

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
Table of Cases	xxv
Table of Statutes	xli
Table of Statutory Instruments	li
1. Introduction: what to do after death	1.01
2. Is there a valid will?	2.01
1. Formalities	2.01
Introduction	2.01
"In writing"	2.02
The signature	2.03
The testator intended by their signature to give effect to their will	2.05
Signature made or acknowledged in the presence of at least two witnesses	2.07
Witnesses	2.08
Attestation clauses	2.11
Arrangements for execution	2.13
Privileged wills	2.16
Incorporation of documents	2.19
2. Capacity	2.25
Age	2.25
The mental state of the testator	2.26
3. Knowledge and approval	2.43
Presumption	2.43
Mistake	2.48
Special rules relating to those regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA)	2.53
4. Force, fear, fraud or undue influence	2.55
Introduction	2.55
Force or fear	2.56
Fraud and undue influence	2.57
5. Lost wills	2.60

6. Codicils	2.62
Definition	2.62
Republication	2.63
Revival	2.65
Revocation	2.66
7. Revocation	2.67
Introduction	2.67
Mutual wills	2.68
Marriage or the formation of a civil partnership	2.72
Divorce or dissolution of a civil partnership	2.79
Destruction	2.82
A testamentary instrument	2.88
Revocation by a privileged testator	2.90
Alterations and obliterations	2.91
3. Intestacy	3.01
1. Introduction	3.01
2. Total or partial intestacy	3.03
3. Undisposed of property is held on a statutory trust	3.04
The general rule	3.04
Partial intestacy	3.05
4. Order of entitlement under the intestacy rules	3.06
Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 2008	3.07
5. The rights of a surviving spouse	3.09
The spouse's entitlement	3.09
The special rules applying to spouses and civil partners	3.14
Surviving spouse or civil partner and issue	3.23
Surviving spouse or civil partner without issue	3.25
6. The rights of issue	3.26
General	3.26
The statutory trusts	3.27
Hotchpot	3.33
Adopted, legitimate and illegitimate children	3.34
7. The rights of others	3.39
8. Bona vacantia	3.40
4. Inheritance Tax	4.01
1. Introduction	4.01
Definitions	4.01
Occasions of charge to inheritance tax	4.03
2. The estate on death	4.04
What is included?	4.04
Excluded property	4.06
Liabilities	4.07
Finance Act 2013	4.14

3. The calculation of tax	4.23
Two rates of tax	4.23
Cumulation	4.24
Transfer of unused nil-rate band between spouses	4.27
Grossing up	4.32
Gifts within seven years of death—changes in value	4.37
Gifts within seven years of death—changes of rate	4.38
Gifts with a reservation	4.39
4. Valuation of property	4.46
General rules	4.46
Valuation on death	4.47
Special valuation rules	4.52
Related property	4.58
Apportionment of income attributable to a period falling partly before and partly after death	4.61
5. Exemptions	4.63
Introduction	4.63
The exemption for transfers between spouses and civil partners	4.64
Non-domiciled spouses and civil partners	4.67
Gifts to charities, etc.	4.73
The “annual” exemption	4.76
Normal expenditure out of income	4.79
Gifts in consideration of marriage	4.81
Family maintenance	4.82
Cumulative effect of exemptions	4.84
Miscellaneous	4.85
6. Reliefs	4.87
Introduction	4.87
Agricultural relief	4.88
Business property relief	4.97
Woodland relief	4.109
Quick succession relief	4.110
7. Liability for inheritance tax on death	4.112
Introduction	4.112
Persons liable for inheritance tax on death (IHTA 1984 s.200(1))	4.113
Liability for additional tax on lifetime gifts	4.114
8. Burden (or incidence) of inheritance tax	4.118
Introduction	4.118
Express direction in the will as to burden	4.120
No express direction in will	4.121
Practical problems	4.123
Apportioning the burden of inheritance tax	4.125
9. Time for payment	4.127
General position	4.127
Instalment option	4.128

