

Table of Contents

Foreword		xvii
CHAPTER 1
Introduction		1
I	General Introduction	1
II	Methodology	5
III	Origins of Competition Law	8
IV	Proliferation of Competition Law	11
V	Goals and Objectives of Competition Law	12
VI	The Legal Framework of Competition Law	16
VII	Practices Subject to the Control of Competition Law	17
A	Multilateral Anticompetitive Agreements	18
1	Types of Restrictive Agreements	20
a	Horizontal Agreements	21
i	Hard-Core Cartels	21
ii	Other Horizontal Restrictive Agreements	26
b	Vertical Agreements	27
B	Single Firm or Unilateral Anticompetitive Conduct	29
1	Types of Abusive Practices	34
a	Exploitative Abuse	35
i	Excessive Pricing	35
b	Discriminatory Abuse	35
i	Discriminatory Pricing	35
c	Exclusionary Abuse	36
i	Predatory Pricing	36
ii	Exclusive Dealing	37
iii	Resale Price Maintenance	37
iv	Refusal to Deal	37
v	Tying or Bundling	38
vi	Other Abusive Practices	38

Table of Contents

	C	Merger Control	39
	D	Other Practices Controlled by Competition Law	39
VIII		Institutional Design of Competition Law	40
IX		The Enforcement of Competition Law	43
X		Types of Competition Law Enforcement	45
	A	Public Enforcement of Competition Law	45
	B	Private Enforcement of Competition Law	49
	C	International Enforcement of Competition Law	52
XI		Interaction of Competition Law Proceedings	54
XII		The Law and Economics of Antitrust Enforcement	57
	A	The Rationale for Competition Law Enforcement	58
	B	Modalities of Antitrust Enforcement	59
		1 Public Antitrust Enforcement	59
		2 Private Antitrust Enforcement	60
	C	An Economic Approach to Public versus Private Antitrust Enforcement	61
	D	Benefits of Private Antitrust Enforcement	62
	E	Drawbacks of Private Antitrust Enforcement	65
	F	Optimality of Public and Private Antitrust Enforcement	68
CHAPTER 2
		Public Enforcement of Competition Law	73
I		General Introduction	73
	A	Introduction	73
	B	Public Enforcement of Competition Law	73
	C	Objectives of the Public Enforcement of Competition Law	74
	D	Benefits of the Public Enforcement of Competition Law	75
II		Institutions Responsible for the Public Enforcement of Competition Law	76
	A	Legal Basis for the Establishment of the Competition Authority	77
	B	Position of the Competition Authority in the Administrative Structure	77
	C	Composition of the Competition Authority	78
		1 Appointment of the Chairman of the Competition Authority	78
		2 Number of Members of the Competition Authority	79
		3 Background of the Members of the Competition Authority	80
		4 Qualifications to Be Appointed as Member of the Competition Authority	81
		5 Tenure in Office of the Members of the Competition Authority	82
		6 Removal of the Members of the Competition Authority	84
	D	Structural Design or Model of the Competition Authority	86
		1 Models Based on the Number of Agencies Enforcing Competition Law	86

Table of Contents

		a Multiple Institutions	86
		b Single Institutions	90
	2	Models Based on the Distribution of the Enforcement Functions	92
		a Bifurcated Judicial Model	92
		b Bifurcated Agency Model	96
		c Integrated Agency Model	97
	E	Enforcement of Competition Law by Sector Regulators	100
III		Procedural Issues	105
	A	Initiation of the Investigation	105
		1 Investigations Initiated by the Competition Authority	105
		2 Investigations Initiated by Complaints or Requests to the Competition Authority	107
	B	Case Selection and Prioritization	110
	C	Investigation Process	113
	D	Powers of Investigation	114
		1 Power to Request Information	115
		2 Power to Take Statements or Testimonies	121
		3 Power to Enter and Search Premises	124
		a Authorization to Perform an Inspection	125
		i Inspections Carried Out with a Judicial Warrant	125
		ii Inspections Carried Out at the Discretion of the Authority	129
		iii Inspections Carried Out with the Authorization of the Occupants of the Premises	131
		b Premises Subject to an Inspection	131
		i Business Premises	131
		ii Residential Premises	133
		iii Other Places Subject to an Inspection	135
		c Timing of the Inspections	136
		d Powers of the Competition Authority in the Course of the Inspection	137
		i Power to Enter the Premises	138
		ii Power to Search the Premises	139
		iii Power to Search Persons	139
		iv Power to Request the Production of Documents	140
		v Power to Examine Documents	141
		vi Power to Make Copies of Documents	142
		vii Power to Seize Elements	143
		viii Power to Seal or Mark Elements	146
		ix Power to Ask for Explanations and Statements	148

