

CONTENTS

---

Foreword	v
Preface to the second edition	vii
Preface to the first edition	xi
Table of Cases	xxiii
Table of Statutes	lxxi
Abbreviations	lxxiii

CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION

Common law estoppel	1
Equitable estoppel	1
Development of estoppel by representation	2
Estoppel by representation	3
The elements of estoppel by representation	3
Causation	4
Detrimental change of position	6
Estoppel by representation: evidentiary or substantive	6
Equitable estoppel creates rights	10
Estoppel by representation in the conflict of laws	10
Focus of estoppel by representation on representee	11
Representor required by equity to make representation good	12
Rationale of estoppel by representation	14
Estoppel by representation part of the law of misrepresentation	15
Estoppel by representation resolves conflicting versions of fact	16
Election between estoppel and truth	16
Estoppel does not operate pro tanto and Court has no discretion	17
Effect of estoppel by representation on title	19
Estoppel by another name	21
Unconscionability as an issue: the rise	21
Texas Bank	24
Texas Bank in the Court of Appeal	24
The decline	25
Estoppel not a remedy for equitable wrongdoing	29

Contents

No single overarching principle	29
Estoppel in public law	30
Estoppel in other systems	32

CHAPTER 2
REPRESENTATIONS

Introduction	33
Statement of fact	34
Statement of intention	36
Statement of opinion or belief	37
Promise or statement as to the future may imply representation of existing fact	38
Justification of distinction	40
Dextra Bank and mispredictions	41
Prediction cannot support useful estoppel	42
Statement of law	43
Statement of mixed fact and law	44
Statement of law as opinion	45
Representation by exercise or assertion of rights	47
Waiver (by election) of contractual term	48
Waiver by estoppel	50
Waiver of contractual notice	51
Acceptance of invalid notice	52
Anticipatory breach	54

CHAPTER 3
COMMUNICATION

Introduction	55
Communication essential	55
Communication by word	56
Communication by physical objects or structures	57
Communication by conduct	57
Communication by silence	59
Implied communication in direct dealings	61
Estoppel by negligence in breach of duty to speak	62
Duty of owner to speak	64
Landlords have no general duty to speak	65
Duty to correct known mistake	65
Duty to speak where representation continues	66
Duty of customer to bank	67
No general duty to public to speak	67
Silence where no duty to speak	68
Failure to answer enquiry	71
Mistake in signing documents: non est factum	71
Mere facilitation does not create duty	73
Bailment, custody, or access do not create duty	74
Limited authority creates duty	75

Contents

CHAPTER 4
CONSTRUCTION OF REPRESENTATIONS

Construction: law and fact	79
The representation must be unambiguous	80
Representation implied from silence	82
When ambiguity is a badge of fraud	84
Complex or qualified representation	84
Representation partly express and partly implied	85
Complex oral representation	86

CHAPTER 5
CAUSATION: INDUCEMENT, CHANGE OF POSITION AND DETRIMENT

Introduction	87
Intention of representor	87
Intention determined objectively	89
Estoppels that fail on intention grounds	90
Representee's belief must be reasonable	91
Reliance	92
Inducement	93
Materiality	94
Change of position	95
Change of position must be substantial	97
Inaction as change of position	97
Relevant detriment	98
Detriment must be material	99
Onus of proof	100
Proof of inducement	100
Other contributing causes do not negative inducement	101
Receipts do not normally support estoppel	102
Receipts supporting estoppels	103
Bills of lading and other receipts for goods supporting estoppels	104
Invoices supporting estoppels	105
Delivery orders	106
Bank statements	106
Money paid by mistake: estoppel and change of position	107
Avon	107
Limits on defence of estoppel	108
Defence of change of position	109
Estoppel available pro tanto in mistaken payment cases	111
Miscellaneous changes of position	112

CHAPTER 6
PARTIES TO AN ESTOPPEL

The representee	113
Representations to the public	114
Privies of representee	115

Contents

Indorsee of bill of lading not bound by estoppel of shipper	117
The representor	117
The Crown as representor	117
Vicarious liability	118
Privies of representor	119
Persons acting in more than one capacity	121
Minors	121
Death or unsoundness of mind	122

