

Contents

Series Preface	v
Preface	ix
Table of Statutes	xxi
Table of Statutory Instruments	xxvii
Table of Cases	xxix
PART ONE THE STRUCTURE OF THE MODERN LAW OF NEGLIGENCE
Chapter 1 Liability for carelessness
A The changing fortunes of foreseeability	1.01
B The language of the modern law	1.04
C Omissions	1.14
D The erosion of traditional immunities	1.20
E Factors which can limit liability	1.26
F Psychiatric damage	1.53
Chapter 2 Evaluation of conduct
A Foreseeability and objectivity	2.01
B The measurement of risk	2.06
C Care and its quality	2.11
D Proof of negligence	2.21
Chapter 3 Causation and remoteness
A Introduction	3.01
B Nature of loss and measure of damages	3.04
C The foreseeability test	3.11
D Intervening act by the claimant	3.26
E Intervention by third parties	3.34

PART TWO NEGLIGENCE AND ECONOMIC INTERESTS

Chapter 4 Liability for negligent misstatement

A The impact of Hedley Byrne	4.01
B Establishing liability	4.05
C Claims by third parties	4.15
D Omissions	4.33
E Public policy	4.38
F Disclaimers of liability	4.46
G Contributory negligence	4.52

Chapter 5 Financial loss caused by careless acts

A The background to the modern law	5.01
B Economic loss resulting from undamaged products	5.09
C Where the claimant suffers economic loss which is consequential upon injury or damage to a third party	5.23
D Assumption of responsibility	5.37
E Other cases of economic loss	5.47

PART THREE PROFESSIONAL NEGLIGENCE

Chapter 6 General principles

A The Bolam test	6.01
B State of knowledge	6.12
C Errors of judgment	6.14
D Where no negligence required	6.15
E Denial of duty	6.16

Chapter 7 Clinical negligence

A Difficulties of proof	7.01
B Standard of care	7.04
C Relevance of common practice	7.08
D Questions of fact	7.11
E Where there are differing professional schools of thought	7.13
F The duty to warn	7.16

Chapter 8 Lawyers

A End of the advocate's immunity	8.01
B Types of claim	8.06

C Tort and contract	8.16
D Liability to third parties	8.17
E Nature of a solicitor's contractual duty	8.25
F Acting for separate parties	8.30
G Counting the cost	8.34
Chapter 9 Property and finance
A Land, valuation, and construction	9.01
B Financial services	9.15
PART FOUR LAND USE LIABILITY IN NEGLIGENCE AND NUISANCE
Chapter 10 Liability of occupiers
A The scope of 'occupation'	10.01
B Liability to visitors	10.04
C Liability to persons other than visitors	10.28
D Access under the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000	10.42
E Exclusion of liability	10.45
F When the Acts do not apply	10.52
G The Defective Premises Act 1972, s 4	10.63
Chapter 11 Duties to neighbouring occupiers
A Negligence and private nuisance	11.01
B The test of reasonableness in nuisance cases	11.03
C Fault and foreseeability	11.24
D Who can claim?	11.32
E Defendants and the extent of liability	11.40
Chapter 12 Interference with comfort and enjoyment
A The establishing of liability	12.01
B Noise and vibration	12.06
C Fumes, dust and smell	12.14
D Further situations	12.17
E Light	12.19
F Air	12.26
Chapter 13 Physical damage to land and buildings
A Introduction	13.01
B Nature of damage	13.06

Contents

C	Natural agencies	13.11
D	Strict liability and the rule in Rylands v Fletcher	13.30
E	Role of foreseeability	13.49
F	Nuisance and rights of support	13.57

Chapter 14 Public nuisance

A	Nature and scope of public nuisance	14.01
B	Damages and liability	14.12
C	Relevance of fault	14.21

PART FIVE NEGLIGENCE AGAINST A STATUTORY BACKGROUND

Chapter 15 Negligence and the exercise of statutory powers

A	The problem of discretion	15.01
B	Justiciability	15.06
C	Applying negligence principles	15.20
D	Liability at policy level	15.39
E	Protecting from harm inflicted by third parties	15.46
F	Summary of negligence and the exercise of statutory powers	15.48

