

Contents

Acknowledgments	v
Table of Cases	xxv
Table of Legislation	li
Chapter 1: Introduction	1
Chapter 2: Overview of the Regulatory Regime and the Essential Approach when Dealing with an SFC Investigation	3
1. The SFC.....	3
2. Powers of Investigation.....	5
3. Enforcement Proceedings.....	9
4. Approach to an SFC Investigation.....	15
4.1 Identifying the potential jeopardy.....	16
4.2 Presenting the best possible ‘case’.....	18
4.3 Search warrants.....	19
4.4 Important issues.....	20
5. Specific Issues for Organisations and Related Employment Issues.....	21
6. Specific Issues for Regulated Persons.....	24
7. Other Points.....	26
Chapter 3: Statutory Secrecy	27
1. Section 378(1).....	27
2. Section 378(7).....	30
3. The Secrecy FAQs.....	31
4. Construction Issues and Suggested Approach to Section 378.....	33
4.1 Relationship between section 378(1) and section 378(7).....	33
4.2 Application to companies and other legal persons.....	35
4.3 Information which a person knows from other sources.....	36
4.4 Statutory secrecy and the requirement for listed corporations to disclose inside information as soon as reasonably practicable.....	38
4.5 Other professional advisers.....	40
4.6 Applying section 378 in practice.....	40
5. Other Matters.....	43
5.1 The rationale for statutory secrecy.....	43
5.2 Law firms acting for more than one party.....	44
5.3 Disclosure by the SFC.....	44
5.4 Offences.....	45
Chapter 4: Lawyers and Conflict Issues	47
1. The Solicitor’s Professional Duties.....	48
1.1 Professional duties to clients.....	48

Contents

1.2	The professional duty to avoid conflicts of interest between clients	49
2.	The Solicitor's Legal Duties	50
3.	Special Caution in Criminal Investigations and Prosecutions	54
4.	Practical Guidance on Acting for More than One Party Involved in an SFC Investigation.....	54
5.	The Position of the SFC.....	55
Chapter 5: Legal Professional Privilege.....		57
1.	Legal Professional Privilege Under the SFO	57
2.	Legal Professional Privilege Generally	59
3.	Legal Advice Privilege.....	60
3.1	The traditional principles applied by the Hong Kong courts in relation to legal advice privilege.....	61
3.2	The Australian position	64
3.3	Rejection of the approach in Three Rivers (No 5) and the move towards the Australian position	69
3.4	Implications for SFC investigations.....	71
4.	Litigation Privilege	73
4.1	Actual, pending or contemplated litigation and application to regulatory investigations	74
4.2	Confined to obtaining information and advice only?.....	77
4.3	Knowledge of underlying facts and witnesses.....	79
5.	Joint Privilege	80
6.	Common Interest Privilege	81
7.	Disclosure and Waiver of Privilege.....	84
8.	Fraud Exception.....	85
9.	Privilege and Search Warrants	86
10.	SFC Guidance Note on Cooperation	87
Chapter 6: Privilege Against Self-Incrimination		89
1.	Introduction.....	89
1.1	Privilege against self-incrimination in criminal proceedings.....	92
1.2	Privilege against self-incrimination in civil proceedings.....	94
1.3	Invoking privilege against self-incrimination in legal proceedings	97
1.4	Waiver	99
2.	Constitutional Protection and Abrogation by Statute	99
3.	Abrogation of Privilege Against Self-Incrimination in SFC Investigations	102
3.1	Claiming the protection available under section 187.....	106
3.2	Derivative use of evidence obtained under compulsion.....	106
3.3	Evidence only to be used for the statutory purpose	107
4.	Abrogation of Privilege Against Self-Incrimination in MMT Proceedings.....	108