CHAPTER 7
ESTOPPEL BY DEED

History	123
Estoppel by deed	123
Extent of estoppel	124
Feeding the estoppel	125
Estoppel against disputing validity of grant	126
Limits on such estoppel	126
Grantor not estopped on other questions	127
Deed poll	128

CHAPTER 8
ESTOPPEL BY CONVENTION

Introduction	129
Development of estoppel by convention	131
Contractual convention	132
Texas Bank	133
Later developments	134
Johnson v Gore Wood &amp; Co	136
Change of position in estoppel by convention	137
Legal limits of estoppel by convention	138
Convention depends on communication	139
Factual limits	141
Assumption of fact or law	142
Otter v Vaux and Bohfinger v Kingsway Group Ltd	143
Origin of mistake irrelevant	145
Scope of estoppel	145
Termination of convention	146
Illegality	146
Convention in statutory instrument	147
File wrapper estoppel in patent law	147

CHAPTER 9
ESTOPPELS IN RELATIONSHIPS

I. PRINCIPAL AND AGENT	149
Introduction	149
Holding out as agent	149

Contents

Holding out by conduct	150
Ostensible authority	151
Holding out by agent	152
Holding out as principal	153
Estoppel between agent and principal	153
Partnership	153
Continuing representations	154
II. MISCELLANEOUS	154
III. LANDLORD AND TENANT	154
Introduction	154
Estoppel by payment of rent	155
Attornment	156
Acts of landlord	156
Parties entitled to and bound by the estoppel	157
Limits of estoppel	157
Eviction by title paramount	158
Feeding the estoppel	159
The rule in equity	160
Other applications of feeding the estoppel	160
The mortgage cases	161
Surrender by operation of law	161
Change of landlord or tenant	163
IV. BAILOR AND BAILEE	163
Estoppels between bailor and bailee	163
Goods in bulk	164
Sale of Goods Act 1995	165
Limits of the estoppel	165
V. LICENSEES OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY	166
Estoppels between licensor and licensee	166
Assignment	167
Exclusive licence	167
Limits of the estoppel	168
VI. TRUSTS	168
Possession under trust	168
VII. BANK AND CUSTOMER	169
Customer not estopped by bank statements	169

CHAPTER 10
ESTOPPELS IN TRANSACTIONS

I. CORPORATE TRANSACTIONS	171
Share certificates etc	171
Position of allottee	172
Companies Act 2006	172
Change of position	173
Certification of transfer	173
Transfers of shares	174
Representations as to the validity of company securities	174
II. OTHER ESTOPPELS	175

Contents

III. INSURANCE	175
Marine: constructive total loss	175
Marine: valued policy	176
Marine: other estoppels	176
Other insurance	177
IV. INSOLVENCY	178

CHAPTER 11
PROPRIETARY ESTOPPEL

Introduction	179
Estoppel by standing by	179
Estoppel by encouragement: outline	181
Proprietary Estoppel are equitable causes of action	184
More on Estoppels by standing by	185
Estoppel by standing by between landlord and tenant	186
Estoppel by standing by compared with estoppel by representation	188
Estoppel by standing by based on equitable fraud	188
Basis of estoppel by encouragement	189
Estoppel by encouragement not based on implied contract	191
Estoppels by encouragement in domestic or personal relationships	192
The 1989 Act	193
Hong Kong Land : negotiations subject to contract	194
Waltons Stores	197
Waltons Stores : estoppel by encouragement and the equities of the owners	198
Testamentary promises enforceable through estoppel by encouragement	200
Limits of estoppel by encouragement	202
The relevance of later events	203
Scope of relief	204
Relief: Examples	206
Availability of personal remedy	210
Effect on successors in title	210
The encouragement principle applies to other property	210
Conclusion	211

CHAPTER 12
QUASI-ESTOPPEL AND EQUITABLE DEFENCES

Consent to breach of trust	213
Defence of consent of general application	213
Spellson v George	216
Trustee not entitled to put beneficiary to election	216
Acquiescence as equitable defence	217

