

Contents

Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xix
1. The Successful Investigator	1
The Basics	3
Investigators	3
If You Have the PIG, You Have It Made	4
Investigation	9
Success	10
2. Case Initiation	15
Jurisdiction, Venue, and Purview	17
Believable, Reliable, or Credible Source of Information	24
Dollar Loss	25
Seriousness/Harm	26
Caseload	27
Resources	28
Funding/Finances	30
Investigators' Desire	32

Investigative Priorities	32
Projected Remedy	35
Prosecutor's Prerogative	36
Media or Public Interest	38
Political Interests	44
3. Conducting Thorough Investigations	49
Questions to Answer	53
Seven Questions: Five Ws and Two Hs	54
Before, During, and After	54
4. Expanding Investigative Efforts	69
Comparisons	71
NCIC	73
INTERPOL	74
Resources	74
Seven Questions: Five Ws and Two Hs Plus "Else"	76
Currently, Previously, or in the Future	77
Thinking Like Others	79
Three Investigative Exploration Approaches	82
Follow the Same Blueprint	84
5. Fraud, Waste, Abuse, and Systemic Weaknesses	87
Fraud	88
Waste	88
Abuse	89
Systemic Weaknesses	89
Ten Simultaneous Investigations	90
Suggestions for Improvement	104
6. Summary Reports	111
Types of Investigative Reports	112
Official Files and Working Files	113
Other Reports	114
Preparing to Write	115
Length of Reports	119
Attachments and Exhibits to Reports	119

Reports Should Stand Alone	121
Report Formats	121
Common Report-Writing Mistakes	123
7. The Investigator's Toolbox: Resources, Tools, and Techniques	131
Investigative Resources	132
Investigative Tools and Techniques	146
Search Warrants	156
Subpoenas	157
Interceptions and Tracking Devices	159
NCIC	159
Mail Covers	160
Trash Covers	160
Undercover Assignments	161
Photography and Video, and Audio Recordings	164
Laboratory Analysis	167
Informants	169
Polygraphs and Deception Detectors	170
Analysis and Audits	170
Other Case Files and Police Reports	170
Ask	173
8. Interviewing	177
Interviews and Interrogation	178
Rapport	179
Listen and Then Talk	181
Note Taking	182
Corroboration	184
Word Choice	185
Planning	186
Body Language	188
Props	189
Finish the Job	193
Empathy	194
Statement Analysis	194
Think Plural	199

Interview Notes	200
Interview Room Sketches and Photographs	200
9. Case Planning	205
Plans Change	211
Murphy's Law	213
Private Investigations	214
Administrative Responsibilities	215
Case Files	216
Electronic Case Folder	216
Working File	217
Official File	217
Investigative Plan	218
Summary	220
Juggling a Caseload and Time Management	221
10. Large-Scale Investigations	227
Communication	231
Planning	233
Interview Log	233
Re: Strategy	238
Final Summary Report	241
Attachments and Exhibits	241
Postdraft Report	243
Report Distribution	243
Investigative Notes and Evidence	243
11. Making Presentations	245
Graphics, Charts, Visual Aids, Photos, and Videos	249
Investigator's Appearance and Voice	250
A Copy for the Prosecutor	251
Presentations to Supervisors	253
Indictments, Convictions, and Dollar Recoveries	256
12. Providing Testimony	263
Dealing with Opposing Counsel	265
Visual Aids in Court	269
Make Sure You Understand the Question	271

13. Closing the Case	275
Old Case Files	276
Evidence	277
Recommendations for Improvement	277
Suspensions, Debarment, and Improvement Plans	281
14. Personal and Professional Growth	283
Training	284
Networking	285
Physical Fitness	287
Morale	288
Insurance and Representation	290
Preparing for the Future	291
Teddy Roosevelt	292
Conclusion	293
Appendix
Samples of Case Presentation Visual Aids	297
About the Author	305
Index	309

<http://www.pbookshop.com>