5.	Abrogation of Privilege Against Self-Incrimination in SFAT Proceedings.....	111
6.	Managing the Risk of Multiple Enforcement Proceedings.....	112
7.	Legal Challenges to the Abrogation of Privilege Against Self-Incrimination under the SFO	115
8.	Involuntary Admissions	117
9.	Self-Reporting Obligations	120
Chapter 7: Regulated Activities and the Licensing Regime.....		121
1.	The Licensing Regime	121
1.1	The ‘Managers-In-Charge of Core Functions’ regime	124
2.	Division of Responsibility Between the SFC and the HKMA in Relation to Registered Institutions and Their Representatives	127
3.	Fitness and Propriety Requirements	131
3.1	Right to be heard and right of review.....	135
4.	Information in Relation to Fitness and Propriety Requirements which Must Be Disclosed and Kept Updated	135
5.	Self-Reporting Obligations.....	139
5.1	Disciplinary cases for failure to self-report	141
5.2	Privilege against self-incrimination and self-reporting.....	143
6.	Notification of Individuals Ceasing to Act for a Licensed Corporation or Registered Institution.....	143
7.	Consequences of an SFC Investigation for Individuals Seeking a New Licence or Registration.....	144
8.	Powers of Intervention.....	148
Chapter 8: Employment Issues.....		149
1.	The Employer’s Right to Dismiss an Employee.....	149
1.1	Termination on notice or by a payment in lieu	149
1.2	Summary dismissal	151
1.3	Process and fairness	154
1.4	Implied restrictions	155
2.	The Employer’s Right to Suspend	157
3.	The Employer’s Obligation to Cooperate in Any Internal Investigation	159
3.1	Claiming privilege against self-incrimination.....	160
4.	Termination by the Employee.....	161
4.1	Termination without notice	162
4.2	Resignation	162
5.	Fraudulent and Dishonest Enterprises	163
6.	Remedies for Wrongful Termination	164
6.1	Damages for other contractual breaches which occur alongside the wrongful termination	166
7.	Bonuses.....	167

Chapter 9: The Right to an Indemnity in Respect of the Costs in Responding to an SFC Investigation or Enforcement Proceedings.....	169
1. The Obligation to Indemnify Employees in Relation to the Costs of Defending Allegations of Wrongdoing.....	169
1.1 Express agreement to broader indemnities and the limitations imposed by the doctrine of ex turpi causa	172
1.2 Legal costs in respect of SFC investigations.....	174
2. Indemnification of Agents.....	176
Chapter 10: Liability of Corporations and Officers of Corporations for Regulatory Offences	177
1. The ‘Net’ Cast by the Criminal Law	177
1.1 The actus reus and the requisite state of mind.....	177
1.2 Accessory liability and joint criminal enterprises.....	179
1.3 Inchoate offences	183
2. Liability of Corporations for Criminal Offences Under the SFO	187
2.1 The modern rules of attribution	187
2.2 Corporate liability for criminal offences under the SFO	190
3. Liability of Officers for Criminal Offences Under the SFO.....	191
3.1 Liability of officers for offences by the corporation	191
3.2 Liability of officers for an attempt by the corporation to commit an offence.....	194
4. Liability of a Corporation for ‘Market Misconduct’	194
4.1 The civil rules of attribution – vicarious liability.....	195
4.2 Decisions of the MMT as to whether civil or criminal rules of attribution should apply	199
5. Liability of Officers of a Corporation for ‘Market Misconduct’	201
5.1 Imposition of liability on officers of a corporation for market misconduct perpetrated by the corporation	202
5.2 Imposition of liability on officers of a corporation for market misconduct perpetrated by other employees of the corporation	203
6. Other Ways in which Officers may be Responsible for Misconduct by a Corporation or Other Employees of the Corporation	203
7. Liability of Partners of a Partnership and Shareholders Who Manage a Corporation for Criminal Offences under the SFO	207
Chapter 11: Civil Liability Arising as a Consequence of Regulatory Contraventions.....	209
1. Private Rights of Action.....	210

