

Table of contents

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mentoring, coaching _____ 5 and the practice of law Rebecca Normand-Hochman Mentoring Collegium Limited, Institute of Mentoring | Coaching and mentoring as _____ 103 a key leadership development tool across legal generations Nigel Spencer Reed Smith LLP Jon Stokes Stokes & Jolly Ltd; Saïd Business School, Oxford University |
| Mentoring senior lawyers _____ 19 Heidi K Gardner Harvard Law School | Mentoring and coaching _____ 117 to leverage the learning from formal training Sally Sanderson Profex Consulting |
| The chartered psychologist _____ 37 as coach Robert Sharpe Psychologist | Planning and mentoring _____ 133 for successful onboarding of lateral hires Marc Bartel Heidrick & Struggles |
| The role of bars in _____ 49 promoting mentoring best practices John E Montgomery National Legal Mentoring Consortium | Mentoring and coaching _____ 143 across cultures Philip Beddows The Silk Road Partnership |
| External coaching and _____ 59 mentoring Sally Woodward Sherwood PSF Consulting | Specific coaching challenges _____ 159 for lawyers Sarah Martin Saïd Business School; Coombs Martin |
| Coaching needs of lawyers _____ 83 at various stages of their careers Christopher Bockmann Executive coaching and organisational consulting | How mentoring and _____ 173 coaching can help with life balance issues Rachel Brushfield EnergiseLegal |

Coaching for retirement _____ 183
Bill Knight

Where next in coaching _____ 197 and mentoring?

David Clutterbuck
European Mentoring and Coaching Council

Lis Merrick
Coach Mentoring Ltd

About the authors _____ 209

<http://www.pbookshop.com>