

Table of Contents

Foreword by Kent McNeil	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Table of Cases	xix
Table of Legislation	xxxiii
Introduction	1
Part I: Australian Land Law and the Meaning of Radical Title Pre-Mabo	7
Chapter One: The Origin and Application of the Doctrine of Absolute Crown Ownership in Australia: The Common Law 1788–1992	9
I The Feudal Basis of Land Law in England	9
A Germ of the Doctrine of Tenure	9
i Folkland	10
ii Bookland	11
iii Folkland: Private Property or Public Property?	14
iv Laenland	16
v Summary	17
B The Norman Conquest: Establishment of Feudal Tenure	18
C ‘Exceptions’ to the Doctrine of Tenure	20
i Allodial Land	21
ii Recognition of Customary Law Rights to Land: Tenure in Ancient Demesne	21
iii The Estate Pur Autre Vie	24
iv Adverse Possession	25
v Ecclesiastical Tenures	25
vi Summary	26
II The Reception of Land Law into the Australian Colonies	27
A The English Doctrine of Tenure in 1788	27
B The Doctrine of Reception	28
i Milirrpum v Nabalco Pty Ltd : Non-Feudal Rights in Land	32
III Conclusion	34
Chapter Two: The Meaning of Radical Title Pre-Mabo	36
I The Meaning of Radical Title: The Leading Privy Council Authorities (Re)Examined	39
A St Catherine’s Milling and Lumber Co v R	39
B Amodu Tijani v Secretary, Southern Nigeria	42

C	Re Southern Rhodesia	46
II	International v Municipal Law: American Authority	51
A	Johnson v M'Intosh	52
B	Cherokee Nation v Georgia	55
C	Worcester v Georgia	56
III	New Zealand Authority	59
A	R v Symonds	60
B	Wi Parata v Bishop of Wellington: International Law Revisited	67
C	Nireaha Tamaki v Baker	71
IV	Conclusion	75
Part II: The Doctrine of Tenure and the Juridical Consequences of the Colonial Law Classification of an 'Inhabited' Colony as 'Settled' Re-examined Post-Mabo		79
Chapter Three: The Doctrine of Tenure and the Common Law Consequences of the Classification of an 'Inhabited' Colony as 'Settled' Post-Mabo: Emergence of the Doctrine of Tenure ad Veritatem and the Doctrine of Continuity Pro-Tempore		81
I	Radical Title as the Postulate of the Doctrine of Tenure ad Veritatem	83
A	Mabo: The Decision	83
B	The Feudal Basis of Land Law Revisited	84
C	Summary	94
II	The Reception of Land Law into the Australian Colonies Revisited	96
A	Constitutional Status of Australia: An Inhabited Settled Colony	96
B	The Continuity and Recognition Doctrines Revisited	98
C	Royal Prerogative Powers in the Colonies	111
i	Conquered/Ceded Colonies	111
ii	Inhabited Settled Colonies	121
D	Relevance of Kent McNeil's Original Thesis	132
III	Post-Mabo Developments	135
A	High Court Decisions	135
B	Native Title Legislation	138
IV	Conclusion	139
Part III: The Meaning of Radical Title in Post-Mabo Australian Jurisprudence		145
Chapter Four: Radical Title and Unalienated Land Post-Mabo		147
I	Automatic Expansion of Radical Title in Respect of Original Unalienated Land: Brennan J's Reliance on the 'No Other Proprietor' Principle (Radical Title as a Concomitant of Sovereignty)	150
A	Beneficial Ownership of Original Unalienated Land? The 'No Other Proprietor' Principle: New Legal Fiction Replacing the Feudal Fiction of Original Crown Ownership – Attorney-General (NSW) v Brown Revisited	150
i	Obiter Comment: Incorrect in Law	151
ii	Crown Not in Fact Proprietor of all Land under Feudal Theory	156

iii	'No Other Proprietor' Principle Contradicts Legal Origins and Purpose of Radical Title	157
II	Automatic Expansion of Radical Title in Respect of Currently Unalienated Land: Brennan J's 'Reversion Expectant' Argument (Radical Title as Both the Postulate of the Doctrine of Tenure and a Concomitant of Sovereignty)	158
A	Beneficial Ownership of Currently Unalienated Land? Common Law Implications of the 'Reversion Expectant' Argument: The Two Limbs of Radical Title and General Principles	160
i	Radical Title as the Postulate of the Doctrine of Tenure: A Bare Legal Title	160
ii	Radical Title as a Concomitant of Sovereignty: No Legal Requirement for a Reversion Expectant to Support a Lease by the Crown	164
iii	Summary	164
B	The High Court, Radical Title and the Reversion Expectant	166
i	Wik	166
ii	Leases in Perpetuity	175
iii	Implications for the Legal Nature of the Crown's Title on the Statutory Grant of a Common Law Lease: Underlying Rationales in Wik	178
III	Extinguishment of Native Title by Crown Grant	180
A	Brennan CJ: Author of Minority Judgment in Wik	180
B	Wik Majority and Ward	182
C	Extinguishment by Freehold Grant: Fejo v Northern Territory	185
D	The Common Law Concept of Partial Extinguishment	186
E	Operational Inconsistency	188
IV	Native Title Legislation: Implications for Property Rights to Currently Unalienated Land	191
V	Conclusion	193
	Chapter Five: Radical Title: Lessons from the Sea	197
I	The Crown's Title to the Territorial Seabed and Beyond: The Position Before Mabo	199
II	The Crown's Title to the Territorial Seabed and Beyond Post- Mabo : WMC and Yarmirr FC	200
A	WMC: Brennan CJ's Judgment – Radical Title versus Statutory Sovereign Rights	200
B	Yarmirr FC: Full Federal Court	203
i	The Majority: Statutory Extension of Radical Title and Selective Operation of the Common Law	203
ii	Merkel J: Common Law Sovereign Rights Equivalent to Radical Title	204
C	WMC: The Other High Court Judges – Common Law Extension of Radical Title to the Territorial Sea	208
III	Summary	210
IV	Yarmirr : The High Court	211
A	Principal Majority Judgment	211

