

Contents

Foreword to the First Edition	v
Preface to the Fourth Edition	vii
Table of Cases	xix
Table of Statutes	xlv
Table of Statutory Instruments	li
Chapter 1	1
Language and networks	2
InterNetworking	2
The internet	3
The cost	4
Internet concepts	5
IP addresses and domain names	5
Email	6
Pseudo-anonymity	6
Instant messaging (IM)	7
Bulletin boards	7
Forums	8
User-generated content	8
File transfer protocol	8
World Wide Web	9
This book	11
Chapter outlines	12
New and evolving issues	16
Chapter 2 Contract	19
Formation of contract	20
Contracting via the internet	20
Pre-contract information	23
Offers and invitations to treat	30
Acceptance	37
Consideration	54
Intention	56

Performance: payment	57
Internet payment	57
Credit card non-payment	58
Digital cash non-payment	58
Type of contract	60
Exhaustion of rights	60
Retention of title	60
Using is copying	60
Implied licence	61
Express licence	62
Auctions	62
Jurisdiction	64
Brussels Regulation and Lugano Convention	64
Choice of law	79
The Rome Convention	80
Express choice of law	81
Absence of choice	88
Chapter 3 Tort	93
Introduction	93
The internet and those involved in it	93
Over-arching legal topics	97
EU Law – the Electronic Commerce (EC Directive) Regulations 2002	97
Identifying internet users – law and technology	100
The rule in Norwich Pharmacal	101
Joint liability	102
Jurisdiction and choice of law in tort cases	103
Jurisdiction	103
Applicable law (or choice of law)	107
Defamation	108
Overview of the law	108
Distinction between libel and slander	109
Who may sue and be sued – individuals, corporations and public bodies	110
Special damage and financial loss	111
Defamatory statements	112
The requirement for publication	120
Publication by linking	123

The one-year limitation period and the ‘single publication rule’	125
Joint and vicarious liability for publication	127
General defences	127
Defences for disseminators of statements etc	138
Remedies	147
The international element – jurisdiction and choice of law in defamation	148
Possible impact of press regulation on news sites	150
Malicious falsehood	151
Overview	151
Elements of the tort	151
Examples of malicious falsehoods	152
Malicious falsehood and the internet	153
Damages for malicious falsehood	154
Malicious falsehood – the international element	154
Other deliberate torts	154
Deceit	154
Assault and harassment	154
Wrongful interference with property	156
Liability for patent infringement	156
The nature of a patent and the patent application process	157
Patent law – international co-operation and harmonisation	157
An overview of substantive patent law	159
Patentable subject matter in Europe	159
Infringement and the internet	166
Jurisdiction and choice of law in patent cases	169
Negligence	169
Negligent mis-statement	171
Negligent provision of services beyond static advice	173
Negligence resulting in damage to computers or data	176
Negligence causing injury to internet users	181
Negligence resulting in damage beyond data and computer operations	182
Jurisdiction and choice of law in negligence	182
Chapter 4 Intellectual property	185
Trade marks, domain names and passing off	185

Technical rights v legal rights	186
The nature of trade mark protection	187
Domain names	187
Trade marks v domain names	188
Registration of trade marks	189
Signs that can be registered as trade marks	190
Absolute grounds of refusal	190
Registering in relation to goods and services	194
Classification	194
Opposition and registration	197
Registration of domain names	198
Trying to identify the domain name owner	198
Bad faith registrations	199
Trade mark infringement	200
Use of a sign in the course of trade	201
Use must affect the trade mark functions	206
The essential function of a trade mark	206
The other functions of a trade mark	207
In relation to goods and services	208
Identical sign to registered trade mark	209
Similar or identical sign with similar or identical goods or services	210
Dilution protection	212
Metatags, keywords and sponsored links	217
Defences	220
Trade mark infringement remedies	222
Remedies against internet service providers	223
Passing off	224
Goodwill of claimant	224
Misrepresentation by defendant	224
Misrepresentations involving domain name	225
Damage	227
Instrument of fraud claim	227
Passing off remedies	231
Protective domain name measures	232
Check availability of domain name	232
Register domain name	232
Clear use of domain name	233
Protect domain name with trade mark registration	233

