

Contents

Introduction	1	Analyze the Profile Firm	31
Once Upon a Time in Ukraine.....	2	Analyze Firm Overhead.....	33
Why Some Accountants Earn Much		Analyze Firm Write-Downs.....	33
More Than Others	4	The Key to Improving Profitability.....	34
Three Top Reasons Accountants Do		When is the Top Line Not the
Not Earn Enough.....	5	Top Line?	36
A Word About Terminology	5	Unavailable Time	37
		Time Not Recorded or Not
		Delivered to the Firm	38
		Sales Variances, or Planned
		Write-Downs	40
Chapter 1: Pricing Methods in the		Chapter 3: The Pricing Myths.....	41
CPA Profession	7	Chapter 4: How to Be Worth More
Types of CPA Firm Services	8	to Clients	49
Specialist/Niche Services	8	What Do Your Clients Really
Extension and Advisory Services...	9	Need?	49
Compliance Services.....	9	A Clients	50
Expert	9	B Clients	50
Adviser	10	C Clients	50
Cost-Driven Prices Versus		D Clients.....	50
Value-Driven Prices	10	X Clients.....	50
Pricing and Risk	11	How and With Whom Do You
Using Chargeout Rates as a		Spend Your Time?	51
Benchmark.....	12	The Potential of Client Meetings—
Investment Versus Value	13	Going from Effect to Cause	51
		The Iceberg Value Principle.....	52
		What’s Missing? The Future!.....	53
		The Rearview Mirror
		Perspective.....	54
		Our View as Accountants	54
		Look Out the Windshield.....	55
		Iceberg Value Strategy	55
		“But My Clients Won’t Pay for the Extra Service”—The Rule of
		Price Flexibility	56
		Creating a High-Impact
		Relationship.....	56
		The Meeting Plan Campaign	57
Chapter 2: How Much Do You
Really Earn?	17
The Problem with Partnership
GAAP	22
The Ratio of Employees to
Owners	22
The Salaries of Owners.....	23
Interest on Owners’ Capital.....	23
Pricing Philosophy.....	24
The Financial Analyst’s Dilemma:
GAAP Versus Economics	24
Step 1: Convert Owner’s
Salaries to Fair Market Value ..	24
Step 2: Convert Owner’s
Capital to Financial
Equivalents	29
Step 3: Convert Net Sales to
Standard Revenue.....	30

Lessons from a Mime—Transition Your Client From Compliance to Advisory Services	58	“But My Fellow Owners Will Never Go Along With That Large a Rate Increase”	96
How Not to Do It.....	58	Unleash the Power of Unconditional Service Guarantees	96
A Better Approach.....	59
A Realistic Meeting Schedule	61
Chapter 5: Client-Care Key		Chapter 8: How to Discuss Prices
Performance Indicators.....	63	With Clients.....	99
Client Surveys.....	63	Train Clients to Pay You Well and Promptly	100
Other Ways to Measure Client-Care..	65	What “How Much Is This Going to Cost?” Really Means.....	101
Time to Complete the Engagement.....	65	Turn a $438 Sale Into a $238 Sale Without Really Trying.....	103
Three Other KPIs.....	65	Don’t Make It Look Too Easy	105
Chapter 6: Pricing Strategies in a		Your Pricing Communicates Your Value	106
Troubled Market	67	How to Use “Cottle’s Law” and “Cottle’s Corollary”	107
The Problem With Price Estimates	71	The Problem With Price Estimates ..	109
How to Avoid Professional Panic.....	71	How to Avoid Professional Panic	109
Ask for a Deposit, but Don’t Expect It	72	Ask for a Deposit	111
How to Handle Price Complaints	73	Be Flexible.....	111
Current Client Complaints	73	The Preferred Client Approach.....	111
Listen—Really Listen	73	Five Important Tools in Negotiating Prices	112
Price Objections from Prospects.....	74	How to Handle Price Objections	117
“Another Firm Will Do It Cheaper”	77	How to Handle Procrastinators	118
Chapter 7: How to Set Prices	79	How to Handle Price Complaints	118
Chargeable Time or Billable Time?....	80
Five Factors That Affect Your Prices	81	Chapter 9: Build a Better Firm
When to Use Value Pricing	82	With Better Clients.....	121
The Value Gap	82	Why Are You in Business Anyway?	121
Factors Affecting Value	84	How to Recognize a Good Client ...	123
Arranging Payment With the Client	87	Evaluate Clients Realistically.....	125
When to Use Results Pricing.....	88	Pick Your Five Worst Clients and Fire Them or Upgrade Them.....	127
When to Use Fixed-Price Agreements	89	Fire the Least Profitable Clients.....	139
Packaging Your Services	90	Increase Your Minimum Individual Income Tax Price.....	140
How to Adjust Prices Upward	94	Raise Prices on Aggravating Clients to $300 Above Standard	140
How to Make “Balanced” Changes.....	95

Give Your “Widows and Orphans” to Another Accountant.....	140
Chapter 10: Avoid the Seven Causes of Unplanned Write-Downs.....	143
What Are Write-Downs, Really?.....	143
Cause 1: Estimating the Engagement Incorrectly.....	144
Cause 2: Not Specifying What Is Included in the Price Estimate and What is Not.....	152
Client Planning Conference.....	152
Team Planning Conference	154
Cause 3: Inefficiency (Sometimes Laid at the Feet of the Employee’s Supervisor	155
Cause 4: Bad Scheduling.....	156
Assign the Right Person to the Job.....	156
Avoid Wall-to-Wall Scheduling.....	156
Cause 5: Bad Supervision	157
Plan.....	158
Budget.....	158
Monitor.....	158
Cause 6: Inadequate Skill in Managing the Client Relationship.....	159
Cause 7: Unwillingness to Confront the Client.....	159
Chapter 11: How to Set the Right Standard Chargeout Rates.....	161
Why the Two-Percent Rule is Dead	163
Three-Step Formula for Setting Standard Chargeout Rates	165
Chapter 12: Motivating Your People to Bill What They Are Worth	169
Define Chargeable and Nonchargeable Time.....	170
Use the 50-Minute Hour.....	177
Adopt Daily Time Reporting.....	182
Round Up, Not Down.....	183
Use Peer Pressure.....	184
Require Second-Owner Approval on Substandard Invoices	184
Invoice Promptly to Avoid “Toxic Lockup”	185
Invoice Progressively.....	187
Let Employees Draft Invoices.....	188
Do Not Compromise on Prices.....	188
Chapter 13: Get It in Writing	191
Engagement Letters.....	191
Include Realistic Payment Terms in the Engagement Letter.....	198
Allow for Value Pricing in Your Engagement Letters	199
Change Orders	200
Use the Invoice to Increase Client Satisfaction	201
Appearance of the Invoice	201
Language of Invoices	201
Details of Invoices	202
How to Handle a Higher- Than-Expected Invoice.....	205
Client Termination Letter.....	205
Glossary	207

<http://www.pbookshop.com>