10. Partially exempt transfers	4.133
Introduction	4.133
"Specific" gifts not bearing their own tax to non-exempt beneficiary reside to exempt beneficiary	4.134
Residue partly to exempt and partly to non-exempt beneficiaries	4.136
Specific gifts not bearing their own tax to non-exempt beneficiaries residue partly to exempt and partly to non-exempt beneficiaries	4.138
Section 41 and Re Benham's Will Trusts (1995)	4.140
Partly exempt transfers and agricultural and business property relief	4.145
11. Some particular problems	4.148
Inter-relationship of inheritance tax and capital gains tax	4.148
Anti-avoidance	4.151
12. Reduced rate of inheritance tax	4.158
Opt out and merger elections	4.160
Formula clauses	4.162
13. Certificates of discharge	4.164
5. Capital gains tax	5.01
1. Introduction	5.01
2. Capital gains tax generally	5.03
Taxable person	5.04
Disposals	5.05
Chargeable assets	5.06
Chargeable gains	5.07
Rates of tax	5.16
Exemptions and reliefs	5.18
The date for payment of tax	5.26
3. The capital gains tax liability of the deceased	5.27
4. The capital gains tax liability of the personal representatives	5.28
The position on death	5.28
Disposals by the personal representatives	5.30
Transfers to legatees	5.33
5. The capital gains tax liability of beneficiaries	5.35
6. Reporting requirements for chargeable gains	5.36
6. Income tax	6.01
1. Introduction	6.02
2. Income tax generally	6.03
What is income?	6.04
What income is taxable?	6.05
What is the relevant year of assessment?	6.07
How is the tax liability calculated?	6.08
When is the tax payable?	6.19

3. Income of the deceased	6.20
Introduction	6.21
Income of the deceased	6.23
Distinguishing income of the deceased from income of the estate	6.25
Practical problems	6.26
4. Income arising after death	6.27
Non-residuary legatees	6.29
7. Taxation of trusts and settlements	7.01
1. Introduction	7.01
2. Settlements and inheritance tax	7.02
3. The interest in possession	7.04
What is an interest in possession?	7.05
4. The significance of Finance Act 2006	7.12
5. Settlements created before March 22, 2006	7.13
Classification	7.14
Settlements with a qualifying interest in possession	7.15
Relevant property settlements	7.29
Settlements with no interest in possession which qualify for privileged treatment	7.50
What of settlements which did not satisfy the requirements of the amended s.71?	7.64
6. Settlements created on or after March 22, 2006 by lifetime chargeable transfer	7.66
7. Settlements created on or after March 22, 2006 on death	7.69
Immediate post-death interests	7.70
Trusts for bereaved minors	7.73
Trusts for bereaved young people	7.80
Accumulation and maintenance settlements converted into s.71D trusts	7.87
8. Settlements for the disabled	7.88
9. Capital gains tax and settlements	7.92
10. Capital gains tax—the liability of the settler	7.94
Creating a settlement by lifetime transfer	7.94
Creating the settlement on death	7.96
11. Capital gains tax—the liability of the trustees	7.97
Changes in trustees	7.97
Actual disposals	7.98
Deemed disposals	7.99
12. Capital gains tax—the liability of beneficiaries	7.107
13. Settlements and income tax—introduction	7.108
14. Income tax—liability of trustees	7.110
General principles	7.110
Liability of trustees and accumulation and discretionary trusts	7.113
Trustees' liability under Income Tax Act 2007 s.496	7.119

15. Income tax—liability of beneficiaries	7.123
Beneficiary with a right to income	7.123
Beneficiary receiving income from an accumulation or discretionary trust	7.129
16. Income Tax and Trustee Act 1925 s.31	7.131
17. Demergers and scrip issues	7.134
What is the tax position?	7.137
Stock or scrip	7.138
The Trusts (Capital and Income) Act 2013	7.139
8. Grants	8.01
1. Types of grant	8.01
2. Capacity to take a grant	8.04
3. Grant of probate	8.06
The executor appointed by will	8.06
Appointment other than by will	8.08
Chain of representation (Administration of Estates Act 1925 s.7)	8.10
Limited, conditional and substitutional appointments	8.15
Effect of grant of probate	8.16
Executor de son tort	8.18
Power reserved to prove at a later date	8.20
4. Grant of letters of administration with will annexed	8.21
Circumstances in which a grant is made	8.21
Persons entitled to take a grant	8.22
The effect of the grant	8.24
5. Grant of simple administration	8.26
Circumstances in which a grant is made	8.25
Person entitled to take a grant	8.27
The effect of a grant	8.30
6. Renunciation	8.31
7. Number of personal representatives	8.33
8. Special rules as to appointment of personal representatives	8.36
After renunciation	8.36
Passing-over	8.37
Administration of Justice Act 1985 s.50	8.40
9. Limited grants	8.41
Introduction	8.41
Grants limited as to time	8.42
Grants limited as to property	8.45
Grants limited as to purpose	8.50
10. Incomplete administration	8.53
Grant of administration where estate completely administered	8.54
Grant to follow expiry of a time limited grant	8.56
Double probate	8.57
11. Circumstances in which no grant is required	8.58

