

List of Contributors

E. Susan Singleton
Singletons
Solicitors

Tel: 020 8866 1934
Fax: 020 8866 6912

www.singlelaw.com
Email: susan@singlelaw.com
Twitter: @singlelaw

About Singletons, Solicitors

London commercial law solicitor's firm Singletons provides advice to clients from all over the UK and abroad, from large plcs to small start up businesses, in the area covered by this book as well as the following:

- joint venture and partnership agreements
- commercial litigation/disputes
- competition law – advisory and guidance, litigation, OFT, EU
- intellectual property
- IT/e-commerce law
- commercial agency regulations and claims
- agency and distribution agreements
- buying and selling businesses

Contents

Preface to the fourth edition	vii
Preface to the third edition	viii
Preface to the second edition	ix
Preface to the first edition	xi
About the author	xiii
Contents	xv
Table of statutes	xxvii
Table of statutory instruments	xxxii
Table of cases	xxxiii
Table of European material	xxxix
List of abbreviations	xliii

Part A Preliminary considerations

I Introduction	3
What is a joint venture?	3
Reasons and motivations for establishing a joint venture	4
Alternative forms of joint venture	6
Introduction	6
Agency agreement	6
Distribution agreement	7
Intellectual property licence	8
Franchise	8
Collaboration agreement	9
Consortium agreement	10
Strategic alliance	10
Partnership	11
Limited partnership	12
Limited liability partnerships	13
Limited company	13
European Economic Interest Groupings, Community Interest Companies and companies limited by guarantee	16
Unincorporated associations and sole traders	17
Overseas entities	18
'Dual headed' structure	20
The importance of adequate documentation	20
Clarity of obligations	20
Aspirations and objectives	22
Minority protection	22
Deadlock	23
Termination and exit routes	23
Ensuring the structure works	25

2 Matching the aims and expectations of the parties	27
Introduction	27
Long-term and short-term investors	28
Achieving early exits	29
Different classes of shares	31
Dealing with other expectations and requirements	31
Case studies showing the matching of aims and expectations	32
3 The contributions of the parties to the joint venture	37
General	37
Physical assets and undertakings	38
Intellectual property	40
Supply of goods and management and other services	41
Termination and exit provisions	44
4 Employment and pensions issues in UK based joint ventures	47
Transfer of employees	47
Transfer without a undertaking	47
Transfer with an undertaking	50
Restrictive covenants	54
Transfer of subsidiary companies	55
Secondment of employees	55
Pension issues	58
Type of schemes	59
Registered pension schemes	61
Potential liability for underfunded defined benefits	64
Contribution notice where avoidance of section 75 debt	67
Financial support direction	71
Applying for clearance	73
Notification	75
Transfer of pensionable employees	75
Joint venture vehicle participating in existing scheme	79
Consultations	81
Varying pension benefits	81
Transfer of past service benefits	83
Taking over an existing pension scheme	85
Establishing a new scheme without transfers of existing employees	85
Employer-financed retirement benefit schemes	85
Specialist advice	87
5 Share incentive schemes in UK joint venture companies	89
Introduction	89
Owner-employees	90
Share incentive schemes	90
General tax position	91
Types of scheme	92
Approved company share option schemes	92
Approved savings related share option schemes	94
Share incentive plans	96