1.1	Fair, just and reasonable.....	214
2.	Contractual Estoppel.....	221
Chapter 12: Adverse Publicity		223
1.	Publicity During Investigations	223
1.1	Court proceedings during an investigation	225
1.2	Investigation reports and findings	226
2.	Publicity During Enforcement Proceedings	227
2.1	Disciplinary proceedings at first instance	227
2.2	SFAT proceedings	228
2.3	MMT proceedings.....	229
2.4	Criminal proceedings	230
2.5	Proceedings under sections 213, 214 and 214A	230
2.6	Takeovers Panel proceedings	230
3.	Applications for Proceedings to be Heard in Private.....	231
4.	Challenges Due to Adverse Publicity	232
Chapter 13: Complaining to the SFC.....		233
1.	How to Make Complaints	233
2.	Complaints Handling Process.....	234
3.	Risks and Practical Difficulties in Seeking to Use the Threat of a Complaint to the SFC as Leverage to Secure a Settlement.....	234
Chapter 14: The Administrative Law Framework and Challenging SFC Investigations and Enforcement Proceedings.....		237
1.	The Traditional Requirements of Administrative Law	238
1.1	Illegality	238
1.2	Irrationality	241
1.3	Procedural impropriety	242
1.4	Legitimate expectations	244
2.	Constitutional Rights	245
2.1	The proportionality test.....	245
2.2	Constitutional requirements	246
3.	Distinguishing between Criminal and Civil Proceedings	251
4.	Distinguishing Between the Investigator, the Prosecutor and the Judge	254
5.	Challenging the Decisions and Actions of the SFC.....	256
5.1	Judicial review	256
5.2	Civil actions to enforce private law rights	262
5.3	Setting aside search warrants	264
5.4	Exclusion of unlawfully obtained evidence	264
5.5	Stay of proceedings by reason of unfairness or abuse of process	267
5.6	Public interest immunity issues	269
5.7	Anonymity orders	271
6.	Case Law in Relation to Legal Challenges to the Process of the SFC	272

Chapter 15: The SFC’s Powers of Investigation	297
1. The Investigation Provisions.....	297
1.1 Section 179: Investigations in respect of listed corporations.....	298
1.2 Section 180: Supervision of intermediaries	303
1.3 Section 181: Information in relation to transactions.....	308
1.4 Sections 182/183: Investigations of suspected misconduct	310
2. The Evidential Thresholds	314
2.1 Reasonable suspicion and reasonable cause to believe.....	314
2.2 The thresholds under sections 179 and 182/183	317
2.3 The use of section 181 to obtain evidence required to satisfy the thresholds for sections 179 and 182/183	319
2.4 Difficulties in seeking to challenge the commencement of an investigation or the exercise of powers on the basis of the evidential threshold.....	320
3. The Authority or Direction to Investigate	320
4. Imposition of Requirements	323
4.1 Informing the target of a section 182/183 investigation that they are a ‘person under investigation’	324
5. Service of Written Notices and Directions	326
6. The Scope of the SFC’s Jurisdiction.....	327
7. Arrests.....	330
7.1 Others means of arrest	331
8. Joint and Parallel Investigations with the Police and the ICAC	332
9. No Use of Compulsory Powers of Investigation to Investigate Matters which are Already the Subject of Criminal Prosecution	333
10. No Civil Liability for Complying with a Requirement Imposed by the SFC	334
 Chapter 16: Requirements to Produce Records and Documents	 335
1. Records and Documents	335
2. Requirements for Production of Records and Documents	337
3. Possession	350
4. Production of Records and Documents Held Outside Hong Kong.....	353
5. Imposition of Requirements to Produce Records or Documents	354
6. Destruction, Falsification and Concealment of Records or Documents.....	357
7. Other Matters	357
 Chapter 17: Requirements to Provide Explanations, Statements, Particulars, Information and Answers	 359
1. Powers to Compel Persons to Provide Information.....	360
2. Imposition of Requirements	376
3. Legal Professional Privilege	378

