Procedure	427
VI. Measures and Sanctions	427
1. Administrative Instruments	427
2. Criminal Measures	428
3. Civil Law Liability	428
(a) Legal Situation in the Member States	429
(b) Proposal for a European Civil Liability	430
VII. Conclusion	430

6

Compliance in Investment Firms

§ 28 Foundations	431
I. Compliance	432
II. Relationship between Compliance and Risk Management	432
III. Developments and Legal Foundations	433
§ 29 Organisational Requirements	436
I. Regulatory Concepts in European Law	437
1. Overview	437
2. Principles-based Approach to Regulation	438
3. Regulatory Aim	442
II. Implementation in the Member States	443
1. France	443
2. Germany	443
3. Italy	444
4. Spain	444
5. Sweden	445
6. United Kingdom	445
III. Regulatory Objectives and Scope of Compliance Obligations	446
1. Mitigation of Compliance Risk	446
2. Scope of the Compliance Obligation	448
IV. Elements of a Compliance Organisation	449
1. Compliance Function	449
(a) Requirements	450
(aa) Independence	450
(1) Operational and Financial Independence	450
(2) Organisational Independence	451

(bb) Permanence and Effectiveness	453
(b) Responsibilities	453
(aa) Monitoring and Assessment	454
(bb) Advice and Assistance	454
2. Compliance Officer	455
(a) Appointment	455
(aa) Registration and Qualification Requirements	455
(bb) Appointment of Members of Senior Management as Compliance Officers	457
(b) Legal Status	457
(aa) Independence towards Senior Management	457
(bb) Disciplinary Independence and Protection against Dismissal	459
(c) Responsibilities and Powers	459
(aa) Informational Rights and the Right to Issue Instructions	459
(bb) Compliance Reporting	461
(1) Internal Reporting	461
(2) External Reports	462
3. Chinese Walls	462
(a) Legal Foundations	463
(b) Elements	464
(aa) Segregation of Confidential Areas	465
(bb) Watch Lists and Restricted Lists	466
(c) Legal Effects	467
V. Sanctions	468
1. Sanctions against Investment Firms	469
2. Sanctions against the Senior Management and the Compliance Officer	470
VI. Conclusion	471

Conclusion

§ 30 A Review of the Past and Suggestions for the Future	473
I. Topics for Final Consideration	473
II. Capital Markets Law(s) in Europe or European Capital Markets Law?	474
1. Degree of Existing Provisions	474
2. Consistent Application of Law	475
3. Supervision and Sanctions	476
4. Conclusions	477
III. Prospects and Challenges	478
1. Reorganisation of the European Sources of Capital Markets Law	478
2. Regulatory Concepts Regarding Enforcement and Sanctions	480
3. Legislation 2015: Stronger Influence of Legal Knowledge	481

Contents

Bibliography	483
Subject Index	487
Index of National Laws	499
Index of National Laws by Country	505
Index of Supervisory and Court Rulings	511

<http://www.pbookshop.com>