Enterprise Management Incentive Schemes	98
Unapproved share option schemes	99
Long-term incentive plans (LTIPs)	100
Phantom share options and awards	101
Corporation tax relief for employee share acquisitions	102
Establishing an new scheme for a joint venture vehicle	104
Realisation mechanisms	104
Valuations	105
Consents and regulatory issues	105
Joint venture employees participating in a scheme established by one of the joint venture participants under which the joint venture participant's shares are issued	108
Joint venture employees participating in a new scheme using shares in one or more of the joint venture participants	110
The effect on employees transferring to the joint venture who are members of existing schemes	111
6 Financing a corporate joint venture in the UK	113
Introduction	113
Loan finance or share capital?	113
Loan finance from the parties	115
Structuring	115
Other general considerations	118
Tax considerations	119
Outside finance	122
Equity finance	122
Security and guarantees	123
Contribution and subrogation	124
7 Tax considerations for UK joint ventures	125
Introduction	125
UK corporate joint ventures	125
Transfer of assets into the venture	126
Assets subject to corporation tax on chargeable gains	126
Transfer of stock in trade	129
Assets upon which capital allowances have been claimed	129
Trading losses	129
Value added tax	131
Stamp duty and stamp duty land tax	131
Operational tax issues	132
Corporate partnerships	140
Contributions of assets	140
Profits	141
Capital gains and losses	141
Termination	142
Contractual joint ventures	142
Tax issues dealt with elsewhere	142

8 Accounting considerations for UK corporate joint venturers	145
Introduction	145
Subsidiary undertakings	147
Accounting for joint ventures which do not have to be consolidated	151
Associates	152
FRS 9 joint ventures	153
FRS 9 joint ventures contrasted with subsidiary undertakings, associated undertakings and simple investments	154
Joint arrangements which are not entities ('JANes')	155
Accounting treatments compared	157
Consolidation	157
Equity accounting	157
Equity accounting – gross equity method	158
Consolidation and equity accounting compared	159
Accounting for the interest as an investment	159
International Financial Reporting Standards	160
Introduction	160
Consolidation of subsidiaries	160
Associates	162
Accounting for associates	162
Jointly controlled entities	163
Changes to joint venture accounting	164
Accounting for jointly controlled entities	164
Jointly controlled operations and jointly controlled assets	165
9 Application of EC competition law to joint ventures	167
Introduction	167
The circumstances in which EC competition law is relevant	168
Joint ventures within the EC Merger Regulation	170
Is the venture concentrative?	170
Joint control	171
Full-function	172
Are the relevant thresholds exceeded?	173
Undertakings concerned	174
Calculation of turnover	175
Notification, implementation and penalties	176
Consideration by the Commission	178
Ancillary restraints	181
Non-compete covenants	181
Licensing of intellectual property rights	181
Supply and purchase agreements	182
Application of national merger and competition laws	182
Joint ventures within EC Treaty, art 101	184
When does art 101 apply?	184
Notice on the application of art 101(3)	186
Notice on agreements of minor importance	186
Guidelines on horizontal co-operation agreements	187
Research and development agreements	190
Production/specialisation agreements	191

Joint purchasing	191
Commercialisation agreements	192
Standardisation agreements	192
Environmental agreements	193
Other potentially relevant guidelines and block exemptions	193
Additional restrictions	194
Article 102	194
10 UK competition law applying to joint ventures	197
Introduction	197
Relationship between UK and EC law	197
Merger control	198
When is a joint venture a relevant merger situation?	198
When do enterprises cease to be distinct?	199
How are market shares to be calculated?	200
What is the UK turnover of the enterprise taken over?	200
Notification procedure	201
References to the Competition Commission/Competition and Markets Authority	203
Public interest intervention process	205
Special sectors	206
Examination of joint ventures under CA 1998	206
Exclusion of mergers	208
Other exclusions and exemptions	209
Regulated sectors	209
Appeals	209
Other provisions	210
Typical restraint clauses	210
11 Other regulatory matters in the UK	213
Regulated businesses	213
Financial services (including investments, banking, mortgage business and insurance)	214
Telecommunications and broadcasting	215
Railways	217
Water	218
Electricity and gas	218
Newspapers	219
Consumer credit and consumer hire	220
Non-UK ventures	221
Requirements for UK listed companies	222
Takeover code implications	225
Financial promotions	225
Collective investment schemes	227
12 UK limited liability partnerships	229
Introduction	229
Advantages and disadvantages of LLPs compared with limited companies	230