Chapter 18: Attending Statutory Interviews	379
1. Notices to Attend Interviews.....	380
2. Consultation with Lawyers and Attendance of Lawyers at the Interview	382
3. The Interview Process.....	385
4. Recording Interviews	387
5. Practical Guidance	388
Chapter 19: Searches and Seizures	389
1. Applying for a Warrant	390
1.1 The magistrate’s discretion	392
1.2 No authority to search for materials known to be privileged.....	393
2. The Form of the Warrant.....	393
2.1 Defects in the warrant	398
3. Additional Powers of the SFC which may be Exercised in Connection with a Search	398
3.1 Entry onto premises	399
3.2 Discovery of evidence of an unrelated offence	400
3.3 Removal of records and documents for later sorting at the offices of the SFC.....	401
3.4 Electronic materials and the use of search terms	405
3.5 Supervision of the SFC’s review of records and documents which have been taken for sorting to prevent the SFC reviewing materials which are irrelevant	407
4. Asserting Legal Professional Privilege	408
5. Receipts, Access and Return	411
6. Challenging Search Warrants.....	411
6.1 Public interest immunity and obtaining access to the information presented to the issuing magistrate	413
6.2 Failure to disclose material information	416
7. Practical Guidance	417
Chapter 20: Cooperation with Foreign Regulators	419
1. Arrangements which Allow the SFC to Obtain Investigative Assistance from Foreign Regulators	419
1.1 The IOSCO MMOU	420
1.2 The IOSCO EMMOU	423
1.3 Direct arrangements with other regulators.....	426
1.4 Volunteering assistance to take advantage of Hong Kong legal protections.....	430
2. Provision of Investigative Assistance in Hong Kong to Foreign Regulators.....	431
2.1 Assistance under sections 179, 181 and 182/183.....	432
2.2 Assistance under section 180(4A)	434

2.3	Protection against self-incrimination in respect of information transmitted to foreign regulators	435
2.4	Obtaining assurances from foreign regulators and imposing conditions on the use of information	437
2.5	Assistance to foreign regulators in practice	439
3.	Extradition	443
4.	Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters Ordinance.....	446
Chapter 21: Interim Remedies, Powers of Intervention and Suspensions of Trading 449
1.	Section 213 – Interim Orders.....	450
2.	Powers of Intervention.....	450
2.1	Use of powers of intervention to freeze client property.....	455
2.2	Enforcement.....	458
3.	Suspensions of Trading and Cancellations of Listing.....	458
Chapter 22: ‘Reasonable Excuse’ and the Consequences of Non-Compliance with Requirements Imposed by the SFC
		463
1.	‘Reasonable Excuse’	463
2.	Circumstances that may Constitute a ‘Reasonable Excuse’ for Non-Compliance with a Requirement Imposed by the SFC.....	465
2.1	State secrecy laws in the Mainland	472
2.2	Incrimination of a person’s spouse	474
3.	Circumstances that Appear Unlikely to Constitute a ‘Reasonable Excuse’ for Non-Compliance with a Requirement Imposed by the SFC.....	474
3.1	Relying on incorrect legal advice.....	475
3.2	Delegating compliance to others:.....	475
3.3	An injunction of the court:	476
3.4	A contractual duty of confidence:	476
3.5	A solicitor’s undertaking to preserve the confidentiality of materials disclosed by the other side in litigation:	477
3.6	Disclosure of journalistic sources	477
4.	Enforcement Options Available to the SFC	478
4.1	Civil proceedings under section 185	478
4.2	Criminal prosecutions	481
Chapter 23: Offences
		485
1.	Providing False or Misleading Information.....	485
2.	Destruction, Falsification or Concealment of Documents	487
3.	Obstruction	487
3.1	Obstructing the SFC in a search.....	488
4.	Perverting the Course of Justice	490
5.	Risks to Lawyers.....	493