Table of Contents

	x	Power to Use or Cause the Use of Computer Systems	149
	xi	Other Powers of Investigation	149
E		Powers of Investigation in Criminal Proceedings	150
F		Sanctions in the Course of an Investigation	153
IV		Leniency Programs	155
A		Introduction	155
B		Benefits and Negative Effects of Leniency Programs	157
C		Rationale for Leniency Programs	161
D		Conditions for Effective Leniency Programs	163
E		Different Approaches	163
	1	Scope of Leniency Programs	164
	2	Types of Leniency	165
	a	Leniency for Undertakings	165
	b	Leniency for Individuals	166
	3	Degree of Leniency	167
	a	Full Immunity or Exoneration	167
	b	Reduction of Penalties	169
	4	Excluded Leniency Applicants	170
	5	Marker System	172
	6	Leniency Plus and Penalty Plus Policies	172
	7	Financial Rewards to Informants	173
F		Protection of Information	174
V		Settlements	175
A		Introduction	175
B		Rationale for Settlement Systems	176
C		Benefits of Settlement Systems	177
D		Drawbacks of Settlement Systems	180
E		Interaction with Leniency Programs	181
F		Types of Settlement Systems	183
	1	Criminal Enforcement Regimes	183
	2	Civil Enforcement Regimes	184
	3	Administrative Enforcement Regimes	184
VI		Sanctions and Remedies	184
A		Sanctions for the Infringement of Competition Law	186
	1	Authorities Empowered to Impose Sanctions	186
	2	Types of Sanctions	186
	a	Sanctions for the Violation of the Substantial Provisions of Competition Law	187
	i	Nature of the Sanctions	187
	ii	Persons Who Can Be Sanctioned for the Breach of the Substantive Provisions of Competition Law	187

Table of Contents

	iii	Types of Sanctions Imposed for the Breach of the Substantive Provisions of Competition Law	188
	b	Sanctions for Procedural Violations	199
	i	Nature of the Sanctions for Procedural Violations	199
	ii	Persons Who Can Be Sanctioned for Procedural Violations	200
	iii	Types of Sanctions That Can Be Imposed for Procedural Violations	200
	c	Sanctions for the Failure to Comply with Decisions by the Authority	201
B		Remedies	203
	1	Types of Remedies	203
	a	Interim Measures	203
	b	Permanent Orders	209
	c	Divestiture and Rescission	213
	d	Commitments or Undertakings	215
	e	Restitution to Injured Parties	220
VII		Review and Appeals	221
	A	Introduction	221
	B	Types of Decisions That Can Be Reviewed	222
	C	Persons Who Can Appeal Competition Law Decisions	224
	D	Authorities Responsible for the Review of Competition Law Decisions	225
	E	Different Types of Review	226
	1	Administrative Review by the Competition Authority	226
	2	Administrative Review by Ministries	228
	3	Judicial Review by Administrative Courts	228
	4	Judicial Review by Specialized Competition Courts	229
	5	Judicial Review by Judicial Courts	229
	6	Judicial Review by the Supreme Court	231
	F	Standard of Review	231
	G	Effects of the Judicial Review	233
	H	Different Types of Decisions	234
CHAPTER 3
		Private Enforcement of Competition Law	235
I		General Introduction	235
	A	Introduction	235
	B	Definition	236
	C	Modalities of Litigation in Private Antitrust Actions	237
	1	Sword Litigation and Shield Litigation	237
	2	À Titre Principal and À Titre Incident	237