12. Revocation of grants	8.59
Jurisdiction	8.59
Grounds for revocation	8.60
Consequences of revocation	8.61
9. Probate jurisdiction	9.01
1. Jurisdiction—territorial limits	9.01
2. Nature of probate jurisdiction—contentious and non-contentious business	9.02
3. Financial limits	9.05
4. Probate jurisdiction and other jurisdiction concerning wills	9.06
5. Solemn form procedure	9.07
10. Obtaining the grant (non-contentious cases)	10.01
1. Probate jurisdiction	10.01
2. The papers leading to a grant	10.02
3. Oaths (witness statements)	10.04
Introduction	10.04
Form of oaths	10.05
Points common to all oaths	10.06
Oath for executors	10.19
The oath for administrators with will annexed	10.28
Oath for administrators	10.35
4. Inheritance tax accounts and payment of tax	10.42
Introduction	10.42
“Excepted estates” where no inheritance tax account need be filed	10.44
IHT Form 400	10.47
Further forms	10.53
Late payment, penalties and estimated accounts	10.56
5. Additional evidence	10.58
Evidence of due execution	10.58
Affidavit as to knowledge and approval	10.60
Evidence of alteration and date of execution	10.61
Affidavit of attempted revocation	10.64
6. Preventing a grant	10.65
Caveats	10.66
Objections	10.68
7. Compelling action	10.70
Citations	10.71
Procedure on citation	10.75
8. Standing searches	10.79
9. Guarantees	10.80

11. Powers and duties of personal representatives	11.01
1. Duties of personal representatives	11.01
Duty to collect assets	11.01
Proof of title to assets	11.02
Enforcement of personal representatives' duties	11.04
Duty of care	11.05
2. Powers of personal representatives before the grant	11.06
3. Implied administrative powers	11.08
Introduction	11.08
Powers of personal representatives to sell, mortgage and lease	11.09
Power to appropriate	11.10
Power to appoint trustees of a minor's property	11.15
Power to postpone distribution	11.16
Power to insure	11.17
Power to run a business	11.18
Power to maintain minors	11.21
Power to advance capital	11.28
Power to delegate—Trustee Act 2000	11.31
Indemnity	11.33
Powers of investment	11.34
Power to purchase land	11.36
4. Administrative powers granted by will	11.37
5. Rights of beneficiaries during the administration	11.38
The right to compel due administration	11.39
General administration actions	11.42
6. Other remedies of beneficiaries	11.49
A personal action against personal representatives	11.49
The right to trace	11.50
A personal action against recipients of assets of the estate	11.52
12. Practical considerations during administration	12.01
1. Introduction	12.01
2. Raising money to pay debts and inheritance tax	12.02
Introduction	12.02
Borrow money from a bank	12.03
Banks releasing funds of the deceased	12.04
Direct payment scheme	12.05
National savings products and British government stock proceeds paid direct to HMRC	12.06
Borrow from a beneficiary	12.07
Sale of assets	12.08
Assets handed direct to HMRC	12.09
Sums payable without a grant	12.10
3. Sale of assets—which to sell?	12.12
Introduction	12.12
The terms of the will and the wishes of the beneficiaries	12.13

