

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	xi
Preface	xiii
Table of cases	xv
Table of legislation	xxxv
CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTORY OBSERVATIONS	1
The underlying principle	1
Estoppel not odious	3
Whether estoppel bars the truth	6
Categories of estoppel	9
Estoppel outcomes	10
Estoppel is more than a rule of evidence	11
Estoppel is less than a cause of action	13
Estoppel has cumulative effect	18
Admission distinguished from estoppel	20
Contractual estoppel introduced	21
Contractual estoppel is a distinct category	22
Policy case for contractual estoppel	22
CHAPTER 2 CONTRACTUAL ESTOPPEL: GENERAL PRINCIPLE	25
Representation and promise	25
Promise of past facts	26
“Evidential estoppel”	27
Peekay Intermark Ltd v Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Ltd : first modern case	28
JP Morgan Chase Bank v Springwell Navigation Corporation : the leading authority	29
Prime Sight Ltd v Lavarello : independent endorsement of the principle	30
Contractual estoppel and stare decisis	31
Estoppel raised by contract without more	34
No requirement of inducement, reliance or detriment	34
No requirement of unconscionability	35
Truth or falsity of agreed statement irrelevant	35
Knowledge of falsity of agreed statement irrelevant	36
Contractual estoppel outcomes	36

CONTENTS

Temporal effect	38
Future facts	39
Distinction from promise of future action	39
Form of statement is irrelevant	41
No special requirement of clarity for contractual estoppel	42
In substance statement must be agreement to accept stated fact or proposition as true	43
Contractual character of statement	43
Distinction from representation of fact	44
Characterisation of statement not part of written contract	46
Characterisation of statement that is part of written contract	48
Warranty confounded with representation	49
Distinction from promise of truth	52
“Basis of contract”	53
Contractual estoppel resolves a matter in issue between contracting parties	56
Contract between claimant and defendant	56
Agreed statement must address a matter in issue between the parties	57
Agreed statement must respond to substance of the issue	57
Contractual estoppel statements are not exclusion clauses	59
Contractual estoppel is not an exclusionary rule of evidence	59
Formulating the principle	60
 CHAPTER 3 APPLICATIONS	 61
Misrepresentation	61
Positive reliance	62
Knowledge	62
Duty of care	62
Fiduciary duties	63
Deeming clauses	65
Conclusive evidence clauses	67
Analogy with expert determination	68
Self-certification	70
Self-certification compared with contractual discretion	72
Insurance warranties	74
Account stated and account agreed	75
Recitals	76
Receipt clauses	78
Acknowledgment of debt	80
Whether equitable exception overrides contractual estoppel	81
Acknowledgment of title to or interest in property	83
Compromise agreements	85
Declaration of right	85
Damages	86
Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999	87
Assignment	89

CONTENTS

CHAPTER 4 ENTIRE AGREEMENT AND NON-RELIANCE CLAUSES	90
What is an entire agreement clause	90
Collateral warranty distinguished from collateral contract	92
Entire agreement clause subject to contrary intention	94
Entire agreement clause as an aid to construction	96
Entire agreement clause does not extend to representations	97
What is a non-reliance clause	100
Comparison of judicial treatment of the two types of clauses	101
Non-reliance clauses originally denied contractual effect	102
Non-reliance clauses as contractual terms	103
Composite clauses	104
Clause has to answer the cause of action	107
Whether entire agreement clause raises contractual estoppel	108
 CHAPTER 5 LIMITS	 112
Contract is a prior requirement	112
Whether estoppel raised by contract can establish validity of that contract	113
Contractual estoppel raised by separate contract	113
Capacity to contract cannot be established by estoppel raised by the same contract	114
Whether unenforceable contract can raise estoppel	114
Whether agreement that raises estoppel can itself be contractual consideration	115
Total failure of consideration	116
Finding terms of the contract is a prior exercise	117
Contractual estoppel is no bar to implication of terms	117
Contractual estoppel is no bar to rectification	121
Mistake	122
Reverse estoppel	124
Whether signature raises contractual estoppel	126
Misrepresentation of content or effect of estoppel-raising term	128
The problem of rescission for misrepresentation	129
The problem of fraudulent misrepresentation	132
A policy solution	134
Sham	137
Statutory prohibition and mandatory regulation	139
Public policy	141
Restraint of trade	141
 CHAPTER 6 LIMITS: CONTROLS OVER EXCLUSION CLAUSES	 142
Check on freedom of contract	142
Whether clear words are necessary	143
Whether common law rule on exclusion of liability for negligence applies	146
Application to contractual estoppel provisions of statutory controls over exclusion of liability for misrepresentation and negligence	146
"Basis" or "exclusion"	148
Basis clauses not subject to controls	149

CONTENTS

Basis clauses subject to controls: non-reliance clauses	150
Retrospective and prospective non-reliance clauses	151
Criticism of "rewriting history" test	153
Consumer protection	155
Outside consumer protection context	156
CHAPTER 7 CONTRACTUAL ESTOPPEL IN THE FAMILY OF ESTOPPELS	158
Whether contractual estoppel is in truth an estoppel	158
Contract as juridical basis for estoppel	162
Contractual estoppel arises at law	167
Contractual estoppel rediscovered, not invented	168
Whether requirements of clarity and unambiguity apply to contractual estoppel	170
Distinction from estoppel by representation	174
Distinction from estoppel by convention	176
Prime Sight Ltd v Lavarello	180
Estoppel by deed founded on form alone	181
Consensual foundation for estoppel raised by contracts contained in deeds	186
Estoppel by contract and estoppel by deed aligned	188
Future of estoppel by deed	188
Index	191