Contents

Fiscal transparency	230
Greater flexibility of operation	232
Reduced capital maintenance requirements	232
Members of an LLP are not employees	233
Advantages of LLPs over partnerships	234
Collective investment schemes	234
Statutory regime governing LLPs	234
Conclusion	235

Part B Key issues in structuring and drafting UK corporate joint venture documentation and shareholders' agreements

13 Deadlock companies in English company law	239
Structuring a deadlock company	239
Avoiding and resolving deadlocks	242
Avoiding deadlock	242
Resolving deadlock	243
Termination on unresolved deadlock	245
14 Minority protection under English company law	247
Why minority protection is needed	247
Control by majority	247
Minority protection given by law	248
Types of express minority protection	253
Positive rights	253
Negative rights	258
Should the minority protection rights be conferred by a shareholders' agreement or the articles of association?	258
The enforcement of shareholders' agreements	259
The enforcement of the articles of association	263
Dealing with enforcement by and against transferees and new shareholders	265
Possible disadvantages of class rights	267
Suggested solutions	268
Self-help remedies	269
15 Typical minority vetoes	271
Introduction	271
Individual or majority vetoes?	271
Over-regulation?	272
Deemed consent	272
Extension of vetoes to subsidiaries	272
Vetoes applicable to a minimum shareholding	273
Fundamental vetoes	274
Change in the nature of the business	274
Changes in share capital	274
Liquidation	275
Sale of the business or material assets	275
Acquisitions	276

Making of loans and the giving of guarantees	276
Transactions with connected parties etc	276
Management contracts	277
Transfer of shares	277
Operational vetoes	277
Borrowings	277
Capital expenditure	278
Dividends	278
Exclusive agency and distribution agreements	278
Licences of intellectual property	278
Service agreements etc	279
Consultancy, management and like agreements	279
Leasing transactions	279
Auditors and accounts	280
Litigation	280
Business plan	280
General conclusions	281
16 Directors of UK companies	283
The structuring of board representation	283
Methods of securing board representation	283
Alternate directors and quorums	284
The position of an appointed director	285
The duties of a director to his company	286
Directors voting on transactions in which they are interested	288
Compulsion on director to vote in a particular way	289
Duties of confidentiality	289
Dual directorships	289
Resolving conflicts in practice	290
Shadow directors	294
17 Termination and its consequences	297
Introduction	297
Typical termination events and resulting exit provisions	299
Expiry	299
Notice to terminate	299
Deadlock	300
Persistent use of vetoes	301
Breach	301
Change of control	303
Liquidation, bankruptcy or insolvency of a party	304
Liquidation of the company	305
Continuance of minority protection after termination	306
Realisation mechanisms on termination	306
Termination put and call options	306
'Russian roulette'	307
'Texas shoot out' – or 'Dutch auction'	308
'Multi-choice realisation procedure'	311
Completion of the sale	312

Other termination consequences	313
Repayment of loans	313
Release of guarantees	313
Ancillary agreements	315
Names	316
VAT	316
Regulatory matters	316
Conclusion	316
Provisions surviving termination	317
18 Pre-termination put and call options	319
Introduction	319
Structuring an option	320
Avoiding conflict with other provisions	320
Time of exercise	321
The shares the subject of the option	321
Adjustment of the consideration for the option shares	322
Perpetuities	322
Multi-party options	323
Restrictions on disposal	323
Voting rights and dividends	323
Completion	324
Warranties	324
Consideration for grant	325
Tax position	325
Dangers of put options	326
19 Pre-emption rights on share transfers	329
Introduction	329
Key points in drafting pre-emption rights	330
Beneficial interests in shares and changes in control	330
Price determination	331
Allocation of the shares	331
Completion	332
Ability to transfer to an outsider	333
Waiver of pre-emption article	334
Permitted transfers	334
Compulsory transfers	334
Last right of refusal	335
20 Purchase and redemption of shares by a UK company	337
Purchase of shares	337
General	337
Procedure	338
Tax consequences	339
Redemption of shares	342
Introduction	342
The law regarding redeemable shares	343
General points	344