Chapter 24: Enforcement Proceedings	495
1. The Commencement of Enforcement Proceedings	499
2. The Challenges of Multiple Proceedings.....	501
2.1 Staying civil proceedings	504
2.2 Staying criminal proceedings on the basis that there have already been criminal proceedings brought in another jurisdiction	510
3. Jurisdiction.....	511
4. Standard of Proof	514
5. Costs	519
5.1 Costs in civil proceedings	520
5.2 Costs in criminal proceedings	523
6. Limitation and Delay	526
Chapter 25: Disciplinary Proceedings against Regulated Persons	531
1. Disciplinary Powers.....	531
1.1 Licensed corporations and their officers	531
1.2 Registered institutions and their officers.....	532
1.3 Persons involved in management and the Manager-In-Charge of Core Functions regime	533
2. Grounds for Disciplinary Action	535
2.1 Misconduct.....	536
2.2 Fitness and properness	545
3. The Disciplinary Process	547
3.1 The decision to take disciplinary action.....	548
3.2 Notice of Proposed Disciplinary Action	549
3.3 The SFC's disclosure obligations.....	551
3.4 Written or oral representations.....	553
3.5 Decision notice.....	554
3.6 Right of appeal and time when decision will take effect	554
3.7 Publicity	555
4. Applicable Penalties	556
4.1 Reprimands	557
4.2 Fines.....	558
4.3 Suspension, revocation and prohibition	567
4.4 Determining the level of penalties and relevance of mitigating factors	570
4.5 Past decisions of the SFC and SFAT	574
5. Settlements, Cooperation and Other Mitigating Factors	575
5.1 Settlements.....	575
5.2 Cooperation.....	577
6. Consequences of Sanctions Being Imposed	583
6.1 Effect of revocation or suspension	583

Chapter 26: Reviews by the SFAT	585
1. Applications for Review	585
1.1 Time limits	586
1.2 Contents of the notice	589
1.3 Service of the notice.....	591
2. Jurisdiction of the SFAT	593
3. The Nature of Review Proceedings	595
3.1 Full merits review	595
3.2 Changes in the SFC’s case	598
3.3 Civil proceedings not criminal proceedings.....	599
3.4 Disclosure of ‘unused materials’	600
3.5 Standard of proof	603
3.4 Burden of proof.....	605
4. Composition and Powers of the SFAT	606
4.1 Powers	606
4.2 Orders.....	609
5. Process of the SFAT	611
5.1 Directions hearing	612
5.2 Substantive hearing	616
5.3 Review proceedings to be public unless otherwise ordered.....	617
6. Costs	619
7. Appeals	623
7.1 Stay pending appeal	625
 Chapter 27: MMT Proceedings	 629
1. Market Misconduct – The Dual Regime.....	629
2. Disclosure Requirements under Part XIVA	632
3. Institution of Proceedings in the MMT	633
3.1 Manner of instituting proceedings	635
3.2 Service on specified persons	637
3.3 Amendments to the notice	639
4. Nature of Proceedings Before the MMT	639
4.1 Civil not criminal	644
4.2 Disclosure of ‘unused materials’	650
4.3 Burden and standard of proof	650
5. Composition and Powers Generally	655
5.1 Powers.....	655
6. Process of the MMT	661
6.1 Preparations and directions	662
6.2 Substantive hearing	671
6.3 MMT proceedings to be public unless otherwise ordered	673
7. Sanctions.....	674
7.1 Persons upon whom sanctions may be imposed	674
7.2 Sanctions for market misconduct.....	676
7.3 Sanctions for breaches of disclosure requirements.....	677