Future destination of property	12.14
The sale of shares	12.15
Tax considerations—inheritance tax	12.16
Tax considerations—capital gains tax	12.29
4. General duties	12.30
13. Duties of solicitors	13.01
1. The extent of the solicitor's duty	13.01
2. Duties relating to the preparation of the will	13.02
The solicitor must clarify the terms of the retainer	13.02
The solicitor must prepare the will with reasonable speed	13.03
The solicitor must take instructions from the client in person wherever possible	13.05
The solicitor must try to establish that the client has testamentary capacity	13.06
The solicitor must take instructions in the absence of anyone who stands to benefit or is in a position to exert influence	13.08
The solicitor must be clear what property the testator owns and in what capacity	13.10
Does anyone else have an interest in property "owned" by the client as a result of proprietary estoppel?	13.13
Does the client have a general power of appointment?	13.14
The solicitor's role in taking instructions should not be entirely passive	13.15
3. Duties relating to the execution of the will	13.16
The solicitor must offer to oversee the execution of the will	13.16
The solicitor must offer to check the will after the execution	13.17
If instructed to attend a client, keep the appointment	13.18
Do not allow a client to extend a will conditionally	13.19
4. Duties relating to records	13.20
5. Duties relating to general advice	13.23
6. Solicitor as a beneficiary	13.26
7. Duties of solicitor acting for personal representatives	13.27
8. Duties in relation to anti-money laundering legislation	13.30
The principal offences	13.31
Regulatory requirements	13.33
14. Protection of personal representatives	14.01
1. Introduction	14.01
2. Statutory advertisements (Trustee Act 1925 s.27)	14.02
The advertisements	14.03
Searches	14.04
Distributing the estate	14.05
Contingent liabilities	14.06
Deceased Lloyd's Names	14.10
Bankrupt beneficiaries	14.12

3. Benjamin orders and alternatives	14.14
4. Illegitimate and adopted beneficiaries	14.17
5. The personal representatives' liability in respect of the deceased's leaseholds	14.19
General	14.19
Representative liability	14.20
Personal liability	14.22
6. Liability for acts of agents	14.23
7. The six-month time limit	14.24
8. Administration proceedings for specific relief	14.26
9. Administration of Justice Act 1985 s.48	14.29
15. The payment of debts	15.01
1. The solvent estate	15.02
Debts charged on property	15.03
Contrary intention	15.08
The statutory order for unsecured debts	15.11
Variation of the statutory order	15.21
2. Insolvent estates	15.29
Introduction	15.29
Assets and liabilities	15.36
Availability of joint property	15.37
Secured creditors	15.38
Funeral, testamentary and administration expenses	15.39
Other debts and liabilities	15.40
Liability for unpaid debts	15.48
The problem of bankrupt beneficiaries	15.50
16. Legacies and devises	16.01
1. Legacies and devises	16.01
2. Classification of legacies	16.02
Specific legacies	16.03
General legacies	16.04
Demonstrative legacies	16.05
Pecuniary legacies	16.06
Residuary legacies	16.10
3. Devises	16.11
4. Failure of legacies and devises	16.12
Introduction	16.12
Effect of failure	16.13
Disclaimer	16.14
Ademption	16.16
Divorce	16.41
Uncertainty	16.43
The beneficiary witnesses the will	16.46

The gift is for an illegal or immoral purpose or contrary to public policy	16.53
Failure of a condition	16.59
The doctrine of satisfaction	16.62
5. Incidence of pecuniary legacies	16.65
Introduction	16.65
No undisposed of property	16.66
Undisposed of property	16.67
Are there any circumstances in which s.33(2) does not apply?	16.69
Will drafting	16.73
6. Income from and interest on legacies and devises	16.74
Introduction	16.74
Income	16.75
Entitlement to interest	16.86
17. Construction of wills	17.01
1. The object of the court is to ascertain the testator's expressed intention	17.03
The basic rule	17.03
Ordinary words given their ordinary meaning	17.05
Technical words must be given their technical meaning	17.06
The dictionary principle	17.07
Rectification of a will	17.08
2. Extrinsic evidence	17.09
The general rule	17.09
Where the words used are not apt to fit the surrounding circumstances	17.10
Where there is a latent ambiguity	17.11
To rebut a presumption of equity	17.12
The Administration of Justice Act 1982	17.13
3. The will speaks from death	17.15
Section 24 of the Wills Act 1837	17.15
Contrary intention	17.16
Section 24 has no application to people	17.19
Gender Recognition Act 2004	17.21
4. Property subject to a general power of appointment	17.24
General and special powers of appointment	17.24
Method of exercising a general power of appointment	17.25
5. Special rules relating to children	17.26
Adopted children	17.26
Children whose parents were not married	17.29
6. Class gifts	17.30
The class closing rules	17.30
Acceleration of the date for closing a class	17.35
Gifts of a specified amount to persons fulfilling a description	17.36
Class gifts to children of the testator who predecease	17.37