21 Sale or initial public offering of the company	347
Sale of the entire issued share capital to a third party	347
Introduction	347
Sale following termination	348
Offer from a third party – ‘tag along and drag along’	350
General	350
Provisions in shareholders’ agreements	351
Provisions in articles	352
Legality of ‘drag along’ provisions in articles	354
Legality of expropriation provisions	354
Conclusion and practical solutions	355
Why not rely on CA 2006, s 979 instead of ‘drag along’ provisions?	356
Sale or IPO	357
Impossibility of legal commitment	357
IPO	357
Institutional protection	359
Precedent	361
22 Share valuation provisions	365
Introduction	365
Valuing shares	366
Earnings	367
Cashflow	370
Dividend yield	371
Net assets	372
Cost-based methods	372
Turnover	373
Fair value	373
Market value on pro rata basis	376
The drafting of valuation clauses	376
23 Dispute resolution	381
Introduction	381
Considerations	382
Options	384
Mediation	384
Early neutral evaluation	384
Expert determination	385
Arbitration	385
Litigation	385
Making choices	385
Jurisdictions	386
Enforceability	387
Expertise	388
Accessibility and efficiency	388
Publicity	389
Contractual provisions and service providers	389
Arbitration	390

Expert determination	391
Alternative dispute resolution	392
Combinations	392
Part C Joint ventures and shareholders' agreements in practice
24 Establishing and documenting a UK corporate joint venture	399
The implementation process	399
Flowchart 8 – steps in implementing a UK corporate joint venture	399
Heads of terms	401
Shareholders' agreement	403
Articles of association	407
Should the articles refer to the shareholders' agreement?	408
Other documents	409
25 Due diligence, warranties and indemnities	413
Introduction	413
Due diligence	413
Warranties	414
Indemnities	418
Remedies other than damages or indemnity payments	419
26 Considerations relating to joint ventures and shareholders' agreements involving UK tax resident individuals	421
Tax considerations	421
The taxation of dividends and other distributions received by individuals	421
The taxation of other income received by individuals	422
Special provisions relating to close companies	423
Extended meaning of distribution	424
Loans to participators	425
Relief on interest paid on loans incurred by individual joint venturers	426
Company or partnership? Dividends or remuneration?	426
Employment income tax charges on the acquisition of shares	430
Enterprise Investment Scheme (EIS)	433
Venture capital trusts (VCTs)	434
Seed Enterprise Investment Scheme (SEIS)	435
Pension contributions, options, etc	439
Tax considerations on realisation of shareholdings	440
Inheritance tax	442
Transfers to family members and trusts and CGT entrepreneurs' relief	442
Dealing with resignation, retirement and death	443
Retirement or resignation of working shareholders	443
Death	443

27 Special considerations for private equity funds, venture capitalists and other equity providers	447
Introduction	447
General structure and exit routes	448
Types of transaction	448
Minority protection and exit machinery	450
Choice of exit	451
Maximising the return before exit	451
Preservation of capital	452
Retaining and motivating management	453
Introduction	453
Service agreements	453
Ratchets	454
Good leavers and bad leavers	456
Conclusion	457
28 International joint ventures	459
Introduction	459
Overseas joint ventures	460
The choice of the business location	460
Choice of vehicle	461
Choice of law	464
Other tax planning issues affecting structure or operation	465
The UK's rules for taxing overseas profits	466
Transfer pricing	468
UK corporate joint ventures with non-resident participants	468
Double tax treaties	468
Taxation of dividends and other distributions	469
Loan interest	469
Thin capitalisation and excessive loan interest	470
Royalties	471
Payments for goods and services supplied	472
Consortium relief	473
Table 8 – Forms of business organisation available in selected jurisdictions	474
Canada – Professor Bruce Welling	474
China – Hui Zheng and Hua Wei	478
The Netherlands – Katinka Middelkoop and Julie van den Bergh (Corporate); Jochem Kin and Ludo Luijks (Tax)	483
Spain – Carlos Paredes and Borja Marqués	494
Part D Case studies and precedents
Case study 1 – Caspian Pipeline Consortium ('CPC')	503
Case study 2 – UK property joint venture	508
Case study 3 – International joint venture	512
Precedent 1 – Checklist of issues for consideration when establishing a UK incorporated joint venture company	516
Precedent 2 – Heads of agreement	534
Precedent 3 – Shareholders' agreement	541