7.4	Approach to sanctions.....	679
7.5	Mitigating factors.....	700
7.6	Time when sanctions take effect.....	703
8.	Costs.....	704
8.1	Principles in relation to award and calculation of costs.....	705
8.2	Depriving a specified person who is not culpable of their costs.....	708
9.	Report of the MMT.....	711
10.	Appeals and Stays.....	712
10.1	Stays of execution.....	713
11.	Follow on Civil Liability and the MMT Report.....	715
12.	Deemed Contravention.....	716
 Chapter 28: Section 212 Proceedings.....		 717
1.	Winding Up Applications in Relation to Corporations.....	718
1.1	Circumstances when a winding up order may be made on public interest grounds.....	719
1.2	Appointment of a provisional liquidator pending determination of the winding up petition.....	725
1.3	Costs.....	730
1.4	Notification regarding exchange and clearing participants.....	731
2.	Winding Up Applications in Relation to Open-Ended Fund Companies.....	731
3.	Bankruptcy Applications in Respect of Licensed Representatives.....	732
 Chapter 29: Section 213 Proceedings.....		 735
1.	Introduction.....	735
1.1	Contraventions of the Listing Rules.....	737
1.2	Contraventions of inside information disclosure requirements.....	738
2.	Interim Relief.....	738
2.1	Determining whether interim relief should be granted.....	739
2.2	Process.....	740
2.3	Common forms of interim relief.....	743
2.4	Power to reverse, vary or discharge orders.....	748
2.5	Parties based outside the jurisdiction.....	748
3.	Final Relief.....	753
3.1	Limitations as to the persons against whom the court may make orders under section 213(2) granting final relief.....	754
3.2	Nature of proceedings for final relief.....	756
3.3	Proof of contravention.....	757
3.4	Effect of acquittal.....	759
3.5	Process.....	760
4.	Forms of Final Relief.....	762

Contents

4.1	Orders to pay damages or make restitution.....	763
4.2	Declarations of contravention	771
4.3	Appointment of administrators	772
5.	Further Orders Which May Be Made in Relation to Open-Ended Fund Companies	773
Chapter 30: Section 214 Proceedings		775
1.	Introduction.....	775
2.	Grounds for Orders	777
2.1	Oppression	777
2.2	Defalcation, fraud, misfeasance or other misconduct.....	778
2.3	Members not having been given all the information which they might reasonably expect.....	782
2.4	Unfair prejudice	784
2.5	Subsidiaries of listed corporations	786
2.6	Listing Rules	787
3.	Process	788
3.1	Civil proceedings with a special character.....	788
3.2	Standard of proof and privilege against self-incrimination.....	789
3.3	Disclosure of unused materials	792
3.4	Carecraft procedure	793
3.5	‘Not challenging’ the SFC’s allegations	797
3.6	Striking out an application under section 214.....	797
4.	Orders	797
4.1	Disqualification orders	797
4.2	Damages.....	805
4.3	Orders to bring proceedings.....	808
Chapter 31: Section 214A Proceedings		813
Chapter 32: Disciplinary Proceedings before the Takeovers Panel		815
1.	The Takeovers Code.....	815
1.1	Persons subject to responsibilities	816
1.2	Administration of the Takeovers Code.....	817
2.	Disciplinary Proceedings	819
2.1	Civil proceedings and standard of proof.....	819
2.2	Burden of proof and evidence.....	820
2.3	Discovery and disclosure of ‘unused materials’	821
2.4	Privilege against self-incrimination	821
3.	Process	822
3.1	Initiation of proceedings	822
3.2	Directions and statement of agreed facts	826
3.3	The hearing	827
3.4	Decision	829
3.5	Publication of Rulings.....	830

