

Contents

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Preface   | vii |
| Acknowledgements                                    | ix  |
| 1. Justice, Law and History                         | 1   |
| Morality   | 4   |
| History  | 7   |
| Law  | 11  |
| Situating Jurisprudence                                    | 16  |
| PART ONE: FOUNDATIONS                                      |     |
| 2. Origins of the Western Jurisprudential Tradition | 21  |
| A Basic Division   | 21  |
| Aristotelian Political Thought                             | 28  |
| The Abandonment of Aristotle                               | 32  |
| Suggested Reading  | 35  |
| 3. The Emergence of ‘Modern’ Political Thought      | 37  |
| Hobbes’s View of the Human Condition                       | 38  |
| Law and Society  | 43  |
| The Political Context of Leviathan                  | 45  |
| A Divided Inheritance                                      | 51  |
| Suggested Reading  | 54  |
| 4. Images of Law from Grotius to Kant               | 56  |
| The Development of Legal Science from Grotius to Kant      | 59  |
| A New Framework  | 64  |
| Suggested Reading  | 75  |
| PART TWO: DEBATES  |     |
| 5. Positive Law, Positive Justice: Hart             | 79  |
| The Basic Dimensions of Hart’s Positivism                  | 84  |
| The Nature of Law  | 90  |
| Law and Morality   | 96  |
| Suggested Reading  | 108 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 6. Justice in the ‘Real World’: Dworkin                         | 110 |
| The Philosopher-Judge  | 112 |
| Could the Law be an Expression of Something Other than‘Integrity’? | 121 |
| Objectivity, Truth and Scepticism                                      | 131 |
| Philosopher-Kings and Philosopher-Judges                               | 133 |
| Suggested Reading  | 134 |
| 7. Justice and the Liberal State: Rawls                         | 135 |
| Rational Reflection and Questions of Method                            | 138 |
| The Problem of Justice   | 142 |
| The First Principle of Justice   | 148 |
| The Second Principle   | 152 |
| The Basic Structure in Context   | 157 |
| Suggested Reading  | 159 |
| 8. Justice and the Common Good: Finnis                          | 161 |
| Introducing the Political Philosophy                                   | 162 |
| The Basic Goods  | 165 |
| The Status of Practical Reasonableness                                 | 170 |
| Order, Community and Justice   | 172 |
| Justice and Rights   | 185 |
| The Overall Direction of Finnis’s Account                              | 191 |
| Suggested Reading  | 193 |
| 9. Justice and Legality: Fuller                                 | 194 |
| Legality and Justice   | 195 |
| Justice and the Institutional Reality of Law                           | 205 |
| Economics – The Theory of Good Order                                   | 209 |
| The Direction of Fuller’s Thought                                      | 215 |
| Suggested Reading  | 218 |
| 10. Justice and Legal Order: Further Reflections                | 220 |
| Natural Right and Natural Law  | 220 |
| The Origin of the Law’s Authority                                      | 227 |
| Legal Order and Positive Law   | 234 |
| Summing Up   | 239 |
| Suggested Reading  | 240 |
| 11. Conclusions?  | 241 |
| Index   | 247 |