

Table of contents

Part 1: Preparing to outsource

Introduction

Kit Burden

State of the outsourcing market

Duncan Pithouse

Overview of the procurement, negotiation and delivery process

Kit Burden

Part 2: Practical guidance and risks

Role of the client

Mark Rasdale

Practical perils and pitfalls

Paul Allen

Multi-jurisdictional deals

Vinny Sanchez

SIAM/Multi-vendor projects

Gareth Stokes

Different types of outsourced services

Mark Rasdale

Part 3: Key provisions and issues

Due diligence and transition

Sami Rintala

The services and service levels

Kristor de Vulder

Charges and charging models

Alessandro Ferrari

Warranties and delivery commitments

Anne Friedman

Confidentiality, intellectual property and data

John McKinlay

Liability and indemnities

Nicholas Boyle

Clare Gregory

HR and ARD/TUPE

Kai Bodenstedt

Clare Gregory

Termination and step in rights

Chloe Forster

Assets and third party contracts

Gregory Manter

Governance, vendor management and dispute resolution

Simon Kenyon

Renegotiations, retenders and reversibility

Jeanne Dautier

Jonathan Rofé

Part 4: Miscellaneous issues

Impact upon outsourcing of AI and automation

Nicholas Boyle

Gareth Stokes

Outsourcing in the age of digital evolution

Mark O'Connor

Vinny Sanchez

Data protection

Rachel De Souza

Ross McKean

Scott Thiel

Case study: outsourcing in a regulated industry

Duncan Pithouse

Jan Pohle

Regional views

Australia

Nicholas Boyle

Belgium

Kristof de Vulder

Raf Schoefs

China

Scott Thiel

Finland

Sami Rintala

France

Jonathan Rofé

Germany

Jan Pohle

Italy

Alessandro Ferrari

Filippo Grondona

Giacomo Lusardi

Netherlands

Joris Willems

United Arab Emirates

Paul Allen

United Kingdom

Kit Burden

United States

Gregory Manter