Contents

Precedent 4 – Articles of Association 574
 Precedent 5 – International joint venture agreement 594
 Precedent 6 – Support agreement 634
 Precedent 7 – Limited liability partnership deed 644
 Index 675

Table of statutes

Arbitration Act 1996 23.25, 23.45
 Bankruptcy (Scotland)
 Act 1985 4.74
 Broadcasting Act 1990 11.10, 11.11,
 11.12, 11.13
 Broadcasting Act 1996 11.10, 11.11,
 11.12, 11.13
 Capital Gains Tax Act 1979
 s 31(1) 20.10
 Charities Act 2011 1.45
 Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments
 Act 1982
 s 25 23.21
 Communications Act 2003 11.7,
 11.8, 11.10, 11.23
 Companies Act 1985 3.9; 8.10, 8.14,
 8.20; 11.46; 13.3; 14.3, 14.54,
 14.65; 20.3, 20.5, 20.24
 s 7(5) 24.18
 14(1) 14.64
 35(3) 16.27
 89 5.71; 14.3
 90–95 5.71
 111A 14.61
 151 5.71; 14.58; 24.10; 25.10
 152(1)(a)(iv) 14.58
 162 20.5
 173(3) 20.3
 227 8.13
 228, 248 8.58
 258 8.9
 259 8.12
 260(1) 8.30
 380(4)(d) 24.19
 425 20.31
 459 14.11, 14.19, 14.25, 14.27
 743 5.71
 Sch 4A 8.21, 8.25
 para 20 8.27
 Companies Act 1989 8.8, 8.25
 Companies Act 2006 ... 3.9; 8.10, 8.13,
 8.14, 8.20, 8.32; 11.46; 13.3,
 13.8; 14.14, 14.17, 14.18,
 14.68; 16.13, 16.15, 16.19,
 16.39; 20.3, 20.4, 20.5, 20.21;
 25.10
 s 22 14.73
 29(1)(c), (d) 24.20
 Companies Act 2006 – contd
 s 33(1) 14.64, 14.65, 14.75
 168 16.4
 172 16.13
 175 13.9; 16.11
 (1) 13.9
 182 16.18
 190 20.6
 197 26.16
 232 16.31
 239 16.28
 251 16.38
 Pt 11 (ss 260–269) 14.12, 14.13
 s 260 16.10
 307(4)–(6) 21.21
 399 8.13, 8.58
 560 5.71, 5.72
 561 5.71, 5.72; 14.3
 562–577 5.71, 5.72
 655 14.61
 677(1)(b)(i) 25.10
 (d) 25.10
 678, 679 5.71, 5.72
 684–689 20.24
 690 20.5
 714(3) 20.3
 721 20.3
 756 11.45
 979 21.28, 21.33
 994 14.11, 14.12, 14.19, 14.27
 (1A) 14.24
 1161 8.12
 1162 5.72; 8.9
 1166 5.71
 Sch 7
 para 5–11 8.30
 Competition Act 1998 10.1, 10.3,
 10.34, 10.35, 10.39, 10.40,
 10.45, 10.46, 10.47, 10.55
 s 60 10.35
 Sch 1
 Pt II (paras 1–5) 10.39
 Consumer Credit Act 1974 11.26
 Consumer Credit Act 2006 11.26
 Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 14.78; 24.10,
 24.12