i	Territorial Reach of the Common Law	211
ii	Radical Title versus Common Law Sovereign Rights	212
V	Post- Yarmirr Developments	221
A	The Intertidal Zone	221
i	Gumana v Northern Territory	221
ii	Gumana FC: Two Further Objections to Non-Recognition of Exclusive Native Title Rights to the Sea	222
B	Beyond the Territorial Sea Revisited – the Exclusive Economic Zone and the Continental Shelf: Akiba	223
VI	Conclusion	232
Part IV: The Practical Implications of the Crown’s Radical Title		237
Chapter Six: Crown Acquisition of a Plenary Title: The Common Law Record Requirement and Statutory Regimes Regulating the Alienation of Land		239
I	Occupancy as a Basis of Original Crown Ownership	241
A	The Pre- Mabo Position	241
B	The Post- Mabo Position	243
i	Were the Requirements of Occupation Satisfied upon Settlement of Australia?	244
II	The Record Requirement	253
A	Inquest of Office	256
B	Information of Intrusion	261
III	Crown Land Statutes: Statutory Definition of ‘Crown Land’	265
A	Post- Mabo Relationship between ‘Crown Land’ and Radical Title	265
i	Residuary Rights to Crown Land at the Expiration of a Pastoral Lease: Wik Revisited	265
ii	Resumption and Vesting of Crown Land which has Previously been Alienated: Ward	267
iii	Policy of Crown Lands Legislation	270
iv	Pre- Mabo Distinction between ‘Crown Land’ and ‘Property of the Crown’	273
v	Statutory Trespass	273
IV	Legislative Provisions Dealing with the Power to Legislate Regarding Crown Land	280
V	Conclusion	283
Chapter Seven: The Doctrine of Common Law Aboriginal Customary Title in Australia and Implications for South Africa		286
I	Aboriginal Customary Law: A Source of Non-Derivative Common Law Title to Land	289
II	First Limb of the Doctrine of Common Law Aboriginal Customary Title: Title Arising After Acquisition of Sovereignty	291
A	Incorporeal Rights Proper v Analogous Customary Rights	292

i	Proof of Customary Rights: Local Common Law	296
ii	Public Rights Distinguished	300
iii	Summary	303
B	Application of the First Limb	303
C	Content, Proof and Protection under the First Limb	305
III	Second Limb of the Doctrine of Common Law Aboriginal Customary Title: Title Arising Before Acquisition of Sovereignty	306
A	Aboriginal Customary Title	306
i	Tenure in Ancient Demesne	308
ii	Folkland	309
B	Content of Aboriginal Customary Title	310
i	External Dimension: Folkland Branch	318
ii	External Dimension: Ancient Demesne Branch	319
iii	Internal Dimension	319
C	Proof of Aboriginal Customary Title	320
i	Test for Proof	320
ii	Specific Presumptions and Rules Relating to Proof	322
iii	Summary	329
D	Protection of Aboriginal Customary Title	330
IV	Doctrinal Underpinnings for Aboriginal Customary Title	334
V	Aboriginal Customary Law as a Source of Non-Derivative Common Law Title to Land in Ceded and Conquered Colonies: South Africa Post-Richtersveld	335
A	South Africa's Bipartite Colonial History	337
B	The South African Experience: Richtersveld	338
i	Supreme Court of Appeal	340
ii	Constitutional Court	343
C	The Doctrine of Continuity Pro-Tempore in Bipartite Colonial Contexts	347
D	The First Limb in South Africa	352
VI	Conclusion	353
Chapter Eight: Canada: Application and Implications of the Doctrine of Common Law Aboriginal Customary Title		358
I	The Reception of Law in Canada: the Constitutional Status of the Canadian Provinces and Territories Reconsidered	360
A	Reception of Land Law in the Canadian Provinces and Territories	360
B	Summary	365
II	The Doctrine of Tenure, Radical Title and Aboriginal Land Rights in Canada	367
A	Pre- Calder Aboriginal Title Jurisprudence	368
B	Calder and pre- Delgamuukw Aboriginal Title Jurisprudence	369
C	Summary: the Canadian Jurisprudence pre- Delgamuukw	388
D	Delgamuukw and Beyond	393
i	Delgamuukw	393
ii	Marshall/Bernard	410

xviii Table of Contents

iii	Tsilhqot'in Nation	424
iv	William v British Columbia	426
III	Bipartite Colonial Contexts – Quebec and Aboriginal Title	432
IV	Conclusion	435
	Conclusions	442
	Bibliography	457
	Index	481

<http://www.pbookshop.com>