

Table of contents

Preface

Foreword

Part 1: General

1. On judgments
2. Judgments: purpose and audience
3. Judgment length
4. Judgment style
5. Judgment structure
6. Dissenting and concurring judgments
7. Children, families, and immigrants
8. Ex tempore judgments
9. The judgment as the art of truth

Part 2: Some specific aspects of judgment writing

10. Writing a judgment using AI
11. The ethics of using AI
12. AI and legal research
13. Visual aids
14. Storytelling
15. Structured writing
16. Using precedents
17. Sensitive information
18. Writing long judgments
19. Judgment summaries
20. Editing

21. Footnotes

22. Collaborative judgment writing

23. Media sensitivity

24. Gender-inclusive language

25. The future of judgment writing

Part 3: Some great judges and their writing

26. Three great women judges

27. Three great American judges

28. Three great British judges

29. Some great judges from the wider world

Part 4: Some lessons from great writers

30. Barbault

31. Besant

32. Conrad

33. Crawford

34. De Maupassant

35. De Quincey

36. Forster

37. Hardy

38. The Hawthornes

39. Hazlitt

40. Howells

41. James

42. Johnson

43. Lawrence
44. Lewes
45. Lewis
46. Matthews
47. Maugham
48. Orwell
49. Pater
50. Poe
51. Raleigh
52. Saintsbury
53. Schopenhauer
54. Spencer
55. Stevenson
56. Thompson
57. Trollope
58. Twain
59. Wharton
60. Woolf

Part 5: A judgment writing code

61. A proposed code on judgment writing

Appendix A: A Handbook
on Judgment Writing