

Contents

Foreword	xv
Preface	xix
Acknowledgments	xxiii
PART ONE
Raising the Venture Fund	1
CHAPTER 1
The Basics	3
Raise the Venture Fund	3
Find the Right Investment Opportunities	4
Generate Financial Returns	6
Roles and Responsibilities	8
Compensation	9
Notes	12
CHAPTER 2
Getting In	13
Entry-Level Positions: Analysts and Associates	14
Internships and Campus Recruitment	18
Midlevel Positions: Principals and MDs	19
Honing Investment Expertise within Allied Fields	22
Senior Partner versus Junior Associate	24
What about Luck?	25
Notes	26
CHAPTER 3
Building Your Career as a Venture Capitalist	29
Intellectual Stimulation and Financial Returns	30
Aptitudes and Attitudes of Successful Practitioners	31

The Challenges of a VC Career	40
Notes	43
CHAPTER 4
The Universe of Limited Partners	45
An Overview of Alternative Assets	47
Sources of Capital: Limited Partners	51
Fund of Funds	59
FoF Models: Variation of a Theme	61
Comparison of Limited Partnerships	65
Notes	67
CHAPTER 5
How Limited Partners Conduct Fund Due Diligence	69
Sourcing and First Screens	70
Evaluating the Venture Firms	71
Notes	74
CHAPTER 6
Defining Your Fund's Investment Strategy	77
Sector-Based Strategy	79
Stage and Geography	81
Notes	86
CHAPTER 7
How Institutional Investors Evaluate Fund Managers	89
The Fund Management Team Dynamics: Stability, Skill Set, and Alignment	91
Notes	99
CHAPTER 8
Fund Size and Portfolio Construction	101
Fit within the LP's Current Portfolio	105
Market Timing	106
Why LPs Terminate Existing Relationships	108
Notes	109
CHAPTER 9
Performance Analysis	111
Individual Performance and Attribution	111
Fund-Level Performance	113
Comparison Benchmarks	117

Public Market Equivalents	119
The Quest for the Elusive Top Quartile Managers	119
All the Managers Are Above Average	122
Notes	124
CHAPTER 10
Emerging Managers: A Promise of the Future	125
Why LPs Seek Emerging Managers	127
How Investors Rank Emerging Managers	130
Institutional Allocations for Emerging Managers	131
A Tale of Two Emerging Managers	132
The Global Emerging Manager: 500 Startups	133
Notes	134
CHAPTER 11
The Venture Capital Firm, Operations, and Culture	137
The DNA of a Firm	137
Governance of the Firm	142
Notes	147
CHAPTER 12
The Fund-Raising Process	149
Build Your Target List of Investors	151
Fund Marketing Materials	152
Presentation Slides	154
Making the Presentation Pitch: Drink Your Own Kool-Aid®	154
Attracting the Lead Investor: Your “Nut”	156
Communicate, Create, and Maintain Momentum	158
Announcing the Close	159
Notes	160
CHAPTER 13
Terms of Investment: The Limited Partnership Agreement	161
Key Terms	161
Fund Financial Terms	164
Fund Governance Terms	168
What Institutional LPs Seek	171
Offering Sweeteners to Attract LPs: A Double-Edged Sword	173
What Matters Most	173
Notes	175

CHAPTER 14

The Role of Placement Agents in Fund-Raising	177
Agents Bring Market Intelligence and Relationships	179
Ethical Challenges	182
Notes	183

PART TWO*Making Investments 185*CHAPTER 15

Sourcing Investment Opportunities	189
The Best Source: The Network	194
Accelerators and Demo-Days	196
The VC e-Marketplace: AngelList, Kickstarter and FundersClub	197
Angels	197
The Fountainheads of Academia and Research	199
Corporate Research	200
Trade Conferences	201
Pitch Me, Bro	203
Competitions: From $40 Million Moonshot to $10K	204
Cold Calling	205
You Win Some, You Miss Some	206
Notes	209

CHAPTER 16

The Art of Conducting Due Diligence	213
The Due Diligence Checklist	214
What Is Important: Jockey, Horse, or Markets?	217
Who Invests in Rap Music and Shaving Blades?	220
Notes	223

CHAPTER 17

Management Team Diligence	225
Assessing Intangibles	225
How to Assess the Jockey	229
Serial Entrepreneurs versus First-Time Entrepreneurs	237
What about Charisma?	238
The Importance of Conducting Background Investigations	239
Notes	241

---

CHAPTER 18
Diligence beyond Management	245
Assessing the Market	245
Evaluating the Idea or Product	247
The Business Model	249
Financial Projections	251
Do Business Plans Matter?	252
Notes	253
CHAPTER 19
Structuring Investment Transactions	255
The Spirit of the Term Sheet	255
Negotiation Stress Points	256
Structuring Terms to Generate Target Returns	258
Valuation Methods and Other Voodoo Arts	260
The Drivers of Valuation	261
The Simplified Form of the Venture Capital
Method of Valuation	262
Comparable Valuations of Similar Investments (Comps)	264
Discounted Cash Flow Method	266
Convertible Loan	268
Equity: Preferred Stock	270
Liquidation Preference	273
Antidilution Protections	277
Milestone-Based Financing: Risk Mitigation
or Distraction	279
Governance and Control: Protecting Your Securities	280
Exit-Related Provisions	281
Other Terms	284
Syndicating Investments	285
Keeping Term Sheets Simple	286
The Closing Process: After the Term Sheet	289
Notes	291
CHAPTER 20
Serving on the Board	295
Self-Education: Preparing for Your Board Role	296
Roles and Responsibilities of a Board Member	297
Legal Requirements of Board Service	298
Notes	302

CHAPTER 21
Board Culture, Composition, and Orientation	303
Toward a Better Board Culture	305
A VC Reports to Limited
Partners and the Venture Capital Firm	309
Importance of Independent Directors	309
Notes	310
CHAPTER 22
Board Value Creation and Evaluation	311
Good Governance as the First Step toward Value Creation	313
The CEO's Perspective on VC Value Add	314
Board Self-Evaluation	317
Notes	318
CHAPTER 23
Challenges in the Boardroom	321
Challenges among Shareholders	322
Managing CEO Transition	326
Best Practices in Managing Transitions	328
Alignment of Exit Method, Timing, and Exit Value	329
Notes	330
CHAPTER 24
Exit Strategies	333
Preconditions for an Exit	334
Secondary Markets	339
Notes	342
CHAPTER 25
Acquisitions: The Primary Path to an Exit	343
The Sell Process	349
When an Acquirer Comes Knocking	353
The Buy-Side Acquisition Process	354
Deal Killers	358
Notes	359
CHAPTER 26
Initial Public Offering	361
The IPO Process: The Long and Winding Road	362
Steps to an IPO	363

Not an Endgame, but a Financing Event	366
Timing the Market	367
IPO Underpricing and Dutch Auctions	367
Information Asymmetry: The Bigger Fool Theory of IPO Underpricing	369
The Dutch Auction: Eliminate the Pop and Those Middlemen	370
Post IPO: Should VCs Stay Engaged?	371
Notes	373
CHAPTER 27
Human Psychology	375
Emotions versus Logic	375
Reciprocation, Obligations, and Indebtedness	376
A VC with Ego: Why Should I Eat Your Leftovers?	376
Conformity (or Groupthink)	377
Rock Stars in the Business	378
That Overhyped Rolodex is Not as Useful as You Think	378
Notes	379
Afterword	381
About the Author	385
About the Companion Web Site	387
Index	389

<http://www.pbookshop.com>