

Contents

Author Biographies	vii
Introduction: The British Constitution – Continuity and Change Matt Qvortrup	1
1 The Changing Constitution in Context David Butler	7
2 Constitutional Reform Since 1997: The Historians’ Perspective Mike Finn and Anthony Seldon	17
3 The Constitution and the Public – How Voters Forgot the Constitution Peter Riddell	39
4 ‘Let Me Take You to a Foreign Land’: The Political and the Legal Constitution Matt Qvortrup	55
5 The Politics-Free Dimension to the UK Constitution Dawn Oliver	69
6 Constitutional Conventions David Feldman	93
7 Continuity and Change in Constitutional Conventions Joseph Jaconelli	121
8 ‘The Three Hundred and Seven Year Itch’: Scotland and the 2014 Independence Referendum Stephen Tierney	141
9 Constitutional Change and Parliamentary Sovereignty – the Impossible Dialectic Richard Gordon QC	153
10 Queen Elizabeth II and the Evolution of the Monarchy Robert Blackburn	165
11 Constitutional Justice and Constitutional Politics in France Denis Baranger	179
Epilogue	193
Index	195