Table of Contents

	3	Stand-Alone Actions and Follow-On Actions	237
	D	Desirability and Benefits of Private Antitrust Enforcement	238
	E	Objectives of Private Antitrust Enforcement	239
II		Private Actions for the Infringement of Competition Law	240
	A	Introduction	240
	B	Statutory Basis for the Private Enforcement of Competition Law	240
	C	Legal Forum for Private Antitrust Claims	243
	D	Standing to Bring a Private Action for the Breach of Competition Law	249
	1	Potential Private Plaintiffs	251
	a	Third-Party Plaintiffs	251
	i	Direct Purchasers	251
	ii	Indirect Purchasers	252
	iii	Competitors	254
	iv	Other Third Party Plaintiffs	254
	b	Parties to the Anticompetitive Agreement as Potential Plaintiffs	255
	E	Collective and Representative Claims	255
	1	Types of Collective Redress Mechanisms	257
	a	Public Interest Litigation	258
	b	Class Actions	258
	c	Collective Claims	259
	d	Representative Actions	260
	e	Joint Actions	260
	f	Assignment of Claims	261
	g	Parens patriae Litigation	261
	F	Fault Requirement	261
III		Rules of Evidence	263
	A	Burden of Proof	263
	1	Legal Presumptions	264
	2	Prima Facie Evidence	264
	3	Reversal of the Burden of Proof	265
	4	Burden of Proof Depending on the Type of Challenged Conduct and Legal Provisions	265
	B	Standard of Proof	266
	C	Admissible Forms of Evidence	267
	D	Disclosure of Evidence	268
	1	Disclosure in Civil Law Countries	269
	2	Disclosure in Common Law Countries	271
	E	Limits of Disclosure	272
	1	Professional Secrecy	272
	2	Trade Secrets	274
	3	Privileged Information in Public Documents	274
	F	Sanctions for the Failure to Disclose	275

Table of Contents

G	Admissibility of Expert Witnesses	276
	1 Experts Appointed by Courts	277
	2 Experts Hired by the Parties	278
	3 Requisites to Be Appointed as an Expert	279
	4 Evidential Value of the Experts' Report	279
H	Level of Causation	280
	1 Direct and Indirect Causal Link	280
IV	Grounds of Justification	281
A	The Act of the State That Encourages or Compels the Infringement	282
B	The Consent of the Plaintiff to the Unlawful Conduct of the Defendant	282
C	The Passing-On Defense	283
D	Contributory Negligence	285
V	Limitation Periods	286
A	Initiation of the Limitation Periods	286
B	Duration of the Limitation Periods	288
C	Interruption of the Limitation Periods	288
VI	Remedies of Private Antitrust Litigation	289
A	Nullity of Anticompetitive Agreements	289
	1 Competent Courts	289
	2 Nature, Standing, Effects and Prescription of Nullity Actions	290
	3 Extent of the Nullity Declaration	290
	4 Right of Restitution	292
	5 Severance	293
	6 Nullity of Related Contracts	293
B	Injunctive Relief	294
	1 Permanent Injunctive Relief	294
	2 Preliminary Injunctive Relief	296
C	Declaratory Relief	296
D	Non-monetary Relief	297
E	Damages	298
	1 Justifications for the Award of Damages	298
	a Damages as Monetary Compensation	298
	b Damages as the Recovery of Illegal Gains	299
	c Damages as Punishment	299
	2 Economic Models for the Calculation of Damages	299
	a The Before and After Method	300
	b The Yardstick Method	301
	c The Cost-Based Method	301
	d The Price Prediction Method	301
	e The Theoretical Modeling Simulation Method	302
	f The Multiple Regression Analysis Method	302

Table of Contents

	3	Discretion of Courts When Awarding Damages for the Breach of Competition Law	304
	4	Limitations on the Amount Awarded as Damages	304
	5	Availability of Punitive, Exemplary, or Multiplied Damages	305
	a	Punitive Damages	305
	b	Exemplary Damages	305
	c	Multiplied Damages	306
F	Interest		307
	1	Post-judgment Interests	307
	2	Pre-judgment Interests	307
VII	Litigation Expenses		308
A	Litigation Costs		308
	1	Court Costs	309
	2	Party Costs	310
B	Recoverability of Legal Expenses		310
C	Funding Litigation		311
	1	Legal Aid	312
	2	Contingency Fees	312
	3	Conditional Fee Arrangements	313
	4	Professional Funders	314
	5	Legal Aid Insurance or After the Event Insurance	314
VIII	Interaction between Private and Public Proceedings		315
A	Introduction		315
B	Interaction between the Competition Authority Proceedings and Court Proceedings		315
	1	The Requirement of a Prior Decision by the Competition Authority	315
	2	Concurrency of Public and Private Proceedings	316
C	Rules of Evidence regarding the Interaction between Public and Private Proceedings		317
	1	Access to Documents Held by the Competition Authority and Courts	317
	2	Evidential Value of Decisions Issued by the Competition Authority and Courts	320
	a	Decisions by the Competition Authority as Evidence in Civil Proceedings	321
	b	Decisions by the Competition Authority Binding on Civil Proceedings	321
	c	Non-binding Opinions by Competition Authorities	323
D	Interaction between Leniency Programs and Private Actions for Damages		325
IX	Arbitration of Competition Law Disputes		329
A	Introduction		329