7. Gifts to spouses	17.38
Civil partner not a spouse	17.38
Same sex marriage	17.39
8. Deciding whether a gift is absolute or limited	17.40
Section 22 of the Administration of Justice Act 1982	17.40
The rule in Lassence v Tierney	17.41
18. Completing the administration	18.01
1. Assents	18.02
Position of beneficiaries before assent	18.02
Assents in respect of pure personalty	18.03
Assents in respect of land	18.06
2. Personal representative or trustee	18.13
Personal representative for life	18.13
Comparison with trustees	18.14
Transition from personal representative to trustee	18.16
3. Receipts and discharges	18.19
Introduction	18.19
Pecuniary legacies	18.20
Minors cannot give a good receipt for money	18.22
4. The equitable rules of apportionment	18.24
Howe v Lord Dartmouth	18.25
Re Earl of Chesterfield's Trusts	18.26
Allhusen v Whittell	18.27
5. The legal rules of apportionment	18.28
6. Accounts	18.30
The purpose of accounts	18.30
The form of the accounts	18.31
Signature of the accounts	18.33
19. Post-mortem alterations	19.01
1. Introduction	19.01
2. Disclaimer	19.02
The succession effect of disclaimer	19.02
The taxation effect of disclaimer	19.09
3. Variations	19.15
The succession effect of variation	19.15
The taxation effect of variation	19.18
4. Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependants) Act 1975	19.33
5. Settlements without an interest in possession—property vested within two years of death	19.34
6. Precatory words	19.42
7. Capitalisation of life interest by surviving spouse	19.43

20. The Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependants) Act 1975	20.01
1. Introduction	20.01
2. Preliminary requirements	20.03
3. Time limits	20.05
Normal period	20.05
Practical considerations	20.08
4. The categories of applicant	20.09
Section 1(1)	20.09
5. Reasonable provision	20.23
Two standards	20.23
The standard for surviving spouses and civil partners	20.24
The standard for non-spouses and non-civil partners	20.25
An objective standard	20.26
6. The court must decide whether and in what manner to make an order (s.3)	20.28
This is a discretionary matter	20.28
The common guidelines	20.29
The particular guidelines	20.30
Types of order	20.41
The types	20.41
The burden of an order	20.42
Inheritance tax	20.43
Interim payments	20.44
Variation of periodical payments order	20.45
8. Property available for financial provision	20.47
The net estate	20.47
Joint property	20.48
Anti-avoidance provisions	20.53
9. The choice of court	20.65
The county court	20.65
The Family or Chancery Division of the High Court	20.66
21. Disposing of property otherwise than by will	21.01
1. Introduction	21.01
2. Disposition of property without a will	21.02
Statutory nominations	21.03
Rights under pension schemes	21.05
Donatio mortis causa	21.09
Joint tenancies	21.15
Insurance policies	21.19
Enduring and lasting powers of attorney	21.22
3. Lifetime planning	21.23
Gifts	21.23
Business property	21.28
4. Why make a will	21.30
To avoid the application of the intestacy rules	21.31

Appointment of personal representatives and trustees	21.33
Appointment of guardians	21.34
Extension of statutory powers	21.35
Directions as to burial and disposal of body	21.36
Advance decisions or "living wills"	21.40
Tax considerations	21.43
22. Planning and drafting a will	22.01
1. Introduction	22.01
Taking instructions	22.01
Types of disposition	22.03
Use of precedents	22.09
Structure of a will	22.10
2. The formal parts	22.11
Commencement	22.12
Revocation clause	22.13
The date clause	22.14
The attestation clause	22.15
3. Executors and trustees	22.18
Numbers of executors and trustees	22.19
The choice of appointees	22.20
4. Guardians	22.27
5. Specific gifts and general legacies	22.31
Introduction	22.31
Specific gifts	22.32
General legacies	22.40
Particular problems arising from pecuniary legacies	22.41
6. Gifts of residue	22.44
Payment of debts	22.45
Payment of pecuniary legacies	22.47
Inclusion of a trust	22.48
Absolute gift of residue to one person	22.49
Absolute gift of residue to more than one person	22.50
Successive interests in residue	22.55
Contingent interests in residue	22.56
Survivorship clauses	22.57
Substitutional gifts	22.60
7. Administrative powers	22.62
Introduction	22.62
Common extensions to powers of personal representatives	22.63
Common extensions to powers of trustees	22.68
Power to charge	22.75
Indemnity	22.76
Will drafting implications of the Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996	22.77

Civil Partnership and same sex marriages	22.80
Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act (2009)	22.81
Appendices	page
Introduction	571
A1. Blank Forms of Oaths	572
A2. Checklist for taking instructions	575
Index	579