CHAPTER 13
PROMISSORY ESTOPPEL

Introduction	219
Hughes	220

Contents

Birmingham Land	221
Promissory estoppel not inconsistent with Jorden v Money	221
Promissory estoppel an equitable cause of action	222
Promissory estoppel essentially defensive	224
The nature of the promise	225
Knowledge of rights	227
Promissory estoppel not restricted to contractual rights	228
Rights need not pre-exist	228
Intention to affect legal relations	229
Change of position and detriment	230
Causation	231
He who seeks equity must do equity	233
Finality of promissory estoppel	233
Confusion with estoppel by encouragement	234
Promissory estoppels and the direct enforcement of gratuitous promises	238
Can promissory estoppel answer a legal defence?	239
Critique of promissory estoppel as answer to defence	241
Promissory estoppel cannot revive a cause of action	242
Waltons Stores	243
Waltons Stores : promissory estoppel overextended	247
Foran v Wight	248
Promissory estoppel not extended	249
Effect on successors	249

CHAPTER 14
ELECTION

Introduction	253
Election between inconsistent rights	254
Equitable election	256
Confusion between different types of election	257
Waiver of inconsistent rights involves election	257
Election does not depend on estoppel	258
Election final	258
Knowledge of the facts	259
Extent of knowledge (election to affirm existing rights)	260
Extent of knowledge (election to create new rights)	261
Multiple grounds for election	261
Elector's knowledge may make conduct unequivocal	262
Imputed election: Peyman v Lanjani	262
Imputed election: onus of proof	263
Kendall v Hamilton and Scarf v Jardine (the conflict)	263
Kendall v Hamilton and Scarf v Jardine (the reconciliation)	265
Peyman v Lanjani	266
Young v Bristol Aeroplane Co Ltd	267
The other line of authority	267
Australian authority	268
Imputed election does not require knowledge of the power	269
Voidable transactions	269

Contents

Forfeiture of leases	270
Anticipatory breach	271
Other examples	273
Communication	274
Can an attempt to exercise one power exercise another	275
Communication: election to create new rights	276
Communication: election to affirm existing rights	277
Delay	278
Alternative rights against different persons	280
Choice where rights not inconsistent	281
Election between remedies	282
Election in procedure	283

CHAPTER 15

ESTOPPELS AND ELECTION IN PROCEEDINGS

Introduction	285
Legal proceedings as election between inconsistent rights	285
Election where claimant has alternative and inconsistent rights against different defendants	286
Election at trial subject to appeal	286
Service	287
Arbitration	288
Scott v Avery clause	289
Judge as arbitrator	289
Judge-Arbitrator decisions depend on estoppel	290
Conduct of arbitrations	290
Jurisdiction	292
Estoppels, time bars and other statutory defences	292
Carrier cases	296
Estoppel against other defences	298
Representations in proceedings	299
Pleadings	300
Amendment of pleadings	301
Amendments barred by prejudice	302
Elections during proceedings	303
Verwayen	304
Interlocutory proceedings	307
Kammins	307
Estoppels, elections and judicial discretions	308
Waiver of privilege	309
Trial	312
Litigant bound by conduct at trial	312
Relief governed by pleadings	314
Exceptions	314
Disqualification of tribunal	315
Appeal	316
Substantive estoppels and elections	317

Contents

CHAPTER 16
AFFIRMATIVE ANSWERS

Introduction	321
Representee's knowledge of truth	321
Proof of knowledge	322
Knowledge of agent	322
Wilful blindness	323
Outsiders dealing with companies	324
Withdrawal of representation	324
Compulsion	325
Fraud, misrepresentation or non-disclosure of representee	325
Reasonable reliance	326
Cross estoppels, election and contract	327
Breach of duty	327
Public policy (statute and general law)	328
Public policy (private law)	329
Estoppel where contracting out permitted	331
No estoppel as to jurisdiction	332
Nullity of marriage	333
Bankruptcy	333
Bills of sale	334
Public policy (public law)	334

CHAPTER 17

PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

The Civil Procedure Rules	337
Pleading generally	337
Pleading estoppel by representation or convention	338
Pleading res judicata under the former procedures	338
Pleading estoppel by deed	339
Pleading estoppel by representation under the former procedure	339
Position under CPR	340
Pleading promissory or proprietary estoppel	340
Trial conducted on unpleaded issues	341
Amendment	341
Raising estoppel on appeal	341
Index	343