Table of Contents

B	Interplay and Tension between Arbitration and Competition Law	331
C	Arbitrability of Competition Law Disputes	332
D	Arbitrator's Duty to Apply Competition Law	334
E	Powers of the Arbitrators	337
	1 Interim Measures	338
	2 Powers to Request Information	339
	3 Use of Experts in Arbitration	340
F	Arbitration and Competition Authorities	340
	1 Cooperation of the Competition Authority in Arbitration	341
	2 Stays	342
	3 Effects of the Competition Authority's Decision in Arbitration	344
	4 Competition Authority's Use of Arbitration in Merger Remedies	345
G	Review of Arbitration Awards	347
CHAPTER 4
	Self-Enforcement and Antitrust Compliance	351
I	General Introduction	352
II	Self-Enforcement and Antitrust Compliance	354
	A Legal Obligation to Comply with the Law	355
	B Perception of Internal and External Factors to Comply with the Law	355
	C Corporate Social Responsibility	356
III	Antitrust Compliance Programs	357
IV	Drivers of Compliance and Non-compliance	360
	A Drivers That Encourage Compliance	360
	1 Fear of Monetary Sanctions Imposed on Corporations and Individuals	360
	2 Fear of Imprisonment	361
	3 Fear of Damage to Individual or Corporate Reputation	362
	4 Morality	362
	5 Effective Compliance Training Programs	363
	6 Disciplinary Measures and Positive Incentives	363
	7 Impact of Competition Investigations and Litigation Cause on Compliance	364
	8 A Genuine and Credible Culture of Compliance	364
	9 Influence of Compliance Programs on the Sanctions	364
	B Drivers That Encourage Non-compliance	365
	1 A Corporate Culture of Non-compliance	365
	2 Lack of or Ambiguity in Senior Management's Commitment to Compliance	365

Table of Contents

	3	Market Conditions That Facilitate the Infringement of Competition Law	367
	4	Ignorance of the Legal Consequences of Non-compliance	367
	5	The Rogue Employee as a Driver of Non-compliance	368
	6	Influence of the Compliance Programs on the Sanctions	368
V		Essential Features of Effective Compliance Programs	369
	A	Risk Assessment	369
	B	Integrated Approach	370
	C	Standards	370
	D	Controls	370
	E	Empowered Compliance Officer	370
	F	Resources and Infrastructure	370
	G	Board Oversight	371
	H	Senior Management Support	371
	I	Personnel Practices	371
	J	Training and Communication	372
	K	Third Parties	372
	L	Audit and Monitor	372
	M	Measure Effectiveness	372
	N	Reporting System	373
	O	Protection from Retaliation	373
	P	Discipline	373
	Q	Incentives	373
	R	Response to Violations	374
	S	Diligence and Industry Practice	374
	T	Documentation	374
VI		Guidance and Best Practices for Antitrust Compliance Programs	374
VII		Compliance Programs and Competition Law Enforcement	378
VIII		Different Approaches by Competition Law Enforcers	381
	A	Compliance Programs as a Mitigating Factor	381
	B	Compliance Programs as an Aggravating Factor	383
	C	Compliance Programs and Settlement Agreements and Leniency Programs	385
CHAPTER 5
		Conclusions	389
I		General Conclusions	389
II		Conclusions to the Public Enforcement Chapter	398
	A	Inadequate Competition Law Commands	398
	B	Weak Competition Law Institutions	400
	C	Ineffective Sanctioning Systems	403
	D	Deficient Judicial Review Mechanisms	410

Table of Contents

III	Conclusions to the Private Enforcement Chapter	411
A	Unclear Legal Basis for the Private Enforcement of Competition Law	413
B	Inexperienced Competent Courts to Handle Competition Law Cases	414
C	Limited Legal Standing	414
D	Unavailability of Effective Collective Redress Mechanisms	415
E	Impossibility to Access Relevant Information and High Standards of Proof	416
F	Excessive Cost of Private Litigation	417
G	Rough Interaction between Private and Public Proceedings	418
	Bibliography	421
	Table of Cases	443
	Table of Legislation	453
	Table of Competition Authorities	465
	Index	475

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>