

Contents

Preface	v
List of Contributors	ix
List of Illustrations	xi
List of Figures and Tables	xii
List of Abbreviations	xiii

I WORDS AND VISIONS

1 Blackstone's 'Stutter': the (Anti)Performance of the Commentaries Kathryn Temple	3
William Blackstone: Courtroom Dramatist? Simon Stern	21
2 Blackstone as Draughtsman: Picturing the Law Cristina S Martinez	31
3 Blackstone's Commentaries : England's Legal Georgic? Michael Meehan	59

II BEYOND ENGLAND

4 Blackstone in the Pajous: Inscribing Slavery in the Louisiana Digest of 1808 John W Cairns	73
Legal Jambalaya Stephen M Sheppard	95
5 Blackstone and the Birth of Quebec's Distinct Legal Culture 1765–1867 Michel Morin	105
6 Blackstone's Ghost: Law and Legal Education in North Carolina John V Orth	125
7 Antipodean Blackstone Wilfrid Prest	145

III LAW AND POLITICS

8	Blackstone's King Paul D Halliday	169
	Modern Blackstone: the King's Two Bodies, the Supreme Court and the President Ruth Paley	188
9	Blackstone's Commentaries and the Origins of Modern Constitutionalism Horst Dippel	199
10	Reading Blackstone in the Twenty-First Century and the Twenty-First Century through Blackstone Jessie Allen	215
	Index	239

<http://www.pbookshop.com>