Chapter 16 The action for breach of statutory duty

A	The nature of liability	16.01
B	The scope of the Act	16.13
C	Defences and relationship with criminal liability	16.33
D	Reform?	16.36

PART SIX EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY

Chapter 17 Employers' liability to their employees

A	Nature of the common law duty	17.01
B	Stress	17.05
C	Safe system of work	17.11
D	Statutory duties	17.28
E	Relationship between statutory and common law duties	17.45

Chapter 18 Vicarious liability

A	Introduction	18.01
B	Who is an 'employee'?	18.07
C	The course of employment	18.14

D Independent contractors	18.27
E 'Agents'	18.40

PART SEVEN DEFECTIVE PRODUCTS

Chapter 19 The common law

A Background	19.01
B The duty	19.06
C Intermediate inspection	19.12
D Proof of negligence	19.17
E Economic loss	19.23

Chapter 20 Strict liability by statute

A European background	20.01
B Strict liability	20.02
C Defences	20.13
D Remedies	20.18
E Evaluation	20.21

PART EIGHT DEFENCES

Chapter 21 Assumption of risk

A Scope of the concept	21.01
B Relationship with the duty of care	21.09

Chapter 22 Contribution and exclusion

A Scope of the chapter	22.01
B Contributory negligence	22.02
C Contribution between wrongdoers	22.22
D Exclusion of liability	22.37

Chapter 23 Defences in nuisance

A Introduction	23.01
B Statutory authorisation	23.02
C Act of a third party	23.16
D Act of God	23.23
E 'Coming to the nuisance'	23.25
F Assumption of risk and contributory negligence	23.28
G Prescription	23.32

Contents

H 'Others contribute'	23.37
I 'Defendant unable to remedy'	23.40

PART NINE DAMAGES AND THEIR ASSESSMENT

Chapter 24 The making of awards in personal injury cases
A Heads of damage	24.01
B Mitigation	24.12
C Subsequent events	24.16
D Allowing for deterioration	24.24
E Interest	24.28
F Fraudulent Claims	24.30
Chapter 25 Damages recoverable for personal injury
A Non-pecuniary loss	25.01
B Financial loss	25.15
C Cost of care	25.49
D Periodical payments	25.60
Chapter 26 Cases involving death
A Survival of causes of action	26.01
B Claims by dependants	26.04
C Damages for bereavement	26.41
Chapter 27 Property damage and other losses
A Damage to chattels	27.01
B Loss of use	27.07
C Land and buildings	27.15
D Nuisance	27.31
E New areas of recovery	27.34
Chapter 28 Limitation of actions
A General principles	28.01
B Personal injuries	28.13
C Concealment of the cause of action	28.35
D Latent damage in cases other than personal injury	28.40
E Reform?	28.47

PART TEN NUISANCE: REDRESS FOR CONTINUING INTERFERENCE

Chapter 29 Injunctions

A	Introduction	29.01
B	Exercise of the discretion	29.04
C	Quia timet injunctions	29.07
D	Mandatory injunctions	29.10
E	Damages in lieu of injunction	29.15
F	Procedure	29.18
G	Limitations on availability	29.21

Chapter 30 Abatement of nuisance

A	Introduction	30.01
B	Scope and requirements	30.04
C	Loss or damage inflicted during abatement	30.13
D	Abatement of public nuisances	30.15
E	Abatement after refusal of equitable relief	30.18

PART ELEVEN TORT, THE STATE AND THE FUTURE

Chapter 31 Insurance and state provision

A	Introduction	31.01
B	The role of insurance	31.03
C	Injury at work	31.13
D	Vaccine damage	31.17
E	Criminal injuries	31.18

Chapter 32 Reform?

A	Criticisms of the existing system	32.01
B	Various proposals for reform	32.07
C	Negligence under attack?	32.18
D	Conclusions — the future of reform	32.23

	Index	713
--	-------	-----