4. Disciplinary Sanctions	831
5. Appeals to the Takeovers Appeal Committee	835
Chapter 33: Key Market Misconduct and Offence Provisions
Under the SFO	837
1. The Mental Elements	838
1.1 Intention	838
1.2 Knowledge	838
1.3 Recklessness	839
1.4 Negligence	840
1.5 Having reasonable cause to believe	840
1.6 The mental element in attempt.....	841
Chapter 34: Unauthorised Offers to Invest
1. The Restriction under Section 103 of the SFO	843
1.1 Issue	844
1.2 Advertisement, invitation or document which is or contains an invitation to the public	845
1.3 Knowledge	845
1.4 Types of investment products restricted.....	845
1.5 Applicability to specific types of investment offerings.....	848
2. Exemptions and Defence	848
2.1 Exempted persons	849
2.2 Exempted offers, prospectuses and other documents	851
2.3 Professional investors.....	852
2.4 Live broadcasters and mere conduits	853
2.5 All reasonable steps and due diligence taken	853
3. Penalties	853
Chapter 35: Carrying on Business in Regulated Activities and Related Advertisements
1. Regulated Activities and Regulated Functions	855
1.1 Regulated activities	855
1.2 Regulated functions	857
2. Restriction on Carrying on a Business in a Regulated Activity.....	857
2.1 Carrying on a business	858
2.2 Specific exemptions for Type 8 regulated activity (securities margin financing).....	858
2.3 Without reasonable excuse.....	859
3. Restriction on Performing a Regulated Function	859
3.1 Carrying on a business	860
3.2 Without reasonable excuse.....	860
4. Application of Section 114 to Conduct Activities Outside Hong Kong.....	860
4.1 Actively markets to the Hong Kong public.....	861
5. Restriction on Advertisements	862

Contents

5.1	Issue	863
5.2	Advertisement and document	863
5.3	Knowledge	863
5.4	Exemptions and defence	863
6.	Penalties.....	864
6.1	Offence under section 114 of the SFO.....	864
6.2	Offence under section 109 of the SFO.....	865
Chapter 36: Insider Dealing.....		867
1.	The Different Forms of Insider Dealing	867
1.1	The first form of insider dealing – principal recipient dealing, counselling and procuring.....	868
1.2	The second form of insider dealing – tipping	868
1.3	The third form of insider dealing – tippee dealing, counselling and procuring	869
1.4	The fourth form of insider dealing – insider dealing in dual listed securities.....	870
2.	The Two Key Elements to Insider Dealing.....	871
2.1	The information connection – inside information	871
2.2	The person connection – connected persons and offerors	878
3.	Other Elements	880
3.1	Dealing in listed securities or their derivatives	880
3.2	Counsel or procure.....	881
3.3	Received.....	882
3.4	Knowingly.....	883
3.5	Having reasonable cause to believe	883
3.6	Causation.....	883
4.	Defences	883
5.	Sanctions and Penalties.....	889
5.1	Market misconduct.....	889
5.2	Criminal offence	890
Chapter 37: False Trading		893
1.	The Two Forms of False Trading.....	893
1.1	Creating a false or misleading appearance of active trading or with respect to the market for, or the price for dealings in, securities or futures contracts	894
1.2	Creating or maintaining an artificial price for dealings in securities or futures contracts.....	898
2.	Applicability to Securities and Futures Contracts Traded Overseas.....	899
3.	Conduct not Constituting False Trading	900
3.1	Share repurchases.....	900
3.2	Price stabilization.....	900
4.	Sanctions and Penalties.....	901

4.1	Market misconduct.....	901
4.2	Criminal offence	902
Chapter 38: Price Rigging.....		903
1.	Price Rigging	903
1.1	Wash trading	903
1.2	Fictitious or artificial transaction or device.....	905
2.	Applicability to Securities and Futures Contracts Traded Overseas.....	906
3.	Conduct Not Constituting Price Rigging.....	907
4.	Sanctions and Penalties.....	907
4.1	Market misconduct.....	907
4.2	Criminal offence	907
Chapter 39: Disclosure of Information about Prohibited Transactions		909
1.	Disclosure of Information about Prohibited Transactions.....	909
1.1	Prohibited transactions.....	910
1.2	Concerned in	910
1.3	Price	910
1.4	Likely to.....	911
2.	Defence.....	911
3.	Sanctions and Penalties.....	911
3.1	Market misconduct.....	911
3.2	Criminal offence	911
Chapter 40: Disclosure of False or Misleading Information Inducing Transactions		913
1.	Disclosure of False or Misleading Information Inducing Transactions.....	914
1.1	Concerned in	914
1.2	Information and fact.....	915
1.3	Likely to.....	916
1.4	Price	917
1.5	False or misleading as to a material fact.....	917
1.6	Knowledge, recklessness and negligence	919
1.7	Causation.....	920
2.	Defences	920
3.	Sanctions and Penalties.....	921
3.1	Market misconduct.....	921
3.2	Criminal offence	921
Chapter 41: Stock Market Manipulation		923
1.	Stock Market Manipulation	923
1.1	Likely to.....	924
1.2	Price	924

