HIGHLIGHTS OF 2015/2016 TAX CHANGES

¶100 2016 Budget Proposals and Finance Act 2015

Budget 2016 was presented by the Minister of Finance on 23 October 2015 and the proposed changes range from simple variations in number or value to more complex formulae and tax treatment. In addition, there were also some radical amendments to certain tax principles which had been relied upon almost from the time Income Tax was introduced to Malaysia. One particular welcome item is in respect of Reinvestment Allowance where for the first time in several years, the proposal is beneficial rather than restrictive.

The proposed amendments take effect from varying dates — some from YA 2016, some from the passing of the Finance Act, and others from the date the relevant Statutory Order is issued.

Highlights of Budget 2016 include the following:

PERSONAL INCOME TAX

1. Changes in income tax rates; introduction of new income bands

In the main, the respective tax rates (Sch 1) for individuals up to chargeable income of RM400,000 are unchanged. However, beyond this level, three new income bands have been introduced. For the first time in perhaps more than 40 years, an individual with chargeable income exceeding RM600,000 will see an increase in the tax rate.

Chargeable Income Band	Present Tax Rate	Proposed Tax Rate	% Reduction
1 – 5,000	0	0	-
5,001 – 20,000	1	1	-
20,001 – 35,000	5	5	-
35,001 – 50,000	10	10	-
50,001 – 70,000	16	16	-
70,001 – 100,000	21	21	-
100,001 – 250,000	24	24	-
250,001 – 400,000	24.5	24.5	-
400,001 – 600,000	25	25	-
600,001 – 1,000,000	25	26	1
Above 1,000,001	25	28	3

Non-Residents

The tax rate on Non-Residents will increase from 25% to 28%

Table 1 (Monthly Tax Deduction table) of the Schedule of the Income Tax (Deduction from Remuneration) Rules 1994 has been amended in line with the above changes.
