

Contents

| | |
|---|------------|
| Foreword | xi |
| Preface | xv |
| Acknowledgments | xix |
| Chapter 1: Building a Data Sleuth Team | 1 |
| The First Team | 2 |
| The Forensic Accountant | 4 |
| Technical and Strategic | 4 |
| Thorough and Efficient | 5 |
| Detail-Oriented and Effective Communication | 6 |
| Accounting Knowledge and Legal Knowledge | 7 |
| Meeting Deadlines and Developing Business | 8 |
| Forensic Accountant Problems | 8 |
| The Scalability Problem | 9 |
| The Strategy Problem | 10 |
| The Review Problem | 12 |
| The Sustainability Problem | 13 |
| Data Sleuth Solutions | 14 |
| The Scalability Solution | 14 |
| The Strategy Solution | 16 |
| The Review Solution | 18 |
| The Sustainability Solution | 18 |
| Chapter 2: The Data Sleuth Process | 21 |
| Engagement Types | 21 |
| Simultaneously Managing Client Expectations and Objectivity | 25 |
| Professional Standards | 28 |
| The Data Sleuth Process | 30 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| Chapter 3: The Data Sleuth Necessity | 41 |
| Forensic Accounting Engagements versus External Financial Statement Audits | 42 |
| The Evolution of Forensic Accounting | 44 |
| The Case of the Cash Back Payroll Scheme | 45 |
| Start with the Evidence, Not the Scheme | 47 |
| The Case of the Gambling Executive Director | 48 |
| Chapter 4: Data Sleuth Considerations | 53 |
| Investigations Affect Real People | 54 |
| The Case of the Nonexistent Inventory | 55 |
| The Fraud Formula | 58 |
| Staying on Task with Purpose in Mind | 59 |
| The Investigation Decision Tree for a Data Sleuth | 60 |
| Recovery Avenues | 63 |
| The Case of the Man Cave | 66 |
| Chapter 5: Client Communication and Involvement | 71 |
| The Case of the Initial Client Meeting | 72 |
| Client Expectations | 75 |
| Data Procurement | 77 |
| Client Involvement During an Investigation | 78 |
| Ongoing Client Communication | 81 |
| Chapter 6: The Data Sleuth Case Plan | 83 |
| The Data Sleuth Process | 83 |
| The Client's Investigation Priorities | 86 |
| Evaluate the Subject's Access through Risk-Based Analysis | 86 |
| Data Sleuth Analysis Framework | 88 |
| From Conceptual Venn Diagram to Comparative Data Analysis | 96 |
| The Data Analysis Plan | 97 |
| Data and Information Gathering | 99 |
| Communication of the Case Plan | 101 |
| The Case of the Duplicate Payroll – Conclusion | 102 |
| Chapter 7: Risk-Based Analysis | 105 |
| The Case of the Puzzling Entries | 106 |
| Risk Focus in Audits versus Risk Focus in Investigations | 118 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| The Case of the Mom of the Year | 118 |
| Evaluating Risk in Divorce Cases and Estate and Trust Disputes | 126 |
| Chapter 8: Data Sources and Data Processing Techniques | 129 |
| Data Sources Explained | 129 |
| Quantitative and Qualitative Data Sources | 130 |
| Data Sources for Quantitative Evidence | 130 |
| Data Sources for Qualitative Evidence | 134 |
| Using Quantitative and Qualitative Data Sources | 135 |
| Data Processing Techniques | 136 |
| Relevant Period | 136 |
| Getting Organized Before Beginning Data Processing | 139 |
| Considerations Before Processing Data | 144 |
| Account Scheduling Steps | 145 |
| Formatting Account Schedules and Normalizing Payees | 149 |
| Chapter 9: Standard Data Sleuth Analyses: Comparative Analysis and Source and Use Summaries | 151 |
| Comparative Analysis | 152 |
| The Case of the Cash Flow Fiasco | 153 |
| Source and Use Summary and Analysis | 156 |
| Bank Account Source and Use Analysis | 157 |
| Credit Card Account Source and Use Summary | 164 |
| Chapter 10: Standard Data Sleuth Analyses: Interesting Data Findings, Risk Indicator Analysis, and Payroll Analysis | 169 |
| Interesting Data Findings | 170 |
| Risk Indicator Analysis | 175 |
| Payroll Analysis | 180 |
| Overpayments of Payroll | 189 |
| Chapter 11: Findings, Reports, and Testimony | 193 |
| Findings | 193 |
| Reports | 196 |
| A Report for Criminal Charges | 197 |
| Report Recommendations for Law Enforcement Referral | 199 |
| An Expert Report for Civil Litigation | 200 |
| An Expert Report for Insurance Reimbursement | 201 |
| Report Organization Recommendations | 202 |
| Testimony | 203 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| Chapter 12: Practice the Data Sleuth Process | 207 |
| Review of the Data Sleuth Case Plan | 207 |
| Review of Data Sleuth Data Processing | 208 |
| Review of the Data Analysis Plan and Standard Data Sleuth Analyses | 208 |
| Case Study 1: The Case of the Disappearing Business | 209 |
| Case Study 2: The Case of the Sneaky CFO | 213 |
| Chapter 13: The Cases that Went Wrong | 219 |
| The Client Who Believes He Was Wronged | 219 |
| The Client Whose Decisions Affect an Investigation | 225 |
| Chapter 14: Data Sleuth Expansion | 231 |
| Data Sleuth Empowers the Curious | 232 |
| Data Sleuth Divisions | 234 |
| Public Accounting Firms | 235 |
| Consulting and Advisory Firms | 236 |
| The Case of the Phony Professional | 237 |
| Law Firms | 239 |
| Law Enforcement | 240 |
| The Future of Data Sleuth | 240 |
| Data Sleuth as Prevention | 240 |
| Licenses, Credentials, and Professional Development | 241 |
| Appendix: Case Study Exercise Solution Recommendations | 243 |
| Case Study 1: Exercise 1 – Solution Recommendations | 243 |
| Case Study 2: Exercise 1 – Solution Recommendations | 244 |
| Case Study 2: Exercise 2 – Solution Recommendations | 246 |
| About the Author | 249 |
| About the Website | 251 |
| Index | 253 |