

Contents

---

Introduction

Section 1

Chapter 1—Firm Preparation: Firm Retrospective and Business Model 7

Structure 8

Processes 9

    Tax Return and Financial Statement Review Notes 10

    Tax Notices 10

    Types of Changes 11

Why Checklists are Critical 12

    Checklists 13

    Zero Tolerance 14

    Smaller Firms 14

Chapter 2—Consider Options for Managing Seasonality 17

Extensions 18

Seasonal Staff 19

Telecommuters 19

Outsource 20

Technology 23

Designated Time for Individual Tax Returns 23

New Clients and Latecomers 24

Existing Clients 25

Chapter 3—Leveraging Technology	27
Using Software to Its Fullest	27
Peer-to-Peer	32
Update Handbooks, Forms, Services, and Software	32
Research Materials—Finding a Quick Answer	34
Websites to Search	37
Chapter 4—Complete Pre-Year-End Planning for Select Clients	39
Tax Projections Review	39
Line-By-Line Review	44
Unprotected Estimates Review	44
Cross-Sell Opportunities	46
Chapter 5—Complete Mailings to Clients	51
Mailings	51
Pre-Year-End Newsletter	52
Tax Organizers	59
Tax Notice Service Letter	95
Privacy Notification	98
Consent to Disclosure of Tax Return Information	98
Chapter 6—Implement a Staff Tax Training Program	101
The Pre-Tax-Season Meeting	101
OTJ Training	102
Maintaining Morale	105
Effectively Training New Employees	105
Staff Loyalty	107
Chapter 7—Prepare a Preliminary Assignment Schedule	109
Software Used to Create Schedules	115
How the Schedule Will Be Tracked	115
Setting Priorities	116
Time Needed to Complete a Return	116

Chapter 8—Review Staff Arrangements and Responsibilities	119
Accountability and Control	120
Using Personnel Effectively	120
Effectively Using Your Main Resource	124
Chapter 9—Maximizing Tax Season Efficiency	127
Section 2
Chapter 10—Return Preparation—Overview and Introduction to Tax Comparison Worksheets	133
Excel Tax Comparison Worksheets as a Review, Training, Planning, and User-Friendly Tool	134
The Tool Described	134
Using the Excel Worksheets in the Review Process	136
Using the Excel Worksheets for Training	137
Planning	137
Cross-Selling Opportunities	138
Notice to Skeptics	138
Sample Excel Worksheets	139
Chapter 11—Make Appointments with Clients	153
Receive Information From Clients	154
Tax Return Interview	154
Mail-In Clients	154
Engagement Letters	155
Organize the Information and the File	157
Nonpaperless Filing Procedures	158
Paperless Procedures	160
Paperless Outsource Alternative	163
Controlling Paperless Systems	164
Bookmarking	164
Standard Bookmarking for 1040s	165
Call to Becoming Paperless	166

Chapter 12—Prepare the Return 167

Sign-In Procedures 167

Working Paper Procedures 167

Administrative Procedures 169

Pro Forma Procedures 171

Projection Procedures 171

Chapter 13—Review the Return 183

Methods to Reduce Review Time 183

Who Should Conduct the Review? 186

Content Versus Issue Review 188

Review Procedures Equal Quality Control 189

How Effective Self-Reviews Improve Efficiency 192

Checklist for the Reviewer 194

Administrative Procedures 195

Chapter 14—Prepare the Bill 197

Sending the Return and Bill 197

Sample Bill for a Tax Return and Additional Services 199

Chapter 15—E-File Appropriate Returns 201

Last Minute Procedures 202

Chapter 16—Process Extensions 207

Chapter 17—Assist with Tax Audits 219

Section 3

Chapter 18—Client Satisfaction, Retention, and Referrals: Measure of Tax Return Client Satisfaction 229

What Clients Get Is Part of Your Brand 229

Quality Control Client Survey 230

WOW! Your Clients	237
Keeping in Touch With Clients	238
How Did You Do?	243
Client Loyalty and Responsibility	252
Chapter 19—How to Determine Your Fees	255
Two Letters to Send to Clients	259
The Danger of Raising Fees	263
Minimum Fee Schedule	263
Official IRS Instructions Booklets	269
Increasing Tax Return Fees	269
Accounting Fees	270
Chapter 20—Expectation Gap	273
The Difference Between What You and Your Clients Expect	273
What Clients Expect	274
What We Expect	275
Chapter 21—Introducing Tax Clients to Additional Services	279
Using Your Tax Work to Expand Your Practice	279
Upgrade Your Tax Clients	280
Types of Additional Services	281
Ways to Make Clients Aware of Your Capabilities	282
Cross-Selling	285
AICPA Standards in Personal Financial Planning Services	286
Chapter 22—Costs of Preparing a Tax Return	299
Worksheet to Calculate Your Costs	299
Greatest Cost Items	301
Marketing or Practice Development Costs	302
Family Tree of a Small Tax Client	305

Chapter 23—Some Best Practices for a Better Tax Season	307
Chapter 24—It’s Supposed to Get Better	309
Afterword	311
I Know You Won’t Believe This, But It’s True . . .	311

<http://www.pbookshop.com>