Consider domain name dispute rules	234
Uniform resolution dispute policy	234
Formal issues	235
Factual issues	235
Legal issues	236
Timing of the arbitration	246
Copyright	246
Copyright protection	247
Protected works	247
Scope of copyright protection	251
Qualification requirements	251
Term of protection	255
Exhaustion	255
Internet examples	257
Hyperlinks	265
Databases	265
Moral rights and the internet	268
Paternity	268
Integrity	270
Waiver of rights	271
Copyright and database right infringement	271
Copyright prohibited acts	271
Copying	272
Issuing copies to the public	273
Renting or lending to the public	273
Performing, showing or playing in public	273
Communication to the public	274
Making or acts in relation to an adaptation	275
Database infringement	275
A substantial part	277
Defences	277
The internet defences	281
Contractual restrictions	286
Creative Commons licences	286
Copyright infringement and the internet: examples	287
Email	287
Infringement by social media and forums	288
Blocking	292

Jurisdiction over infringement	293
Jurisdiction	294
Jurisdiction and EU domiciles	294
Jurisdiction over intellectual property and non-EU domiciles	297
Copyright, digital agenda for economy and EU single market developments	298
VAT and eBooks	298
Chapter 5 Crime	301
Computer misuse	303
Introduction	303
Section 1: unauthorised access	305
Section 2: hacking to offend further	321
Section 3: unauthorised acts to impair or to prevent or hinder access	323
Section 3A: making, supplying or obtaining articles for use in computer misuse	330
Jurisdiction and extradition	332
Internet fraud	338
Obscene and indecent material	339
Publication over the internet	339
Indecent material	342
Transmission, retrieval and downloading	343
Liability of internet service providers	344
Anti-terrorism and terrorist materials	347
Threat to electronic systems	347
Liability for terrorist material	348
Cyberstalking/harassment	351
The Protection from Harassment Act	352
Malicious Communications Act	354
Section 127 Communications Act	355
Evidence	357
Common law presumption	358
The evidential burden	358
Contempt of court	360
Challenges presented by the digital world	360
What is contempt of court?	360
Contempt by jurors	362

Chapter 6 Data and data protection	365
Introduction	365
Commercial imperatives/personal perspectives	367
The legislative landscape	369
The Data Protection Act 1998	369
The Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003	369
The Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000	370
Anti-Terrorism, Crime and Security Act 2001	371
Directive 2006/24/EC on data retention	372
Data protection	372
Personal data	373
Processing	381
Processors and controllers	384
Data protection notification	391
Principles of data protection	393
Enforcement	435
Direct marketing	435
Transparency requirements	436
Consent requirements	436
Penalties and enforcement	439
Data retention and disclosures for law enforcement	441
Restrictions on interception of communications	441
Obligations to provide access to data	442
Obligations to retain data	443
Chapter 7 Taxation	489
UK tax – General	490
Sole trader, partnership or company?	492
Business profits	493
UK Residence	494
The source of profits and taxable presence	495
UK permanent establishment	496
Withholding taxes	496
OECD and G20 developments	498
VAT	500
Introduction	500
Exempt and zero-rated supplies	501

The VAT system in the UK	501
VAT and supplies made via the internet	502
Chapter 8 Competition law and the internet	509
Introduction to competition law	510
The legal framework	511
Anti-competitive agreements and abuse of a dominant position	511
UK cartel offence	511
Market investigations	512
Merger control	512
Sector-specific legislation	512
Anti-competitive agreements	513
Undertakings	513
Agreements and concerted practices	514
Decisions of associations of undertakings	514
May affect trade	515
Jurisdiction	515
Object or effect	515
Prevention, restriction or distortion of competition	516
Appreciability	518
Market definition	519
Convergence	522
Exemptions	525
Anti-competitive conduct	527
Dominance	527
Abuse	530
Enforcement procedure	538
Complaints	538
Investigation	539
Interim measures	539
Orders to terminate infringements	539
Commitments	539
Fines	540
Whistleblowing/leniency	540
Cartel offence	541
Merger control	542
EC Merger Regulation	542

UK Enterprise Act	543
Market investigations	544
Chapter 9 Regulation of networks, services and consumer contracts	547
Regulation of electronic communications networks and services	547
Application of General Conditions of Entitlement to ISPs and VoIP providers	547
Obligation to provide internet connectivity	556
Net neutrality	556
Codes of conduct	558
Regulation of audiovisual media services	560
On-demand programme services	560
Regulation of 'television licensable content services'	564
Advertising on the internet	568
Distance contracts with consumers	569
Scope	569
Information requirements	570
Cancellation	573
Financial services	574
Electronic commerce	575
Financial promotions	575
Distance communications	576
Online gambling	577
Index	579