Contents

1.3	Two or more transactions in securities.....	924
1.4	Intention of inducing another person to purchase, sell or hold securities	924
2.	Applicability to Securities Traded Overseas.....	925
3.	Conduct Not Constituting Stock Market Manipulation.....	925
4.	Sanctions and Penalties.....	925
4.1	Market misconduct.....	925
4.2	Criminal offence	925
Chapter 42: Using Fraudulent or Deceptive Devices.....		927
1.	Background to Section 300 – US Jurisprudence	927
2.	Securities and Futures Commission v Young Bik Fung	929
2.1	Background facts	929
2.2	The Court of First Instance decision.....	930
2.3	The Court of Final Appeal decision.....	930
3.	With Intent to Defraud or Deceive/Fraud or Deception	934
4.	Penalties.....	934
Chapter 43: Providing False or Misleading Information to the SFC.....		935
1.	Section 383 – False or Misleading Representations in Applications to the SFC.....	935
1.1	Representation.....	936
1.2	False or misleading in a material particular	936
1.3	Knowledge and recklessness.....	936
1.4	Penalties	936
2.	Section 384(1) – Provision of False or Misleading Information in Purported Compliance with the SFO.....	937
2.1	To provide	937
2.2	Relevant provisions	938
2.3	Specified recipient.....	938
2.4	Information that is false or misleading in a material particular	939
2.5	Knowledge and recklessness.....	939
2.6	Section 384(1) inapplicable if conduct also constitutes an offence under another relevant provision.....	939
2.7	Penalties	939
3.	Section 384(3) – Provision of False or Misleading Information in Connection with the Performance of a Function Under the SFO.....	940
3.1	Otherwise than in purported compliance with a requirement to provide information imposed by or under any of the relevant provisions	941
3.2	To provide	941
3.3	Relevant provisions	941
3.4	Specified recipient.....	941

Contents

3.5	Record or document that is false or misleading in a material particular	941
3.6	Prior written warning	941
3.7	Knowledge, recklessness and intention	941
3.8	Penalties	942
Chapter 44:	Failure to Disclose Inside Information	943
1.	When Does the Disclosure Obligation Arise?	943
2.	How Should Inside Information be Disclosed?	944
2.1	Balancing the need to disclose information against the need to ensure any information disclosed is accurate and complete	946
3.	Safe Harbours	947
3.1	Disclosure is prohibited by law	947
3.2	The information concerns an incomplete proposal or negotiation.....	948
3.3	The information concerns a trade secret	949
3.4	The information concerns the provision of liquidity support/ application of a stabilization option	949
3.5	Disclosure is waived by the SFC	950
4.	Preservation of Confidentiality	950
5.	Officer's Liability.....	951
6.	Reasonable Measures and Proper Safeguards	952
7.	Sanctions	953
	Appendix 1: Attending Statutory Interviews	955
	Appendix 2: Supervising Searches	959
	Appendix 3: Guidance on Internal Investigations.....	961
	Appendix 4: Penalties in SFAT Decisions	971
	Appendix 5: Summary of MMT Decisions	1003
	Appendix 6: Disclosure.....	1033
	Index	1037