

Contents

Introduction.....	1
Part 1: Key parameters.....	5
Chapter 1.1: What are cornerstone investors?	7
Chapter 1.2: From early beginnings in Europe to three key Asian jurisdictions today	9
Chapter 1.3: Cornerstone tranches or corporate placings?	13
Chapter 1.4: Differences with pre-IPO investors.....	16
Chapter 1.5: Types of cornerstone investors and the US option	21
Chapter 1.6: Individual subscription amounts	29
Chapter 1.7: How many cornerstones are in an IPO?.....	30
Chapter 1.8: Tranche sizes and the question of liquidity	31
Chapter 1.9: What cornerstones bring to IPOs	34
Chapter 1.10: What is in it for the cornerstones?.....	36
Chapter 1.11: Obligations of cornerstone investors	38
Chapter 1.12: Anchor investors: Cornerstone investors by another name?	41
Part 2: The legal framework	43
Chapter 2.1: Hong Kong	45
Chapter 2.2: Malaysia	51
Chapter 2.3: Singapore	54
Part 3: How the process works in practice	57
Chapter 3.1: Defining the equity story	59
Chapter 3.2: The initial approach.....	60
Chapter 3.3: Targeting potential cornerstones	62
Chapter 3.4: Drawbacks of a 'free-for-all' approach	64

Chapter 3.5: Cornerstone marketing and multi-bookrunner syndicates	67
Chapter 3.6: The bookrunner script	69
Chapter 3.7: The non-disclosure agreement (NDA)	71
Chapter 3.8: What happens after the NDA has been signed	78
Chapter 3.9: Firming up the bids	84
Chapter 3.10: The subscription agreement	86
Chapter 3.11: Finalizing the allocations and settlement	100
Part 4: Issues associated with cornerstone investors	107
Chapter 4.1: Ethics	109
Chapter 4.2: Cornerstone investors: A way around market forces?	111
Chapter 4.3: Disclosure	113
Chapter 4.4: The lock-up requirement	115
Chapter 4.5: Recent developments	117
Conclusion	119
Appendix 1: Recent examples of cornerstone tranches in Hong Kong	123
Appendix 2: Older examples of cornerstone tranches in Hong Kong	129
Appendix 3: Recent examples of cornerstone tranches in Malaysia	132
Appendix 4: Recent examples of cornerstone tranches in Singapore	136
Appendix 5: Sample script for an initial approach to potential cornerstone investors by bookrunner banks	139
Appendix 6: Example of a non-disclosure agreement for potential cornerstone investors	141
Appendix 7: Example of an international cornerstone subscription agreement	152
Appendix 8: Selected profiles of cornerstone investors	169
Appendix 9: Target list of potential cornerstone investors (by jurisdiction)	205
Glossary	212
About the author	243
Index	244